City Council meets; Renner appointed as Vice-Mayor

By: Richard Anderkin
The Mt. Vernon City Council held their first meeting of 1999 with a new Mayor and two new council members.
The new Mayor, Karen King, was joined by new council members Jackie Renner and Darrell Smith. Other members of the council are incumbents, Lee Keene, Clark Mullins, Wayne Bullock and Clarice Kirby.
King appointed councilman Renner as the city's vice mayor, saying she thought it was good business to have someone in charge if she was out of town.
King said she appointed Renner because he got the most votes in the council race in November.
After some discussion the council agreed to have City Attorney Debra Lambert review state statutes to see if the council should create the position of vice mayor before King filled such a position.

The council then discussed at length the fact that the city of Mt. Vernon's finances have not been audited for the past two years.
The last audit completed was for fiscal year ending June 30, 1996.
Local CPA Joe Clontz, whose firm audits the city's books, told the council that the audits for 1997 and 1998 had not been completed because their was still three months of financial information that had never been keyed into the computer.
That three months of information is holding up both the audit for both years, Clontz told the council.
City Clerk Kaye Rader told the County officials sworn-in Saturday

Most newly elected and those re-elected county officials have been sworn-in over the past couple of weeks, including many county officials on Saturday.
The state's highest ranking member of the judiciary system, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Rockcastle County's Joe Lambert, conducted swearing-in ceremonies for county officials at the courthouse Saturday afternoon.
Among those sworn-in was Sheriff Shirley Smith and his deputies.
Smith's deputies include: his wife Libby, Darrell Doan, Doug Thomas, Charles Gray, Sonya Prewitt, Leonard Miller, Dr. Mike Bryant, Chaplain, Tim Cameron, Steve Miller, Trevor Hensley and Shannon Franklin.
County Clerk Norma Houk and her deputies, Russell Houk, Janet Burdine, Tina Gibbs, JoAnn Miller, Thelma Adams and Sonya McGuire were also sworn-in.

Rockcastle County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlouff was not present for the swearing-in, because of the illness and eventual death of a family member, but all five magistrates were on hand.
They included John Holbrook, Jack Bradley, Bill McKinney, Fred Mullins, Jr., and Donald Bullock.
No changes have taken place in Carlouff's office with Anna Rose Mullins, remaining as fiscal court clerk/bookkeeper and Mary Jane French remaining as clerical aid. Eva Martin and Jennie Hansel also remain. Joe Clontz is still the county treasurer.
Three of the five constables were sworn-in. They were Delno McClure, Dale Miller and Tommy Bullens. The other constables are Randall Stevens and Roy Parriman.
Newly-elected Jailer James Miller was sworn-in along with deputies Wilmer Robinson, Howard Haddix, Otha Marcum, Roy Lucas, Bill

Lawrence, Ruth Coffey, Rissie Meese and Mamie Vickers. When the jail re-opens Miller will have a staff of 12 including himself.
Sworn-in in December was Circuit Court Clerk Teresa Vanzant and her deputies, Brenda McKnight, Pat Brown, Teresa Amis, Joyce Houk, Liza York and Crystal Griffin.
Also sworn-in in December was Property Valuation Administrator Margaret Offutt and her deputies, Janet Vaughn, Sheila-Lear, Cindy Offutt and Ruth Spears.
County Attorney Jeff Burdette was sworn-in on Sunday. His office staff includes assistant county attorney Russ Alred, Patty Hayes, Kathy

Flannery pleads guilty

A former Rockcastle County man pled guilty Tuesday in Rockcastle Circuit Court to one count of obscuring the identity of a machine.
James Flannery, 32, of London was indicted in December of 1997 for an August 1997 incident in which he was accused of removing or defacing the manufacturers serial number of a 1994 pick-up truck.
Flannery was also indicted on one count of receiving stolen property in excess of $300 for having in his possession the same 1994 Ford truck that police said he knew was stolen.
Commonwealth's Attorney Eddie Montgomery recommended a two year probation sentence for Flannery and also agreed to drop the receiving stolen property indictment.
Final sentencing for Flannery is scheduled for February 12.
Fire destroys mobile home at Willailla
A mobile home owned by Ronnie Goff on Poplar Grove Road in the Willailla section of the county was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday.
Broadhead fire fighters responded to the noon fire but when they arrived the trailer was completely involved.

Wreck on 1505

Two Berea men were slightly injured last Tuesday when they lost control of their 1988 Chevy Corsica on Hwy. 1505 near Brodhead. According to police, the Corsica ran into the ditch and then overturned. Edwin Rhodes, 29, of Berea and Scott Begley, 19, of Berea were treated at the Rockcastle Hospital and released. Above Gene Cromer of Town and Country Chevrolet prepares to turn the car over on its wheels.

Winter finally arrives

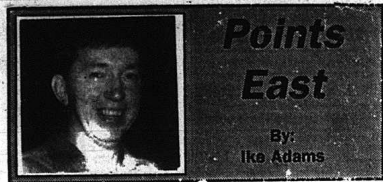

Only about an inch of snow has been recorded at the Cox Funeral Home weather station in Mt. Vernon this year, but during the first six days of 1999 some snowfall has been recorded on five of those days. The low temperature recorded thus far in January was 2 degrees on Tuesday morning and the high was 54 on the second. Students have also missed three straight days of school and will likely miss the remainder of the week.

Help available in starting business

If you have been thinking about starting your own business and don't know where or how to begin, the U.S. Small Business Administration's One Stop Capital Shop is here to serve you. In addition to business counseling and technical assistance, there are over 500 business references in the Business Information Center library that is a part of the One Stop - and there is so much more.
The Business Information Center is located on the second floor of The Center for Rural Development located at 2292 South Highway 27, Suite 215. Trained staff is available all day, from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, to assist you with your business questions.
"We want to help people that want to be in business for themselves. We are open during the noon hours for those that can stop by then. Or, if necessary, we make arrangements to meet with people before or after their working hours," said Arch McAlister, manager of the Business Information Center. "Our office is here to provide assistance in writing that all-important business plan to get your business off on the right track. In today's market, a bank requires a business plan in order for someone to get a commercial loan."

"Our services are free -- your tax dollars at work," he said with a smile.
"We don't do the work for someone in writing their plan but we can help them research their market by using our Internet access and show them how to use the computers and software programs that do a lot of the formatting for the business plan," McAlister continued. "We are co-located with the South Central Small Business Development Center and SCORE, the Service Corps of Retired Executives, that can then provide more in-depth business counseling if someone needs it. Stop by and see what we have to offer."
For more information about SCORE or using the Business Information Center, please call Arch McAlister at 606-677-6082; or call Lynn Miracle at (606)677-6120 for information about the services of the Small Business Development Center.

Last week I promised that we'd be publishing a list of seed catalogues this week. However we're postponing that until next week and you'll still have plenty of time to contact them and place your orders well before the ground will be fit to till.

The postponement is due largely to the fact that I had forgotten about a major milestone coming up on Tuesday that bears a bit of reflection. Assuming that I will live another 48 hours, I will be 50 years old on January 5.

In some respects, it's a good feeling. All four kids are grown and doing quite well for themselves. Loretta and I are more in love with each other today than we've ever been and it gets better all the time. We have a comfortable home and good friends and we're in relatively good health. We're not for molds and pollen we'd have little to complain about on the health front.

I began writing this column when I was 29. It's over 20 years old now but even in the early days when I would meet readers for the first time their universal comment was, "I thought you'd be a lot older than you are."

Most of my early columns had to do with growing up on Blair Branch in Leitch County, going to a two-room school, moving the out-house, milking by hand, pulling fodder, hog killing and on and on. When I was in college I was literally embarrassed about the life style of my youth because we seemed so horribly behind the times and our means far more modest than my peers. Life on Blair Branch probably was 20 years behind the rest of the country in the sixties. And now I'm more thankful that it was than for any other aspect of my life.

The mountain way of life saw few changes and grudgingly accepted the ones that did come along throughout the first six decades of this century. The automobile and electricity changed the way folks got around and did their homes, but as late as 1967 agriculture depended on a good outside day that was cultured were too dangerous to plow with a tractor.

In 1963, I graduated from Blair Branch Grade School, a two-room, frame structure where my mother had door to door sales. We still had outdoor basketball court and we played the same marble games that had been handed down through the generations. Every Friday afternoon saw a school-wide spelling bee or arithmetic match with the same rules that had been established in 1911 when the school was built. For several years I built fires in the huge, pot-bellied stoves that heated the school for ten cents a morning.

While the traditions of letting school out for a few days in the fall for "foddering time" had ended by the time I became a student, it was considered a perfectly legitimate excuse to miss school for a day or two to plant potatoes or gather corn.

Over the last two decades I have frequently written on those subjects and many others that make me sound more like an old timer than someone who would be essentially helpless if a computer wasn't in easy reach. But believe it or not, my kids believe I'm ancient.

During the rest of this year, I plan on doing a column at least once a month that will dwell on the past and perhaps revisit some subjects that I wrote about before the place got scattered around.

In the meantime, I suppose that I am getting to the point that I look as old as I sound. In any event, I certainly feel like a whippersnapper anymore and heavens knows I don't look like one.

Finally, the seed catalogue addresses will be in your paper next week along with my picks for favorite new vegetable varieties.

actions and waste our elected officials time arguing over who said what and the definitions of simple words like lies, perjury, sin and sex.

Looks like those well educated people could have found a dictionary somewhere or at least a kid from the gutter that could have made them plain to them. People living on social security checks could certainly use some of it. And by the way, social security is the insurance policy we paid for out of our own earnings, not a welfare handout. I am sure who receive the "one and a third" percent cost of living that was added on to our already low monthly checks we have to live on broke the carefully planned budget the congress okayed when it boosted its own salary and cost of living raise. My raise amounted to $14.00 per month, that is not even the cost of a lunch tip for those trying to decide what a lie is or what sex is.

The health care system and school system could use the rest. If these two systems aren't fully looked in to and corrected soon, and very soon, we will be worse off than any third world country. Those responsible for this should get their nose out of the stop bucket in Washington and see to it every child can read and every sick person can see a doctor when one is needed. This should be their first priority. Have you written your representatives in congress about how we, the people feel about it. Or at least how I feel about the future of our country if these things aren't corrected. If those who were elected to office by tricking the voters into thinking they were smart enough and capable enough to be the leaders of the world, can't do the job then it is time for them to step aside and allow the ordinary people, the backbone of the nation, to use their skills gained through hard-knocks, hard work and wise planning, to have a try at it. Since big money hasn't trickled down this far yet maybe these folks could build a few school houses that are equipped to teach "reading, writing and arithmetic" then add on a few lessons in discipline, courtesy and hard work. Then just maybe they could do away with the insurance companies and get back to Doctors taking care of the sick people who would in turn pay their own doctor bills.

Now back to the "Boob tube" that we are all captivated by. For the last several days we have been held captive by weather channels. Sometimes I really wish for the "GOOD OLD DAYS." The days before we were warned of bad weather ahead, storms are heading your way, prepare for a tornado, hurricane season is beginning in another part of the country and the latest, stay off the roads, snow and ice are treacherous. Well, some of them are noteworthy and people do need to be warned but in the "Good old days" before we had all the weather forecasters and new fangled equipment to tell them how weather was created and shifted from place to place we simply went our merry way and took it as it came. If we were caught out in a snow storm we high tailed it to home or some other refuge. We usually had fuel piled up on the back porch to heat the house and added another sweater, long drawers, double up our socks and pulled a warm cap over our ears and tough it out. Or more likely grab a sled and fill our pockets with hot parched corn and head for the nearest hill where we would meet our friends and enjoy a good old fashioned sled riding party. This last week was a perfect example of how the weather man or woman can ruin a weekend.

My niece, Janet and husband, Lynn had planned for a couple of weeks to spend New Years Eve weekend with me. It was to be one of those perfect weekends. Just the three of us and not much cooking. Maybe a pot roast in the slow cooker and whatever was left of the Christmas candy and cookies. Lynn would watch his favorite T.V. and Jan and I would play scrabble and chicken foot, a game that has not taken the country by storm. We had no time set to get up or to go to bed, we would let our feeling make the decision. Then came the announcement, bad weather ahead, then stay off the roads the driving will be hazardous. The prediction was true for her area. She lives in Wallon, not that far away really but it was enough to scare her out of coming. Friday morning was ok, but soon the weathermen was saying, rough driving ahead and dangerous storm on its way. Well, it never did reach us here in Mt. Vernon, but it did snow and drift up there. No if it had been twenty five years ago we would have been on our way and the weekend would have been spent wondering what was going on in the rest of the world. Oh yes, I spent the weekend watching the weather channels telling about the biggest snow in a century in Chicago and watching people scramble out of snow drifts and seek a place to spend the night. Those were the ones who hadn't listened to T.V. or at least hadn't paid attention to it. For those who did listen many lives probably were save, perhaps their own. T.V.? I guess I will get out my crochets and curl up in front of it and listen to what the weathermen are saying, and perhaps even watch the end of the big drama. I sincerely hope this year will be one that all of us can look back at and say it was the best one of our life. And also hope the social security cost of living increase will be sufficient to keep the wolf away from our door while our congress men and women fight it away from theirs.

TV Trash, Weather and CNN Good morning and best wishes for a very happy and prosperous New Year to The Staff of The Mt. Vernon Signal and the readers of it. Christmas has once again come and gone and the year 1998 slipped into history when 1999 appeared on our calendars last Friday morning.

Are we ready for this year, the turn of the century? Well, ready or not, it is here and only time will prove our readiness. I truly hope all of us are ready for any event that takes place, whether it be the solving of the computer problem or the coming of Christ as many of us have been taught from childhood will happen in the year 2000.

This past month has been quite an exciting one on T.V. That is if one calls holiday advertisements, animated programs, trash and home shopping channels tempting us with every new contrivance imaginable to make housework more endurable, and need in the White House and capital building of the U.S.A. In fact this one has kept the whole world captivated for a whole year. And by the looks of things it might go for another year. Many people are already looking forward to the next chapter that begins this week. Personally I think there are more and better ways to spend our tax dollars than to spend millions of dollars to hunt for gutter there are always yard sales to dispose of them. I did happen to stumble onto one or two programs celebrating the "REASON OF THE SEASON," The Birth of Jesus The Christ Child. But for the most part it was the season for the big corporations to profit and those who could least afford it, but felt they had to keep up with the "Joneses" by satisfying every wish of their offspring and family, endanger their bank account or go in debt for expensive toys or diamond rings or pearls as proof of their love, generosity or economic well being. None-the-less it was a very Merry Christmas for most of us.

T.V. trash? I call all those programs such as animated shows for children, trash. I was the memories of my child to be pleasant ones of pretty and lovable human characters. Trashy youth programs? We will leave that till later.

Then there was the exciting series on CNN of the biggest scandal the world has ever witnessed and it happens in the White House and capital building of the U.S.A. In fact this one has kept the whole world captivated for a whole year. And by the looks of things it might go for another year. Many people are already looking forward to the next chapter that begins this week. Personally I think there are more and better ways to spend our tax dollars than to spend millions of dollars to hunt for gutter

"It Is Written"

Let us consider an imperative condition for our forgiveness. In Mt 6 14-15 we read: "For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." Also in Mt 18 25 we read: "And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses." And in Col 3 13: "Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye." If belov'd, we are not willing to forgive those who sin against us, be sure you never sin again! For if you ask God to forgive you, He has plainly spoken in these passages that He WILL NOT FORGIVE YOU! So don't even bother to waste your breath or time seeking or asking forgiveness. When Peter asked the Lord "how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him?" Till seven times? Jesus replied: "I say unto thee, I will forgive him: but, until seven times seven; i.e. threescore and seven times." (Mt 18 21-22) Jesus went on to give a parable to make his point, vs 23-34. He concluded in vs 35 by saying: "So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses." We must be forgiving.

They're Winners—The Lady Rockets took all three games of their Round Robin Holiday Hoopla Tournament held recently and sponsored by Rockcastle Hospital. The girls defeated Campbellsville, Russell Co. and Madison Southern by 29 point plus margins and are now sporting a No. 1 ranking in the 13th region. Shown with their first place tournament trophy are, front row, from left: Laura Beth Bell, Angie Boreano, Amanda Barnett, Ashley Lawson, Brandy Reynolds, Tiffany McClure, Amber Falin and Jessie Rickels. Back row: Leslie Carpenter, Rachelle Hammond, Jessica Cobb, Suzanne Brown, Brooke Roberts and Amber Denney.

Brings record to 10-3

Lady Rockets beat Clay 61-58

It's a No. 1 ranking in the region and a 10 and 3 season record for the Lady Rockets who battled the entire game Tuesday night before emerging a winner, 61-58, over the Clay County Lady Tigers for the second time this season.

Rockets Jessie Rickels and Brandy Reynolds put all their team's points on the board in the first quarter and managed to outscore the Tigers 15-13. The girls combined for six baskets, which included two threes by Reynolds and one by Rickels.

The second quarter, the Rockets were only able to muster three baskets, one each by Suzanne Brown, Reynolds and Jessica Cobb. Their other four points came at the free throw line. While the Rockets were only adding 10 points to their total, the Tigers were getting 16 to go to the dressing room at half time up 29-25.

Reynolds and Brooke Roberts each contributed a three point basket in the third quarter and Tiffany McClure, who was held scoreless in the first half, added four free throws and a basket and Brown got two baskets and three free throws to give the Rockets their best quarter of the game with 19 points. Tenacious defense held the Tigers to 10 points and the Rockets were up 44-39 heading to the final period.

The Rockets started the fourth quarter with a turnover but the Tigers couldn't capitalize and a three by Reynolds put the Rockets up 47-39. The Tigers wouldn't give however and took the lead 56-55 at the 1:44 mark. Reynolds got another basket to put the Rockets back in front and McClure got a big defensive rebound and a steal to keep the ball in the Rockets' hands. McClure then got three of four free throws before the Tigers came back with a basket to make it 60-58 with seven ticks on the clock. Jessie Rickels was mugged by two Clay defenders on the inbound pass but the refs saw a walk and it was Clay's ball. They missed their field goal but Brown committed her fifth foul of the game with 3.6 on the clock and Kristie Asher was at the line. She missed the first and a lane violation was called on the second shot. Rickels was immediately fouled on the Rockets' possession and canned one of two at the 1.4 mark for the final scoring of the game.

Reynolds led the Rockets with 20 points including four threes; Brown got 12; Rickels 11; McClure 9 (seven at the free throw line); Roberts 5 and Jessica Cobb 4.

Lady Rockets win holiday tournament

The Lady Rockets went through their own Holiday Hoopla Tournament, sponsored by Rockcastle Hospital, like the proverbial "dose of salts." How big a rout were the three games the Rockets played? Big enough that the Russell Co. Lakers took second place in the Round Robin tournament because the Rockets only beat them by 29 points.

After dispatching Campbellsville with ease in the opening game, the Rockets took on the Lakers and, to be fair, the Lakers stayed in the ball game through the first half, trailing only 38-27 at the end of the half. But, the Rockets came out of the dressing room smoking and put 24 points on the board to the Lakers 9 and went on to win 71-42.

Brandy Reynolds was top scorer for the Rockets with 21; Suzanne Brown got 17; Brooke Roberts 11; Tiffany McClure 10; Jessie Rickels 6 and Amber Falin, Ashley Lawson and Amber Denney, 2 each.

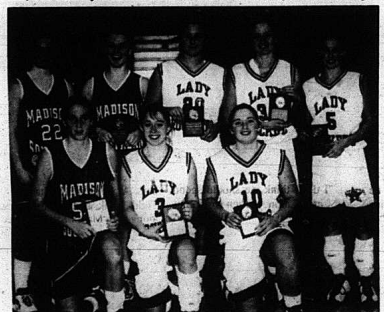

In the last game against Madison Southern, The Rockets cruised to a 72-40 win and Coach Chrysti Noble got to completely clear her bench.

Madison Southern's offense completely stalled the first quarter when they only got one basket but they were perfect from the free throw line, going 8 for 8. But their output of ten points in the quarter was matched by Suzanne Brown who got 10 points for the Rockets to help her team to a 20-10 first quarter lead.

The Rockets doubled their lead in the second quarter, going to the dressing room with a 44-23 lead.

Southern only managed six points the third quarter while the Rockets, behind a very balanced scoring attack, put 18 points on the board to lead 62-29 at the third quarter break.

Reynolds again led the scoring for the Rockets with 22 points; Brown got 18; Rickels 11; McClure 10; Cobb and Rachelle Hammond 4 each and Roberts 3.

Sophomore Jessie Rickels goes for the steal against a Madison Southern Eagle. The Rockets are now 10-3 on the season.

Brandy Reynolds, who has led the Rockets in scoring the last three games, dishes off a pass during the Rockets game against Madison Southern which the Rockets won 72-40.

Rockets finish second in tourney

The Rockcastle Rockets finished runners-up over the Christmas break Cumberland Falls Invitational Tournament. Rockcastle went 2-1 with wins over the Hazard Bulldogs and Bell County Bobcats and a loss in the finals to the Boyle County Running Rebels.

In the semi-final game, the Rockets beat Bell County 62-51 in a much closer game than the score reflected. The Rockets outscored the Bobcats 20-17 in the first quarter, with twelve of the Rocket points coming from threes.

Matthew Brown scored the first points of the game, and Layne Nicely tied the score at four with a bucket for the Rockets.

Missed free throws and poor rebounding gave Bell County the lead four points, but Andrew Cash hit a three to bring Rockcastle to one, 8-7.

Brown hit free throws and Stevie Bradley scored, keeping Rockcastle within one, 12-11.

A Bell County turnover and then a Rockcastle steal led to a 6-0 run for the Rockets as Nicely and Christopher Parsons both connected for a three, putting Rockcastle up 17-12.

Cash would hit another three for Rockcastle but Bell County ended the quarter in their favor with the last five points of the game and only down one, 20-17.

Nicely and Cash began the second quarter giving Rockcastle a seven point lead with a bucket by Nicely and two made free throws by Cash. Bell County came to within one before Blake Calhoun found the bottom of the basket for Rockcastle, putting them back up three, 26-23.

Nicely and Cash struck again, this time with Nicely making two free throws and Cash scoring the basket. Rockcastle went back up by five, 30-25.

Cash finished out the quarter's scoring for Rockcastle, hitting two free throws and making the last basket of the half, sending the Rockets into the locker room up six, 34-28.

The third quarter was a low scoring affair for Rockcastle as Bell County outscored the Rockets, 12-9.

Only two Rocket players scored in the third quarter with Cash being high man with seven points and Nicely adding a basket.

The Rockets never lost the lead during the third quarter despite low scoring and Rockcastle finished the quarter up by three, 43-40.

The Rockets drew first blood in the fourth quarter with two made free throws by Cash.

Poor defense and Rockcastle turnovers gave Bell County the advantage and the chance to take the lead for the first time since early in the first quarter and the Bobcats did, making two free throws to go up one, 46-45.

Andrew Cash made three points the old fashioned way as he was fouled on a made basket and hit the free throw.

Brown hit the second free throw of a double bonus and with the Rockets up 49-47 Rockcastle went into a stall for about two minutes.

At the 2:20 mark, Bell County went man to man and caused the Rockets to come out of their stall and Rockcastle could not come up with a score, instead turned the ball over. Bell County could not take advantage and committed their own turnover then sent Cash to the line where he made both free throws.

The Bobcats tied the game at 51-51 with 57.9 seconds to go but Calhoun hit a basket to put the Rockets

Winter Jubilee
Although absent for a couple of years, the Jubilee Echoes return to the auditorium of First Christian Church for what has become a traditional Winter Jubilee. On Sunday night, January 17th at 7 p.m., the Jubilee Echoes will be featuring the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in heart warming, foot stamping, inspirational song! The public is invited. Following the concert will be our annual Birthday Bash, where we gather to celebrate everyone's birthday for the year. We'll have twelve tables with twelve cakes and/or dessert for that month. Come one, come all to First Christian Church on Sunday, January 17 to hear the Gospel of Christ in song and celebrate your birthday. The church is located at 160 West Main Street at Lovell Court. A love offering for the group will be taken.

GOD'S LOVE HAS OVERLAID THE WHITE SPARKLE OF WINTER

The autumn colors now are gone,
And icy winds will fill the night
With snow, revealing at the dawn
A world all blanketed in white;
An awesome sight we can behold
While also seeing just beyond,
Despite the penetrating cold,
Some skaters on the frozen pond.
The nighttime sky becomes endowed
With splendor, which will then appear
When not obscured by any cloud:
The brightest stars of all the year.
Your House of Worship will portray
The love of God, with which we're blessed,
When winter's beauty comes our way,
And shows the weary world at rest.

— Gloria Novak

GOOD RESOLUTIONS SHOULD BE MADE BEFORE THE NEW YEAR

People generally wait until the first of January to make a list of character-improving resolutions. However, with the holiday season at the door, there are some appropriate ones that we should make right now. Let us resolve to be more patient when the traffic slows down in holiday gridlock, to be more courteous with overworked salespersons, to make the first move in mending a quarrel we may have had with someone, to give what we can to the poor, to be friendly and helpful with our neighbors, particularly those who are ill or handicapped, and to attend our House of Worship. Doing these things will give us a good feeling, and along with the lights and decorations, will help to bring the true spirit of the holidays to ourselves and everyone around us.

Any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now.
— Etienne de Gellet

Agricultural News

By Wården Alexander, FSA Director

Producers are reminded to return marketing cards to the FSA office immediately after sales.

Producers who had marketing cards at the London Tobacco Warehouse, London, which burned are reminded of the following:

1. furnish the local FSA with tobacco sale bills for report of marketings (sale bills include pounds sold and amount received)

2. request the issuance of another card for additional sales as necessary.

DISASTER LEASING

As a condition for approving a barley tobacco disaster lease, the producer must file an application for disaster credit. For those who suffered a 20% loss due to a natural disaster and are approved the disaster leasing program is available through February 15, 1999. A listing is made public with the use of bulletin board space.

If you are a producer with extra tobacco wishing to market shall provide to the FSA office evidence of additional tobacco to market above the 103%. Producers shall provide FSA a factual estimate as to the extra pounds or copy of the tobacco weigh sheet for those pounds. These extra pounds determine the amount of poundage which a producer may lease into the farm under disaster provisions.

Prior to disaster leasing producers which fall short and those who have extra pounds should contact the local FSA office for computation of the amount of pounds available for disaster leasing purposes.

Tobacco Stolen or Destroyed

According to regulations stated in 107B paragraph 941 pertaining to stolen tobacco a police report must be filed within 15 days of the theft and be submitted to the County FSA Office. Filing the police report according to regulations will possibly avoid a penalty and/or a reduction of next years quota.

Producers are reminded to contact the FSA office when destroying more than 500 pounds of tobacco. The destruction must be witnessed by a FSA employee.

same offense. Norm may choose to go to the jail at 3:00 a.m. and post bond for his son. Or Norm could choose to wait until morning and let his son spend the night in jail (which might be part of a learning experience for his son).

Given the way Norm has always treated his son, he will probably hate to stay in that job. She could quit. She could be looking for another job. "But I wouldn't have any money to support myself," Vera responds.

While it is true that financially a change will be hard on Vera, it is also true that the present situation is not ready hard on her. The choice she has is not an easy one, but she does have a choice.

Wanda's mother has asked to borrow money again. "I hate to give it her," Wanda says. "After all she is my mother." In reality Wanda has a choice. "Because she strongly suspects that Mom is using the money to buy lottery tickets, she could choose not to give her any more money. "But I would feel so guilty!" Wanda responds. Yes, she probably would, so her choice is between giving Mom money and feeling guilty. That is not an easy choice, but it is a choice. Believing we have to do something can make our decisions easier, because we have cut off consideration of any other alternatives. Taking control of our lives requires that we acknowledge that we do indeed have choices. Taking control means making the hard choices and living with the consequences.

Changing Some Lifestyles Can Reduce Cancer Risks

By: Hazel Jackson County Extension Agent
for Home Economics

Despite a decline in the U.S. cancer rate in recent YEARS, Kentucky has higher levels of certain types of cancer. However, Kentuckians can make some lifestyle changes to help reduce the risk of cancer. This disease is the Commonwealth's second leading cause of death after coronary heart disease.

The number of new cancer cases and deaths is declining nationwide, largely because many people have changed health-related behaviors. However, Kentucky has a slightly higher level in all cases of cancer. The rates are higher for all cancers in women as well as lung and colorectal cancer in men and women, according to data from the Kentucky Cancer Register's 1996 Kentucky Cancer Incidence.

Most people don't just wake up one morning and have cancer. Lifetime behavior has a cumulative effect on the risk of developing some types of cancer such as breast, colon and lung, especially in later years. While some people have a genetic predisposition that increases the risk for certain types of cancer, many can reduce the risk of cancer by changing their diet, exercise and smoking habits.

Nationwide, about 35 percent of the cancer deaths are related to poor eating habits, according to the American Dietetic Association. From a dietary standpoint, people can help lower cancer risk factors by eating foods that are low in saturated fats and high in dietary fiber and nutrients, notably calcium and folic acid.

Fruits, vegetables and whole-grained products are good sources of fiber and many nutrients essential for good health. Foods that are plentiful in fiber and nutrients include broccoli, brussels sprouts, cabbage, cauliflower, kale and other greens, as well as fruits, especially those eaten with the peeling like apples, pears and the like.

Some research studies have indicated that consuming sufficient calcium and folic acid, a B complex vitamin, might help reduce the risk of colon cancer. To supply the calcium, but not excess fat, eat at least two to three servings daily of low-fat or no-fat dairy products such as milk, yogurt and cheese. Ready-to-eat or fortified cereals, leafy-green vegetables, beans and nuts are good sources of folic acid.

Nutrient-rich diets also tend to be low in calories, which helps people lose excess pounds and maintain a healthy weight.

We Always Have a Choice

Jack Benny, the late comedian, was stopped on a dark street by a man pointing a pistol at him. The gunman said, "Your money or your life." Benny who was well known for being a tightwad was silent for a long time. The gunman repeated his demand, "Your money or your life," and Benny replied, "I'm thinking, I'm thinking."

Jack Benny realized a truth that many have missed: WE ALWAYS HAVE A CHOICE. The choice may not be a pleasant one, as in Benny's choice to give up his money or lose his life, but a choice is always there. One old saying is that there are only three things in life that one has to do:

die and pay taxes. While it is true that we do not have a choice about dying, we do have a choice about paying taxes. We can choose not to pay. The consequences include a possible jail term, so it is not the wisest choice to make, but we do have a choice.

This truth becomes more important as we examine how often in life we act as if we do not have a choice. Take Norm for instance. Norm says, "He's my son. Of course I have to get him out of jail." Norm can see no other possible course of action.

In reality Norm does have a choice. His son has just been arrested and charged with Driving Under the Influence. This is his son's second arrest for the

Noninsured crop disaster assistance program

The Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP) provides crop loss protection for growers of many crops for which Federal Crop insurance was not available.

Eligible crops are commercial crops grown for food and fiber. Also included are floriculture, ornamental nursery, Christmas tree crops, turfgrass crops. ALSO, losses resulting from natural disasters not covered by the crop insurance policy may be eligible for NAP assistance. NAP does not include trees grown for wood, paper or pulp products.

NAP crops are eligible when the expected "Area Yield" is less than 65 percent of normal. NAP payments are made to eligible producers when individual crop losses are in excess of 50 percent of the individual's approved yield at 60% of the crop's average market price (determined by FSA). Producers must report losses within 15 days of the crop loss. Payments to any one producer under NAP cannot exceed $100,000.00 for any given crop year. The payment rate will be reduced for any crop which is unharvested or prevented from being planted, to reflect the decreased costs incurred.

NAP yields are an average of your actual yields for a four to ten-year period. A minimum of four consecutive yields is needed to calculate your NAP approved yield. If acceptable production records are not provided, a yield will be assigned. Most producers, providing production records will increase your NAP protection.

There are three ways the State FSA office may define an area for NAP: (1) A county (2) at least 320,000 acres or (3) acreage on which the value of all crops grown is $80 million or more. These three specifications give FSA the flexibility needed to target assistance where needed.

Unlike previous disaster assistance programs, producers must file an acreage and production report with the local FSA office prior to the crop reporting date. If acres and yields are not reported on time, producers may not be eligible for NAP assistance.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor,
My family and I read with concern the letter in the Signal two weeks ago regarding my sister's shooting death and the plea bargain reached in Circuit Court. The writer was misinformed in her attacks on the County Attorney, as his duties are in District Court and does not include felony cases in Circuit Court.

Also, it was hurtful for someone to use our family member's death in this way, especially during Christmas. And, the facts were wrong. The County Attorney was always available to us when we needed him, even though the case was not in his court.

Finally, a Circuit Court jury of our citizens would not reach a decision, so the Commonwealth Attorney's office from Somerset offered the plea bargain. Our family was not satisfied, but we were glad that some penalty was finally given.

Sincerely,
Johnny Abney

Dear Editor,
The 1999 Organizational Session of the General Assembly will begin on January 5. New members will be sworn in, Republican and Democratic leaders for the Senate will be approved and committee assignments will be made. This is an exciting time for me, for my constituents, and for all the citizens of the Commonwealth as we prepare to move into the 21st Century. As your Senator in Frankfort, I am extremely interested in your thoughts and feelings regarding important issues confronting each of us; also, I need your input on how to address these issues so that I can serve you more effectively.

During the interim, we hold monthly committee meetings in Frankfort to prepare legislation that will be presented in the 2000 Session of the General Assembly. You do not have to wait until we are in session to contact me, for we really never stop working for you even though a session has been completed. It is my intention to serve you the best that I can. Any legislation that you want addressed, any committee that you wish to serve on, or matters you need assistance with, I am always willing to help. In order for you to contact me at the Capitol in Frankfort, and to find out what is going on, I am enclosing a card with my address and toll-free numbers. They are as follows:

To leave a message for me, call our Legislative Message Line at 1-800-372-7181.

To find out what meetings are scheduled, call the Calendar Line at 1-800-633-9650.

Write me at the State Capitol, Frankfort, Kentucky, 40601.

Dear Editor,
This is a personal plea to the person who found my cross and chain at Cox's Funeral Home the day of Paul Calhoun's funeral.

Would you please consider returning it back to me or Cox's? It was a 17th Anniversary gift from my husband and I also wore it as a sign of my Christian faith.

But if you decide not to, wear it and enjoy it and think of me when you do.

Thank you,
Lois K. Barron
Rt. 1 Box 2
Brodhead, KY 40409

As a former State Representative and now as your State Senator, it has always been my policy to stay in touch with my constituents. Knowing your perspective on issues and legislation gives me the advantage of making informed decisions that best represent what the citizens of the 21st Senate District need. Staying in touch will help me serve you better and assure you that your voice will be heard at the Capitol in Frankfort on issues that interest you. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
Albert Robinson
State Senator

This is my son Nathan and his dog Jack. I would like for my neighbor to know the dog he shot and killed on Saturday was more than just a dog. He was a little three-year-old boy's best friend. I hope whatever reason he had for doing what he did was worth it to him. To me, there is nothing that would be worth the pain in my son's eyes and the tears on his little cheeks when he had to tell him his best friend was gone.

Her great grandparents include Willis and Ada Coffey of Scaffold Cave and Virginia Meace of Mt. Vernon with a great great grandmother Lula Sutton of Freetown, Indiana. Wishing Callie many great Christmases to come. I love you very much Aunt Julie.

Even though he arrived More than ten weeks ago, and he lengthened our family tree.

We want you to know about our brand new beau, Cameron Andrew who makes three.

His brother Christopher was one and sister Ciara, was two, and they're just as proud as they could be.

That they're mommy, Lisa came home and daddy, Scott is on the phone Telling everyone about the new bundle of glue.

He was a great big boy 9 pounds 8 ounces of joy and twenty-two inches long. Born at Central Baptist on 10/10 surrounded by family and friends Not a single thing went wrong.

So as our family tree grows we hope that it shows it's roots are strong in the Lord. It's our prayer for these three that someday they'll see by their parents and God they're adored.

Welcome to the world Cameron Andrew Stayton
