

Parole board denies parole for J. Kirby

Eddy F. Montgomery, acting Commonwealth Attorney for Rockcastle County, announced last week that parole has been denied for Wally "Junie" Kirby, 41, of Chestnut Ridge, by the Kentucky Parole Board.

Kirby pled guilty in April of last year to the offense of manslaughter, second degree and received a five year prison term.

Kirby, who had originally been indicted for murder, pled guilty to shooting his girlfriend, Tracy Caudill in the head on February 24, of 1995. Caudill, who was eight months pregnant at the time died shortly after the shooting but, the child was delivered by emergency-section and survived.

According to Montgomery, Kirby will now have to serve out his entire sentence, which will run through April of 2001.

Boil water advisory lifted for some people

The boil water advisory invoked last week for Mt. Vernon water plant customers has been lifted by the state. Mt. Vernon Mayor Karen King made the announcement on Monday. But, she said that until samples are taken by Western/Northern, Rockcastle and Brodhead, those users will remain under the advisory.

The Mayor said that each water district will notify their customers will the advisory has been lifted.

Two Brodhead residents killed

Two Rockcastle residents were killed Friday afternoon in a one-vehicle wreck on Interstate 75 in Madison County.

Earl Judy, 78, and Goldie Marie Pittman, 69, both of Barnett Road, Brodhead, were traveling south on I-75 about 4 p.m. when Judy's 1987 Ford Bronco veered onto the gravel shoulder, rolled through the grass median and overturned twice. Judy and Pittman were ejected from the vehicle, according to a Kentucky State Police news release.

Judy, the driver, and Pittman were pronounced dead at the scene of multiple injuries by Madison County Coroner Jimmy Cornelison, the release said.

State police are investigating to determine the cause's cause. Funeral arrangements for Judy were handled by Wt. Milward Mortuary-Broadway in Lexington.

Pittman, a former resident of Good Hope, is survived by a son, Roger D. Pittman; a sister, Doris Jean

Dr. Mike Byant, left, head of the local department for social services, presents Charlie Napier with the Betty Lewis Children's Service Award.

Napier honored for work with Rockcastle children

Veteran Rockcastle County educator Charles Napier, who heads the local school system's migrant program, was awarded the Betty Lewis Children's Service Award during a ceremony at the Department of Social Services on Friday.

Napier received the prestigious award after being nominated by Rockcastle County Middle School Principal John Hale.

In making his nomination to the selection committee, Hale said that Napier had "demonstrated a dedication to his job that goes far beyond the requirements of his job description. He spends many hours in the evenings and on weekends or holidays checking on children and their families around the county. He has helped meet the needs of many and has motivated quite a few who have otherwise fallen through the cracks.

Hale continued, "Mr. Napier has a genuine concern for the needs of people and is dedicated to making Rockcastle County a better place to live."

The annual award is presented each year during April, which is child abuse prevention month in Kentucky.

Former resident charged with robberies of banks in Somerset

By Carol Coffey
Pulaski Week News Journal
"He tried it a second time, but he didn't get far."

That's how Somerset Police chief summed up the capture and arrest of accused bank robber James I. Bowman, formerly of Rockcastle Co.

Following virtually the same script as in a previous armed robbery, 57-year-old Bowman realized a radically different ending on Friday, April 16. He was quickly apprehended by law enforcement officials after allegedly holding up a second Somerset bank.

It was half past noon on Friday when Somerset Police Department were dispatched to the Watsboro branch of Citizens National Bank on S. Hwy. 27.

At the scene, they learned that a lone, armed white male had entered the bank, wearing blue clothing and using a red bandanna as a mask to shield his identity.

The man demanded, and was given, an undisclosed amount of money from the bank and fled the scene in a white Chevrolet Cavalier with a Kentucky license tag. The tag was later identified as being stolen from a vehicle in the Grand Central Place shopping center before the crime.

Somerset Police officers were joined by deputies from the Pulaski

Food stamp recipients to receive debit cards

Kentucky's food stamp program is getting a new look, but don't be fooled. The new debit-card-styled food stamp card is more than just a pretty face.

The old paper booklets of food stamps are gradually being phased out in Kentucky, starting with a five-count area in Central Kentucky, May 1.

Anderson, Woodford, Fayette, Franklin and Shelby counties will be the first to use the new cards on a test basis and if all goes well, the rest of the state will adopt the program later in the year.

Rockcastle is slated to begin issuing the debit cards on September 1. More than 165,000 Kentucky families are on the state's food stamp program, with 950 families or 5,000 to 6,000 Rockcastle. Countians receive stamps every month, according to Brenda Hayes director of the local office of social insurance.

Board to purchase 40 security cameras

The Rockcastle County School board voted Tuesday night to spend over $60,000 on 40 surveillance cameras that will be used at three of the county's five schools.

Mrs. Loretta Powell, Director of Student Services, said that seventeen cameras would be placed at the Rockcastle County High School, seventeen at the Rockcastle County Middle School and six at Mt. Vernon Elementary.

The board voted to accept a low bid of $60,672 and include the amount in the next school budget which will be approved at next month's regular monthly meeting.

"We may get some money from a grant application for safe schools, from the state, but regardless the board will pay for the cameras out of the general fund," Superintendent Larry Hammond said.

The board also voted earlier in the day to buy two hand held metal detectors to be used at the middle school and high school.

During Tuesday night's meeting Hammond also presented his personnel action report for the past month. They included the retiring of former RCHS principal Ronnie Cash, who now works at the cultural office.

The board also approved May 25 as the last day of school in Rockcastle County this school year and they also approved the calendar for next school year.

Teachers will report on August 4 and students will go to school for the first time on August 11.

A week long Spring break was included in next year's calendar, April 3-7.

Open House

An open house has been scheduled for Rockcastle County's newest industrial employer.

E.S.T. Tool and Machine, Inc., which is located in the former Long Airdon building at Brodhead will have an open house on Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m.

E.S.T. opened a few weeks ago and hopes to employ as many as twenty people when at full capacity.

FEMA finally pays county $47,000 for road clearing

By: Richard Anderkin
The Federal Emergency Management Agency has finally sent the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court a partial payment for work the county did during the 1998 snow storm, that virtually paralyzed the county for several days.

Rockcastle County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlotis told the members of the fiscal court that FEMA had reimbursed the county $47,000 of a $92,000 debt the federal government owes.

Carlotis said that because FEMA had taken over a year to pay what they owed the county, they received somewhat of a poor audit from examiners.

The audit gave the county poor marks for not repaying the $92,000 they borrowed from Citizens Bank during the fiscal year.

Carlotis told the court he had submitted the paper work to FEMA three times before the payment was made. He also said that FEMA would not pay the interest on the money either.

The court approved payment of the money to Citizens Bank from their note and also payments of $2,339 each to Anna Rose Mullins and Kathy Owens for paper work involved with the snow storm.

The Judge said that FEMA had informed him that the county would not receive any more money until FEMA officials inspected the county's roads to make sure they have been cleared.

Carlotis said that FEMA officials would not be in the county until June and payment would probably not come for about three to four months after that.

"I guess we'll get writing up again, but there really is nothing we can do about it," he said.

Well-known minister Harvey Pensol dies

Brother Harvey Marion Pensol, longtime pastor of Fairview Baptist Church in Rockcastle County, passed away Saturday, April 17, 1999 at the Parkview Clay Memorial Hospital in Richmond, Bro. Harvey was the son of the late Andrew D. Pensol and the late Sadie Mink Pensol, residents of Rockcastle County. He was born at 1060 Lynn Street in Cincinnati, Ohio, on October 1, 1931. His father, Andrew, supported the family as a pipe fitter for the Cincinnati Coffin Company. By 1934, Andrew and Sadie, along with their children, Golda, Mabel, Frank and Harvey, returned to Rockcastle County, living in Livingston, Still House Hotel, and the White Milk Hollow. Upon the death of his father at a work site in Ohio on September 18, 1942, Bro. Harvey, along with his mother Sadie, and his brother, Frank, moved to a home on Richmond Street in Mt. Vernon while Golda attended Lee's College in Jackson and Mabel attended Anville Settlement School in Jackson County.

In 1947, Bro. Harvey joined the United States Army and served for seventeen months. He was discharged when it was discovered, during a physical, that he was underage. He returned home to Mt. Vernon and continued high school for one year. On his seventeenth birthday, he joined the United States Air Force and was stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana. Over the next six years, Bro. Harvey was stationed at Elmendorf Air Force Base, Anchorage, Alaska, Amchitka Island, Alaska (making supply runs to Korea), Moody Air Force Base, Valdosta, Georgia and Berlin, Germany (based out of the American Embassy).

While stationed at Moody Air Force Base, Bro. Harvey met Emily Joyce Dixon at the Lee Street Baptist Church in Valdosta, Georgia. Bro. Harvey and Emily, daughter of Grover and Bernice Dixon, were married at the home of her uncle Reverend Russell D. Dixon on August 22, 1953. In the spring of 1954, Bro. Harvey was assigned to Ger-

FEMA has also paid the county $33,280 for a remodeling project for the old county courtroom.

Mike Cameron has received the bid from the county for the work. The courtroom will be used by FEMA as an Emergency Operations Center in case of a disaster.

Rockcastle County was one of only 44 counties in the United States to qualify for the room.

Carlotis said the fact that we are located so close to the Blugrass Army Depot in Richmond, where nerve gas is stored was the reason FEMA footed the bill.

The Judge said the room can be used for any type of activity, such as fiscal court meetings, because the equipment in the room will be under lock and key until it is needed, which is hopefully never.

SBDM elections at high school set for May 11th

The Rockcastle County High School will hold elections for their site based decision making council on Tuesday, May 11.

Nominations for the two parent, three teacher council are now being accepted at the Rockcastle County High School.

The new council will be responsible for hiring a new principal for RCHS, setting the curriculum for students and implementing safe school policies.

All parents of students in the eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh grades will be eligible to vote.

The vote for the three teacher members will be held in the afternoon, during a faculty meeting and the parent members will be elected at 6:30 that evening.

many while Emily stayed in Valdosta with her parents for the birth of their first son. On November 3, 1954 Harvey Allen Pensol was born at the Little-Griffin Hospital.

On his return to the United States in 1955, Bro. Harvey was stationed at Goodfellow Air Force Base in San Angelo, Texas. Together with Emily and Allen, Bro. Harvey moved to San Angelo and served with the United States Air Force Security Services until 1957. Between 1957 and 1961, Bro. Harvey was stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas serving with the Air Training Command. On April 2, 1958, Jerry Franklin Pensol was born followed by David Andrew Pensol on April 24, 1961.

In 1960 Bro. Harvey was licensed for the ministry at the Central Baptist Church in San Antonio. From 1961 to 1964, Bro. Harvey was stationed at Anderson Air Force Base on the island of Guam, serving with the United States Air Force Security Service. In 1962, Emily, Allen, Jerry and David joined Bro. Harvey on Guam. While on Guam, Bro. Harvey was ordained for the ministry at the Calvary Baptist Church and pastored the Marian-

Points East

By: Ike Adams

Call this the gossip column this week.

I've been out of work for a couple of weeks with time on my hands to hear plenty of it. So I'm taking antics by the handful to keep from puking. Because gossip makes me sick.

A little tale can start at the end of one road the size of a mouse and go out the other end bigger than an elephant because idiots with too much time on their hands tend to take the tale they heard, figure on a little bit, do some creative embellishing and pass it along as the absolute truth to the next person. By the time the tale has changed a hundred times you have a conglomeration of bare faced lies circulating throughout the neighborhood as truth.

It's a sickness worse than cancer. "Yeah buddy so and so told me for a fact and I figure, if the truth was known, it was probably a lot worse than that. Did you know—"

And on and on and on with a ditty known or two added at every crossing.

I don't hang out much anymore at places where these kinds of lies get invented, polished and put out.

And this is not a female problem. Men are worse at it, from my observation than women. Let a man hear something on the radio, about a car wreck and if he saw your kid's car going by a few minutes earlier, "I'll call a neighbor and ask, "You hear about that wreck on Richmond Road?"

"Nope. Was it a baddun?"
"Yeah, the ambulances being going by here like houseflies. Saw that Carter Kid going by here a few minutes ago just a flyin'. Betch anything he caused it."

Just as soon as that conversation is ended, the neighbor who took the call, calls up the road.

"You hear about the Carter Kid in Richmond."
"Nope. Heard he got a job in Richmond."

He gotta job alright, Musta been drunk going to work though, cause he was flying when he went through here. Ambulances from five different Emergency Services working the accident right now. You know a bunch must have been killed.

That Neighbor calls another. "You hear about the Carter Kid killing all them people?"

"Nope, but I ain't surprised. That kids too young to be driving. What happened?"

"Reckon he's dead too. He was drunk and driving over a hundred miles an hour when he went through Paint Lick. They said he hit the bridge three times before he crossed it."

"Oh my God. You reckon the Carters know?"

"I doubt it. They don't have a scanner. Can you call em?"
So the phone rings at the Carter house.

"Miss Carter, have you heard about Jimmy?"
"No what did he do now?"

"Well, there was this bad accident out on Richmond Road and I reckon he's dead and killed seven or eight other people."

Sweet and Sour

By Zi Graves

"That's strange," says Mrs. Carter. "He's standing here right now in his undergarment waiting for me to get his pants fixed so he can go to work."

"Thank the Lord. Musta been a different Jimmy Carter."

It only takes fifteen minutes for a tale like that to get started. It's the ones that faster for a week or two that really get my goat. If all you have time to do is talk about somebody else, go outside the neighborhood and do it.

On the bright side though, if you find out that somebody's spreading tales on you, take some solace in the fact that they're leaving somebody else alone.

Chapter 12
Tilda, my recent visitor, has always been a devout Christian and ardent church go'er so we didn't neglect her worship services while she was here. The first Sunday we attended morning services at the Pentecostal church in Broadhead, where Reverend Bob Nichols is pastor. That night she, Polly and Chuck visited the Pentecostal church on Negro Hill, where Denzi Krahenbuhl is pastor. There she met many of her friends she had attended church with when she lived here. Monday and Wednesday Night we all went to services at my home church, The First Baptist Church, where Dr. Maynard Head is pastor and a revival was in progress with Reverend Larry Harmon doing the preaching. That took care of the "go in to me" part of our worship, the rest was taken care of in the privacy of our home.

Now came the social needs of one who has been living alone and away from friends of the past. Our next spree was another trip down to "The Farm" as our place has always been called. We wanted to spend a night in the little building we used for a wash house for so many years before we built onto our house and had a basement for that purpose. This little building that escaped the ravages of the full impact of the fire has been renovated and built onto by Chuck and Polly. Now we have a place to stay and sleep over in whenever the urge to watch the sun rise and set or listen to the night music from the whippoorwills and frogs as they join in their chorus with an occasional deep voice of a lonesome owl adding his part to the serenade sets in. It now has a bed, microwave, coffee pot and enough other comforts to make one think he/she is either in a camp site or the small furnished building close to the home place called the "Granny house" or "weaning house" used by the widowed grandma or newly weds when there was no room for them in the main farm home. This house furnished a comfortable and safe place for the grandma to live her remaining years in without feeling she was a burden to her offspring or a close place for the young married couple to live while they get established enough financially or emotionally to move farther away and start their own home. Pretty handy for those involved and it worked well back in the days when families were closely knit and helped one another either give them the world graciously or get started in a new life without the handicap of overwhelming debts.

On our way to the farm, we stopped to let my old neighbor, also a former neighbor of Tilda's, Bill Mize and his wife, Becky know we would be spending the night at the farm and invited them on for a short visit. We had taken snacks along and had just put them on the table when they arrived. Bill, who had known the wash-house for what it had been, could hardly believe his eyes when he saw the cute little room it is now. Polly and Chuck have truly made it into a livable place. Pictures decorate the walls, the bed has attractive covers on it and a large scatter rug hides much of the concrete floor. An old table serves as a countertop for the microwave, refrigerator, coffee pot and supplies, the old woodburning stove holds the blue granite dipan and washpan. An aluminum dipper hangs close by and white lawn chairs serve as comfortable places to sit. What more could one ask for? (Want to know?" My old friend on the foundation and a front porch across the front) Now this little granny house does have a porch and it is big enough for three people to sit comfortably on. Chuck thought of everything. After the cool air and bugs chased us inside and catching up on family affairs between Bill and Tilda, Bill and Becky took their leave and Tilda and I climbed into the one bed laughing about doubling up in one bed again. By 4:00 a.m. I was wide awake and looking for the first sign of daylight to appear. The night before I had listened to the birds twittering their good nights and this morning as I sat on the porch waiting for dawn to come I heard their good-morning greetings as they awoke to a new day. Then the first rays of the sun appeared over the distant hills and soon the sun peeped up between two large trees close by.

And guess what? It was just the same as it has always been, the two trees framing it now were different tales from the past. When the storm but were of the offspring of those other two and in the same place so the red globe behind them cast the spell over me and I unconsciously looked around to trace them on the kitchen floor where they warmed the spot where I used to do my writing. But instead of the floor I looked directly into the pit of ashes that was once that beloved kitchen. Such memories have to be put away when one is on a pleasure jaunt so I went inside, made a cup of coffee and Tilda and I began our day with other thoughts in mind.

We had wanted to pick a mess of wild greens for the dogs were plenty of them all over the yard, but it was too cold to tackle the job this early in the morning. I did pick a large armload of lilies, dogwood and redbud blooms to take to my brother, Ish, just released from the hospital. They weren't fully bloomed but could be encouraged to that stage in a vase of water. Redbuds are the prettiest this year I have ever seen. The ridge from the top of the Smith Hill to the top of the hill near the house of Taylor store is lined on both sides with redbud trees till one feels like he is driving through a tunnel of fuchsia blooms with an occasional early blooming dogwood acting as the filler of the miles long bouquet. Azaleas are in full bloom and just as heavily laden with bright blooms. If this is any indication of a prosperous garden year we will have plenty of delicious fresh vegetables to look forward to. But until the vegetables fill the pots we can fill our vases and enjoy the beauty and smell of freshly cut flowers that hasn't cost a cent.

We enjoyed one more trip down 1249 for another look at the old familiar places and a fresh look at the new houses and trailers that are now dotting the countryside. Some of them quite attractive and others that need a lot of human attention. Why anyone would want to ruin the beauty of the green space beside a winding road that nature has blessed with scenes I have just described, with a pile of trash in their front yard and junk cars torn down beside their trailer is beyond me. I am not in favor of more laws but I am in favor of the community, whether it be the local area or the county government, enforcing the clean-up code of ones living quarters. Soap may be expensive and water hard to come by but keeping the trash in a plastic bag one gets free from the grocery store is not an impossible task. And picking up trash thrown out by some careless passerby can be a useful chore for the kids that keep saying they have nothing to do. We passed several of these places on our way and discussed them all. Then we passed my place and waved friendlyly to all the remains of the house we built sitting in the midst of a freshly mowed lawn Chuck had just mowed and tears welled up again as I saw the Azaleas, iris and a lone tulip bravely blooming for all passers to enjoy. That was where my heart was buried beneath the rubble.

Our next stop was to visit a while with Albert Hibbard and wife, Barbara. Now this location had enough memories for all of us to fill a book with. This was the former county store of Reese and Lula Mize where everyone for miles around did their shopping. That is until large chain stores swamped the nearby towns and took a lot of their trade. It was located on Highway 80 and Line Creek in Pulaski County. This is where the Shopville School bus started its morning run and ended. Reese was the driver. This is when Albert, Judy, Rod and Tilda's two boys, Ralph and Dean, had to walk to catch that bus. For Albert it was four or five miles, Ralph and Dean a little less and Judy and Rod still a little less, perhaps three miles each way. Shopville High was in another county so that was another handicap. The County Superintendent, at that time, Mrs. Miracle, had to okay and pay the tuition for any student going to school in another county and that caused a problem for those of us determined to give our children an education but living in an area with no available schools. The combined six years Judy and Rod went to Shopville we had a running battle to keep them there. Mrs. Miracle said it was Pulaski's job to educate them. Mr. Swearingin, Pulaski County Superintendent of Education, said it was Rockcastle County's duty. Finally, after dozens of trips were made to each office and threats of refusing their diploma if their tuition wasn't paid, and Mat and I just as stubbornly saying it was the duty of some school to educate all children through high school. We prevailed and Judy graduated with high honors and as salutatorian of her class. Then two years later Rod graduated with the same kind of honor and was valedictorian of his class. Ralph and Dean were not so lucky. When their two years were over and they had no one to go to battle for them they were refused admission therefore had to quit and seek work in Indiana. They both have done quite well there but their lack of a diploma didn't seem to matter to their employer. "Whitacastle Inc."

This store was also the hangout for our mill hands that worked close by and for anyone who happened by and were in need of someone to talk to. Lula was wonderful at talking to all her customers, friends or strangers. I spent many happy hours sitting on a big sack of feed and yanking a whole afternoon away. The school kids always wanted to sit around awhile and relax before they began their walk home and that way they always brought home the latest news of community goings on. Today Albert was our messenger and tried to bring us up to date on people we had known. Then promising to try to keep in closer touch we went on our merry way home by way of 461 and enjoyed more scenery of spring coming to life.

In Memory

A year has come and gone, since you left us. But you are in Heaven with Jesus now.

You were that perfect flower that Jesus needed for his bouquet. Even though we miss you and long to hear your voice, see your smile and hold you in our arms. We know you are in a better place now. Our hearts still ache for you. The space you hold in our hearts nothing or no one can ever take the place. But when we start missing you and griever often takes us, we just take you son, Shane Jr. in our arms and he begins to smile and it's just like having a part of you here with us. Thank you son for giving us a part of you to hold on to. We will always love and miss you.

So when you look down from the portals of Heaven let us feel your presence with us like a warm summer breeze blowing upon our face.

We will all be together soon, never to be separated again.

Still missing you,
Gary, Gail, Shawna, Joshua, Erin and Shane Linville, Jr.

When My Grandfather Died

By Joanie Alexander
January 14, 1999

I thought Poppy would live forever but I was wrong. Poppy was speechless because he gave me a horse and his name was Betty and she was a good horse. I was only three years old when Poppy died. I did not get to go to the hospital I had to stay with my aunt Dona and my uncol Benny and my cosum Ben and we colored and played outside, and that night I went to bed and the next morning Mommy was there and we went home, and I dont remember Mommy telling me that Poppy died. I was going to the funeral home and when I got there it was a big house and down stairs was Poppy and I went to see him and he still looked the same, and I thought they wode have benches like at church but they had old chairs and they were red black brown and I sat in one and it was in the front, and Poppy was in a big case and Poppy laid in the big case and I will love him forever. He was cold when I tucht him. I gave him a kiss goodbye. I cried a lot case I was sad. I hurd momny and memomny talking, I saw all kinds of pepol, it smeled plan, and I saw flawrs, it has been two years sence Poppy has been dead, and I still love him to and I still go to his grave, but my grandmol is still here, and I love her to very much, and I no some granfatherers are still here and there kids love them to. Just like I loved Poppy.

In Loving Memory of Warren Poynter,
who passed away April 27, 1996

Composed & Written By
Mrs. Nora Poynter, his wife

I know it has been three long years - now
Since God called you away,
Sometimes it seems like a lifetime,
And sometimes just yesterday.

We had almost fifty years together,
And what wonderful years.
Enjoying each other and our family,
And thankful for everyday.

Sweetheart I would love for you to hold me,
In your arms for just awhile.
And for all of us to be able to see your sweet smile.

Lord, I don't mean to be complaining,
For you've no way been so good to me.
There's no way I can even thank you enough.

For all the blessings we receive.
So Warren, you just be happy in Heaven,
Where you'll have no more sorrow or pain.

And oh, what a glorious reunion,
When we can all be together again.

In Loving Memory of
Mildred Ann Bullock
who passed away on April 20th, 1992

It has been seven years since I last saw your beautiful smile you always wore, but I know some day soon I will see it again when we meet on that eternal shore.

Although you are gone away you are always in my thoughts and in my heart so really we are never far apart.

For when the hurt seems to much to bear I look into the memories of my heart and you are always there for my memories of you and of your childhood days are like the fragrance of a sweet perfume they just linger and linger on and on.

Your dad and I miss you more and more as each day passes by for each day brings another day for us to cry.

But some day, God will dry our eyes of all our tears and we will be happy again when we all get together again sisters, brothers and friends.

But until then we will hold onto the years of joy we had with you through our pictures and memories of what we had until God called you home to be with him.

Always loved and missed

We know funerals aren't something people want to discuss or even think about.

But unfortunately, avoiding the topic doesn't make it go away. In fact, the easier and less stressful way of dealing with funerals is making funeral arrangements in advance. You can decide the music, the place, the service, and how much you wish to spend. For many years, the Dowell & Martin Funeral Home has been offering these thoughtful, caring pre-arrangement services to the families of the Rockcastle area.

Kiwanis host annual invitational track meet

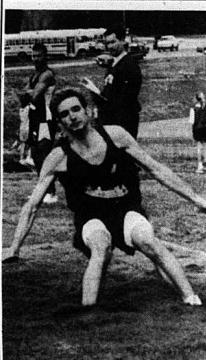

The Rockcastle Kiwanis hosted the second annual track meet Thursday, April 15th at the Rockcastle Middle School. 12 teams from around the state participated along with the Rockcastle County High School Track Team.

The trophies were donated by several local merchants and all proceeds went directly to the high school track team. A special thanks goes to all the sponsors, and to Kevin Fletcher, Tom Larkey, Chris Larkey, Jerry Pensol, the High School Key Club and the Middle School Builders Club. The event was a huge success with many winners from Rockcastle. Also, a special thank you goes to Tammy Cox for all the work and time she put into this event.

Kiwanis members on hand working at the track meet were Robyn Johnson, Rebekah Hammond and Donald Coyle.

Tara Cox, secretary of the RCHS Key Club and Chelsen Stratton is shown manning the refreshment stand.

Girls track team wins Kiwanis Relays; boys place sixth Rockcastle's varsity track and field teams recently participated in the 2nd Annual Kiwanis Relays held at Rockcastle's home track. Both boys and girls track had great competitions.

The girls' team had an awesome meet and placed first overall with a total of 68 points. They narrowly edged out Madison Central, a class 3A team, by three points. Eleven girls' teams were present for the competition.

The sprint medley team placed second overall with a time of 2:00.93, and narrowly missed a team record for the event. Relay members include Theresa Chislum, Sheena Swinney, Rachelle Hammond and Cheyenne Carmack.

The distance medley team of Theresa Chislum, Tara Abney, Amber Thacker and Cassandra Ramsey ran well and placed fourth overall with a time of 16:07.11.

The 400 meter relay team of Sheena Swinney, Mindy Bullock, Cheyenne Carmack and Theresa Chislum placed fourth overall in a great race with a season's best time of 55.42.

In the 100 meter shuttle hurdles, the team of Tara Abney, Mindy Bullock, Theresa Chislum and Rachelle Hammond placed second in a new team record time of 1:10.62. This was also the first time Rachelle had ever run hurdles.

The 800 meter relay team of Cheyenne Carmack, Tara Abney, Rachelle Hammond and Sheena Swinney placed second overall with an impressive time of 1:58.16, despite unbelievably cold and windy weather conditions.

The 1600 meter relay team of Theresa Chislum, Cheyenne Carmack, Rachelle Hammond and Tara Abney ran an awesome race and finished in second place with a season's best time of 4:35.71.

In the shot put competition, the team of Clarissa Hubbard, Britny Owens and Angie Ford combined for an impressive total of 80'2". This gave them an easy first place victory by more than 11' and also a new school record for the shot put relay.

In the discus relay, the team of Clarissa Hubbard, Ashley Lawson and Britny Owens placed first with a combined distance of 220'5.5" and won by nearly 18'. Clarissa threw a personal record 95'7" to lead the team.

In the long jump relay, Rachelle Hammond, Mindy Bullock and first time long jumper Cheyenne Carmack broke the school record on their way to a second place finish by only 4.5".

The trio leaped an impressive total of 40'3.5".

This marked the second straight year the girls' team has won the Kiwanis Relays Championship.

The boys' team also had a great meet and placed sixth overall out of ten teams with 28 total points.

The 3200 meter relay team of Stewart Abney, Joe Giggold, Andrew Nelson and Lonnie Mason ran very well and placed fourth overall in 10:05.74.

The sprint medley team of Sean Smith, Josh Dooley, Jeremy Saylor and Nathaniel Bullock ran a great race and placed fifth with a time of 1:46.18.

The distance medley team of Andrew Nelson, Stewart Abney, Joe Giggold and Stephen Hopkins placed fifth overall in 13:14.04.

The boys' 400 meter relay team of Sean Smith, Jeremy Saylor, Josh Dooley and Nathaniel Bullock placed fourth overall in an impressive race with a time of 49.04.

The 100 meter shuttle hurdle team of Nathaniel Bullock, Stewart Abney, Kyle Mink and Jeremy Saylor placed fourth in a school record time of 1:02.02.

In the 1600 meter relay, the team of Stewart Abney, Stephen Hopkins, Josh Taylor and Kyle Mink placed fourth overall in 4:04.96.

In the discus relay Eric Denny, D.J. Bradley and Sean Smith threw very well and placed fifth with a combined total of 243'4".

The long jump team of Jeremy Saylor, Nathaniel Bullock and Josh Dooley jumped an impressive total of 49'10" and placed second. The group missed first by only 9.75".

The triple jump relay was cancelled due to time constraints.

Upcoming meets for Rockcastle include the Bell County Invitational on Saturday.

The track team would like to thank the Kiwanis Club, Builder's Club and Key Club for their help in organizing the event. We would also like to thank the following sponsors: Cox Hardware, Cox Funeral Home, Dr. Tony Arvin, Farm Bureau Insurance, Jeff Burdette Law Office, Cedar Ridge Ranch, Saylor Pharmacy, Bank of Mt. Vernon, Mt. Vernon Oil and Tire, Hammond Interior, Clontz, &

Cox Attorneys At Law, Kastle Inn Restaurant, Teresa Vanzant Circuit Court Clerk and Cox Florist.

We would also like to thank the following individuals for their help:

Ken Mattingly, Christie Noble, Chris Brummett, Dawn Quigley, Darla Reams, Tom Larkey, Jerry Pensol, Chris Larkey and anyone who we may have forgot to mention.

Brown and Roberts to participate in all-stars tour

Suzanne Brown, 17, a senior at Rockcastle County High School and Brooke Roberts, 17, a junior have prestigiously been invited to participate in an Australian and Hawaiian Tour, with the USA "Blue Chips" Basketball All-Stars Team.

Suzanne is the daughter of Ronnie and Debbie Brown of Mt. Vernon and Brooke is the daughter of Glenn and Donna Roberts of Brodhead.

The girls will leave Louisville on July 6. The tour last 20 days. While on tour, they will be living with families of the players from the different Australian teams. They will play approximately 15 games. On the way home they will stop in Hawaii for three to four days.

They will gain experience in basketball as well as the educational experience of visiting Australia and Hawaii. Suzanne and Brooke maintain an "A" average in their studies.

Individuals or businesses wishing to contribute to the fund may contact Coach Noble or send contributions to Lady Rocket Booster Club, P.O. Box 936, Mt. Vernon, KY 40456, car marked for Australian tour.

Soil & Water Stewardship Week April 25 - May 2

As we close out the twentieth century and second millennium, we must think about what we are passing on to future generations, according to organizers of the 1999 Soil and Water Stewardship Week observance, set for April 25 to May 2. The event theme, "In The Children's Hands," reminds us that children of the new millennium will need both roots and wings roots anchored in the legacy of sound natural resource conservation and wisely strike out to innovate and make the world a better place to live.

Local sponsor of the observance, the Rockcastle County Conservation District is inviting youth leaders and parents to take time to help young people better understand their role in caring for the natural resources in our environment. "Our ability to maintain a healthy, productive land is dependent on how seriously our children take their stewardship responsibility," said Roy Brown, chairperson of the Rockcastle County Conservation District. Employees and volunteers at the local conservation district office can help identify conservation practices and activities that are best suited for your neighborhood or your own backyard.

In fact, a national Backyard Conservation Program offers ideas and activities in a Backyard Conservation Starter Kit that will help families or caregivers involve children in meaningful activities in their own backyards. Roy Brown noted that children's activities need to be easy and fun to maintain their attention. He recommends activities as simple as placing an old broken pot out for a toad house, or as complicated as constructing a mini-wetland in the backyard. The important thing is he concluded, is to give to children a meaningful opportunity to do something positive for the environment that will have a lasting impression on their minds.

Jerry Moore honored for safe driving record

Jerry Moore of Mt. Vernon is among the more than 2,800 drivers selected for national recognition this month for driving 25 years or more of safe driving.

"We provide our drivers with the best training in the industry," said Kentucky District Manager Steven Forgue. "We're proud to recognize their outstanding service to UPS and our customers. I'm also pleased to say the number of Circle of Honor members continues to increase each year."

Nationally, the Circle of Honor distinction has been bestowed upon more than 2,800 drivers. All UPS Circle of Honor members will be recognized in a two-page advertisement in USA Today.

The acknowledgment coincides with "National Drive Safely At Work Week" promoted by the Network of Employers for Traffic Safety (NETS) in its effort to increase highway safety awareness nationwide. Throughout the week, NETS addresses five major issues: occupant protection, impaired driving, aggressive driving, sharing the road safely and driver attention.

Collectively, more than 83,000 UPS drivers logged two billion miles — equivalent to 80,000 trips around the Earth — to deliver 3.14 billion packages last year. This required a fleet of more than 157,000 delivery trucks, vans and tractor-trailers. On average, a UPS driver will log more than 775,000 miles before experiencing an accident. The average U.S. motorist will drive only about 130,000 miles before having an accident, according to the National Safety Council.

Kentucky District Health and Safety Manager Bryan Schweinfes offered five traffic safety tips that UPS drivers follow every day:

- Aim high in steering. Rather than staring directly over the hood of the car, look farther down the road. This gives you more time to adjust to changing traffic conditions and keeps your vehicle centered in the road.

- Get the big picture. Knowing what's ahead, beside and behind you can help you make safe-driving decisions.

- Keep your eyes moving. Scan, don't stare; shift your eyes every few seconds and check your mirrors frequently.

- Leave yourself an out. Maintain a cushion of space on all four sides of your vehicle, especially in front. Keep a four to six second interval between you and the traffic ahead.

- Make sure other drivers see you. Communicate in traffic. Use turn signals, lights and the horn. Establish eye contact.

Kiwanis members helping with the meet were Bev Rockwell, Shirley Cox and Jessie Murray.

DAIRY MARKET LOSS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The FSA office is taking applications for the Dairy Market Loss Assistance Program through May 21, 1999. Producers qualify for the direct cash payments if their dairy operation marketed milk commercially in the U.S. anytime during the fourth quarter of 1998 (Oct. 1-Dec. 31, 1998). Eligible producers may receive a direct payment per hundred weight on the first 26,000 cwt for milk marketed commercially for the dairy operation during the 1997 or 1998 calendar year. Producers may use the 1997 or 1998 calendar year marketings for the base period. The actual rate will be determined after signup and will be calculated by dividing the amount available by the total eligible cwt of milk from all approved dairy operations. FSA programs are open to all regardless of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation and marital or familial status. (Not all prohibited basis apply to all programs.) nas Baptist Mission. In 1964, Bro. Harvey and family returned to Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. From 1967 until his retirement from the Air Force on June 1, 1968, Bro. Harvey served as the Air Force Recruiter in Danville. While stationed in Danville, Bro. Harvey pastored the Moreland Baptist Church.

Upon his retirement from the Air Force, Bro. Harvey pastored the Northside Baptist Mission in Mt.

Vernon. On October 1, 1978, Bro. Harvey began his pastorate at Fairview Baptist Church in Rockcastle County, holding that position until his death.

Bro. Harvey was a member of the Ashland Lodge #640 F&AM and served on the Kentucky Baptist Convention State Executive Board and was a member of the Board's Agencies and Institutions Committee. He was also a long time member of the Berea Hospital Board of Directors and was a licensed Kentucky Funeral Director.

Survivors are his wife of forty-five years, Emily; three sons, Harvey Allen Pensol, David Andrew Pensol and Kelly and Jerry Franklin Pensol, all of Mt. Vernon; three grandsons, Zachary Franklin Pensol, Harvey Andrew Pensol and Samuel David Pensol of Mt. Vernon; one sister, Golda P. Walbert of Glasgow; one brother, Andrew Franklin Pensol and wife, Pauline of Louisville; two nieces, Andrea Anglin Evans and husband, Benny of Louisville and Sonya Edwina Anglin of Mt. Vernon; one nephew, Jack Dean Anglin and wife, Deborah of Mt. Vernon; one aunt, Virginia Jones of Somerset; one great nephew, Andy Evans of Louisville and the Church Family of the Fairview Baptist Church.

Services were held Tuesday, April 20, 1999 at Fairview Baptist Church with Dr. A.B. Calvin officiating and Bro. Mark Whicker, pastor of Broadhead Baptist Church, assisting.

Fallbearers for the service were the Deacons and Trustees of Fairview Baptist Church and included: Lee H. Cabbard, Cletus Peters, Walter Malone, Boyd Wren, John W. Gilliam, Jeff Poynter, Luther Isaacs, David Gilliam, John L. Gilliam, Rodney Mullins, Jeffrey T. Burdette, Lloyd Jordonson, Roy Lee Croucher, Jeff Blair, David Poynter, Wallace Williams and Marion Poynter.

Interment was at the Cresthaven Memorial Gardens with full military honors.

was taken into custody at 12:59 p.m.

However, he was quickly turned over to agents with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and was transported to the Laurel County Detention Center.

Chief White said he believed authorities would pursue federal charges against Bowman, 57, of 202 Heritage Dr., Berea.

Bowman was charged with two counts of first degree robbery in connection with a similar March 22 incident at the Bank of Mt. Vernon branch in Somerset and the robbery at Citizens National Bank.

White said Bowman had confessed to both robberies and surrendered without incident.

As for the apprehension, White said the cooperation between city and county law enforcement authorities made it one of the cleanest he has ever witnessed.

"It went so smooth, so well and so good," White said of the bust. "Everything just clicked."

"Food Stamp"

The food stamp cards will work similar to a bank debit card. The amount of food stamp dollars a person receives will be credited to the card, and as the card is used the purchases made will be deducted from the total value on the card. Transactions on the card, also known as electronic benefits transfers (EBTs), are scheduled to be commonplace sometime in November.

Secretary of the Cabinet for Families and Children Viola Miller said the new system will help in many areas.

"There are many bonuses with the new program. The cabinet will save up to a million dollars a year in reduced postage and administrative costs now spent on sending out stamps every month," Miller said.

The reduction of food stamp fraud is another benefit with the card. Users will only be able to purchase items approved for the food stamp program, and no change will be given from the card purchases.

Cary Willis, a representative with the Cabinet, said food stamp recipients often purchase a small item with a large (food stamp bill, then receive several dollars of cash in change. "That is how they do it. Buy a $2 item which a $20 stamp bill, then they have $18 cash to purchase cigarettes or whatever they want.

Hayes said that in the majority of the cases in Rockcastle County stores give stamps back as change when food stamps are used. "Stores are suppose to give back stamps and not money, and I think most stores in the county do that," she said.

Also the practice of buying and selling food stamps will be eliminated with the card. The user must have a personal identification number, or pin number, to make purchases on the card. This should help get the stamps used the way they were intended, rather than having them abused," Willis said.

Grocery stores that do not currently have debit card machines installed, along with small country stores, face the dilemma of installing machines that will handle debit cards and food stamp cards, or simply using a special machine supplied by the government. A special point of sale machine will be supplied to any store interested, according to Willis.

"The government will provide a device to allow any store to accept the food stamp cards. The device will be free of charge, and we are prepared to educate stores in the use of the system. We want to make this system workable for every size store from the big grocery chains down to the Mom and Pop stores," Willis explained. Some Rockcastle County stores may take steps to install their own debit card machines, but most will use those provided by the state.

However, the four largest grocery stores in the county currently do not accept debit cards, but those stores as well as all the small stores in the county will be provided with a machine by the state.

There are thirty states in the country using the food stamps card system, and all states are required by federal government to be using the system by 2002.

Area youngsters learn to think about safety

The Modern Woodmen of America Safety Awareness Program taught area children how to think safely and avoid accidents.

Modern Woodmen's program stimulated young people from Roundstone 3rd grade to think safely as they learned about camping, hiking, fires, being home alone, home hazards and more.

The program made learning about the important issue of safety fun through a variety of activities, including a poster contest. Brittany Owens, Sara Cain and Joy Cobb won the poster contest.

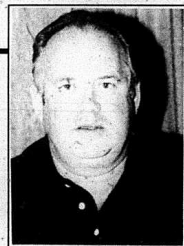

All children who completed the program received glow-in-the-dark light switch finders, telephone emergency number cards and fire safety checklists to continually remind them to be safety conscious.

According to Janet Gill, local

Modern Woodmen representative, the safety program was initiated in 1982 as a positive way of teaching children good safety habits.

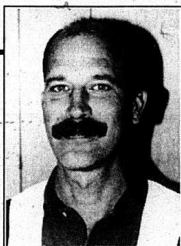

The program is available free of charge to schools and youth groups. Modern Woodmen of America, a fraternal life insurance society with its Home Office located in Rock Island, Illinois, helps over 100,000 youngsters annually to lead safer lives.

Local group part of mission trip to Honduras

By June Stevens

It was the dawning of our first day at Lake Yahoo, as our mission team began to rise and anticipate what was in store for the week ahead. We had heard the details of Hurricane Mitch, but little did we realize the devastation and hardships the people of Honduras had faced and were continuing to face. On the other hand, we didn't realize the many blessings that were in store for our team as we reached out to God's people.

After breakfast and our daily devotions, we were ready to face the challenge. Todd and Lynette Fields, our missionaries, had given us an overview of our week, but we had no idea so many varied activities could be accomplished in one week.

Our first day was spent sorting through boxes and boxes of clothes that had been sent from America. We were to compile a box that would be suitable for a typical family. As the day progressed we got the hang of an assembly line and had prepared boxes for more than 200 families. We didn't realize the significance of that job until we actually delivered the supplies to the devastated area.

The next day was spent in a similar way, only this time we assembled family food packages. Much love and prayer accompanied each bag before it was finally finished and ready to be delivered to the Hondurans, in the name of Jesus Christ. We were anxiously awaiting our trip to the mountains to deliver the clothes and the food.

On the third day we were up at the crack of dawn. A trailer for the supplies was hitched to the back of a pick-up. We then loaded in the truck and headed for the mountains. The three-hour ride was a different experience for this group of Kentucky softies. The last twelve and one-half miles were spent on roads that had been severely damaged by Hurricane Mitch. This particular area had been without aid for two weeks after the hurricane had hit. Now, three months later, the roads were passable and the people were receiving supplies each week. We would be making deliveries to four villages.

As we made our first stop, there were villagers, but no village. The people had traveled down the mountain to receive their treasured supplies. Some were riding a horse but most were walking. Their faces were filled with gratitude and love as they lined up to receive their much needed supplies.

The next three stops will always be etched in my memory. Many of the houses had been taken away by the mudslides and raging water. This didn't dampen the spirit of the children. They seemed to realize that there was hope in the midst of all the devastation. The older villagers looked sad and weary. I'm sure they were wondering when all this hardship would end. Their expressions and smiles showed the appreciation they were feeling.

As we finished delivery to the last village, and headed back to Lake Yahoo, I was imagining how the villagers spent each long day. I was reminded that each day was spent merely surviving the hardships. That, in itself, was a major accomplishment.

The next two days were spent replacing an old lady's home. Her home had been destroyed by the hurricane and she was living in a very small area that was still standing. As we wrapped the last part of the plastic around the four posts that would be her home, she rewarded us with hugs and kisses. She related to us that she had Jesus in her heart and that we all worship the same God.

We were fortunate to be able to share in the excitement the day the 'big' trucks arrived from America. Global had purchased two army surplus trucks that would be used to help with the various needs of rebuilding and hauling supplies. Todd was to pick them up in Puerto Cortes. He wasted no time in picking them up, checking them out, and getting them ready for use. It was a comforting thought that vehicles such were used in the service of our country were now being used to help bring aid to a third world country, in the name of Jesus.

The story of our mission trip would be incomplete without telling about the bible school that we conducted each evening. There were 120-150 children who attended each evening. With the wonderful help of Danielle, the Honduran evangelist, we presented stories from the life of Jesus.

They were hungry for the gospel and to hear about the love that Jesus has for each of them. What a way to end each day!

As I reminisce about our trip, I question who received the biggest blessing. Was it us, the mission team, or was it the Hondurans that we ministered to? As we left for home, I was very thankful for the opportunity to help in God's work in this particular part of the world. They are in need of our fervent prayers and our spiritual, physical and emotional support. I look forward with much anticipation, to the time I can once again support God's work by going on another short-term mission trip.

Ron and Janice Owens, Tom T. Hall featured on Kentucky Life May 8th

Country music and the "mountain way" merge on the next edition of Kentucky Life when the Emmy Award-winning series presents country music legend Tom T. Hall and Ron and Janice Owens of Rockcastle County. Hosted by Byron Crawford, the encore broadcast airs on KET at 8:30/7:30 p.m. CT Saturday, May 8.

First, Kentucky Life travels to Mockingbird Hill in Rockcastle County where Janice Harding Owens, mother of seven, fulfills her artistic calling by creating beautiful paintings in the primitive or untrained style.

According to Owens, people in the mountains do for themselves, creating anything they want, whether it is artwork, crafts or willow furniture, such as that made by her husband. This creative ability is what the couple calls the "mountain way." In addition to learning about how Janice creates her art, viewers also accompany Ron Owens as he cuts the willow for his furniture and describes how he makes the functional and beautiful settees, chairs, tables and other goods.

Next, Kentucky Life catches up with Grammy-winning country music artist Tom T. Hall near Renfro Valley, where he has just finished a concert. A Kentucky native, Hall is widely acknowledged as one of country music's greatest songwriters. Known as "The Storyteller," he has over 40 albums to his credit and is the author of four books.

Hall tells Crawford that he draws upon his experiences of growing up in Olive Hill, often using memories of his youth as the basis for his songs.

Kentucky Life, a KET production, is produced and directed by Joy Flynn. Segment producers for this program are Charles Heaton and Ernie Lee Martin. Kentucky Life is closed-captioned for the deaf and hard-of-hearing. Viewers can find out more about programs on KET by visiting the KET Web site at www.ket.org, a Kentucky.com affiliate.

Tract 2: Has 13-42 acres with 500 feet of road frontage.

Tract 3: Consists of 11.74 acres and has 495.74 feet of road frontage. This tract is improved with an older house in need of repairs, two storage buildings and a good 60x56 combination barn.

Tract 4: Has 7.18 acres with 114.86 feet of road frontage.

Tract 5: Contains 12.13 acres with 148.19 feet of road frontage. This tract borders Bee Lick Creek.

The farm will be offered in tracts and as a whole, selling whichever way reflects the best return for the seller. When combined, there is a total of 74.61 acres by survey. The farm is practically all tillable and there is a new fence around most of the perimeter. It has an abundant water supply with 3 ponds, creek and city water available.

Auctioneer's Note: If you're looking for a farm or a small tract, then be sure to attend this absolute auction on Friday evening, April 30th at 6:30 p.m.

Terms: 20% down day of sale, balance in 30 days.

The Rockcastle County Middle School recently held a "Reality Store" for students. The purpose of the "store" is to allow students to see what it's like to have an education, job, expenses, etc. Above, Zach Shephard and Bryan Kirby try to find an affordable home from Ford Brothers, Inc.

School-based decision making: a parent's role:

School-based decision making was created in 1990 to involve teachers, parents, and principals in the process of helping all students reach higher standards of achievement. School councils have legal authority to make important decisions about teaching and learning in their own schools.

This opportunity for parents to be key decision-makers in schools is unique in the nation. No other state requires virtually all schools to have councils with parents as full members and with legal decision-making authority.

- Parents should:
- VOTE - in school council elections.
 - RUN - for school council positions as candidates.
 - PARTICIPATE - in the school council committee structure, by volunteering to serve on a committee or attending committee and council meetings.

You can serve if you have a child who will be enrolled in the middle school for the 1999-2000 school year and do not have a relative employed in the school or through the centra office.

SBDM definition of relative - father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son, daughter, aunt, uncle, son-in-law, daughter-in-law.

PARENT SBDM Elections

Wednesday, April 28 - Last day to nominate a parent. Submit nominations in writing to the principal. You must have a child who will be enrolled in the middle school next year before you can nominate or be nominated.

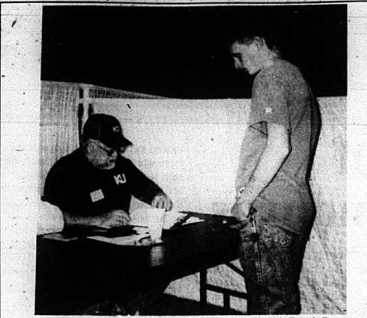

Wednesday, May 5 - PTA will conduct parent elections at 5:00 p.m. at the school.

NOMINATION FORM

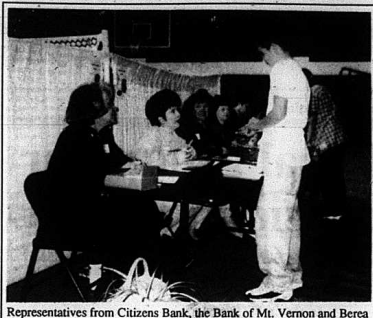

I, _____, would like to nominate _____ for the position of parent member of the Rockcastle County Middle School SBDM Council for the 1999-2000 school year.

Date: _____
Signed: _____

PLEASE NOTE *Parents of fifth graders are eligible to vote, nominate, or serve if the student will promote to middle school this year.

Moore named U.S. National Award winner in Mathematics

The United States Achievement Academy announced that Danny Moore from Mt. Vernon has been named a United States National Award Winner in Mathematics.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes fewer than 10% of all American high school students.

Moore, who attends Rockcastle County Middle School, was nominated for this national award by Mr. Bullock, a teacher at the school.

He will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Moore is the son of Karen and Scott Johnson of Mt. Vernon. Grandparents are Lillie Davis of Latonia and Ronald Moore of Mt. Vernon.

Primestar Customers Don't be Misled!

OPEN LETTER—
To all Primestar Customers and/or Potential Satellite TV Subscribers

Dear Consumer,

In the past few months many Primestar customers have been the target of false and misleading advertising practices by our competitors. There have been reports of salespeople falsely representing themselves as Primestar employees. These people are trying to trick you into switching your Primestar Satellite TV service. Please don't be misled—you don't have to change your Primestar service. If this type of practice occurs—or if you have any questions about your satellite service—please call 1-800-Primestar or your local Primestar agent "Starlink Satellite Services" at (606) 526-1168 or 1-800-788-3373. Starlink has been serving Southeastern and Southcentral Kentucky since 1995 and we are now Primestar's "Full Service Provider" in the same area.

Primestar customers have been offered "FREE" Satellite Systems and "FREE" Installation—if you switch and agree to $49.95 per month in programming charges. With our value lease program—Primestar can offer monthly programming costs as low as $22.95 per month plus $3.00/month to lease the satellite system. Primestar can save you almost $300 per year! Primestar also offers 24 hour 7 days a week FREE SERVICE on our leased equipment without a long term contract. So instead of comparing APPLES to ORANGES—we Dare you to Compare Primestar to anyone in the satellite business.

Talona King has been elected chaplain of the Sigma Kappa sorority. King is the daughter of David King and Karen King, both of Mt. Vernon.

Established at Colby College in Maine in 1874, Sigma Kappa is a national Greek social organization for women. The Alpha Chi chapter was founded at Georgetown in 1929. Located 12 miles from Lexington, in the heart of the Bluegrass, Georgetown College is a four-year, private liberal arts institution affiliated with the Kentucky Baptist Convention. The college has been named by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top 159 national liberal arts colleges. Founded in 1829, the college is dedicated to its role as an innovative community of scholars developing ethical scholars committed to its heritage of Christian discernment. Dr. William H. Crouce, Jr., is the 23rd president of the college, which has an enrollment of more than 1,600 undergraduate and graduate students.

Hammond named Transylvania SOL

Rockcastle County High School graduate and Transylvania University sophomore Beahmie Hammond has been named a Student Orientation Leader (SOL) for the 1999-2000 school year.

SOLs help plan freshman orientation and help introduce new students to college life. Omicron Delta Kappa (ODK), a national leadership and scholarship honorary, sponsors the SOLs.

"SOLs are outstanding students and the kind of people who like to help others succeed," said James

Moseley, Transylvania's Dean of the College. "Many students apply for these positions and those elected devote themselves to helping new students learn the ropes at Transylvania."

Hammond, a biology major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hammond of Mt. Vernon.

Transylvania, founded in 1780, is the nation's sixteenth oldest institution of higher learning and is consistently ranked in national publications as one of the top liberal arts colleges in the country.

The United States Achievement Academy announced that Josh has also been named an All-American Scholar.

The USAA has established the All-American Scholar Award Program to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the academic disciplines. The All-American Scholars must earn a 3.3, or higher, grade point average. Only scholars elected by a school instructor, counselor or other qualified sponsor are accepted. These scholars are also eligible for other awards given by the USAA.

Josh, who attends Rockcastle County Middle School, was nominated for this national award by Mr. Steve Bullock.

Josh will appear in the All-American Scholar Yearbook, which is published nationally.

Cumberland announces High Honor List and Honor List

Cumberland College announces that Jeremiah Taylor of Mt. Vernon, son of Joe and Rita Taylor, has been named to the College's high honor list for the 1998-99 school year. In order to be on the list a student must attain a minimum of a 3.85 cumulative GPA. These honor students will be recognized at an Honors Day Convocation on May 3, 1999 at 10:00 a.m. in the O. Wayne Rollins Center on the Cumberland College campus.

Cumberland College located in Williamsburg, is a private liberal arts college in its 110th year of operation. Cumberland offers four undergraduate degrees in 34 major fields of study, 30 minors and nine pre-professional programs.

Taylor promoted, earns Expert Infantry Badge

Specialist Kristopher W. Taylor completed a one year tour of duty in Pannamjoo, South Korea on February 1st with the Scout section of the Command Security Battalion-Joint Security Area. The Battalion Scouts perform a multitude of security and patrol missions within the Joint Security area and the Demilitarized Zone. While stationed in Korea he was awarded the Expert Infantry Badge, Army Achievement Medal, and Army Commendation Medal and was promoted to Specialist on January 1st, 1999.

Specialist Kristopher W. Taylor

In addition, other tasks include reacting to nuclear, biological and chemical agents, and installing, arming and recovering an anti-tank mine. Taylor's technical ability to master any weaponry enabled him to qualify expert with the M9 pistol, M16A2 rifle, M4 carbine, M203 grenade launcher, M249 SAW, M240B machine gun and the M2 .50 caliber heavy machine gun. His motivation, long hours of preparation and commitment to training, inspired four of his peers and five Republic of Korea soldiers assigned to his unit to successfully complete this course. Out of the 189 soldiers tested, only 182 were awarded this coveted badge.

Taylor was also awarded the Army Commendation Medal on December 7, 1998, for exceptional meritorious service from February 98 to February 99 while assigned to the Scout platoon of the 189 soldiers tested, only 182 were awarded this coveted badge. man to pass through county was Daniel Boone crossed Rockcastle River a month and end of Trace branch (Boone's trace) through close to where Pine Hill is now; down Boone's hollow up Roundstone and out into Madison County at Boone's Gap. Stenographer, John T. Welsh, learned the principals of shorthand from James Mair and took position with W.H. Thomas & Son, Louisville, is now vice-president of the Globe Fertilizer Co., of the above-cited. Roller flour mill, Broadhead, R.S. Martin, T.S. Frith and John Perkins. Tobacco Factory, R.S. Martin, Broadhead. Established by "Dick" Martin of Virginia, who ran his works at Broadhead many years, but moved his headquarters in Junction City to take advantage of the freight rates. His brands of tobacco have a big reputation not only in Kentucky but in other states. Dynamite used in the construction of the C.C.R.R. in making tunnels, cuts, etc. by John Canton & Co. Coal shipped by Miller and Denny, Pleasant Valley, now known as Cove. Other coal shippers were Cash Creek, Pine Hill Coal Co., and George Sambooke, Livingston Coal Co. Sand shipped by Harrison Reams at Dudley, on K.C. Road, 2 miles south of Brush Creek station. Freestone (building) shipped from Langford Quarries, the greatest in South East Kentucky. Hair grit, Charles Taylor made and sold mill stones from the L&H 65 years ago and followed it as a business until the roller process killed his calling. Member of Legislature, Gen. Wm. Smith, born 1773 (grandfather of the writer) got his title from being a general of the State militia. He owned the greater portion of the land in and surrounding the town of Mt. Vernon. Until his death in 1849, he was the owner of and lived on the property vacated some years since by James I. White. His descendants and relatives are the Cooks, Singletons, Fish's Children, Marets, Myers, Smiths, Terrils and others. His remains lie in the Mt. Vernon cemetery beside those of his wife and a son. Power cylinder printing press, E.S. Albright. Lime Kiln for commercial purposes, Friz Krueger. Rockcastle was formed 1809, was organized in 1810. Court house, brick; 1810, new Court house 1873, cost $17000. New jail 1887, cost $8500. Railroad reached

Mt. Vernon, 1868, was extended to Livingston many years later where terminus remained for 12 to 15 years. Business brick house Harrison Carpenter, second business house built of brick was erected by Fritz Krueger for J.W. Baker & Son. Gasoline gas lights, S.W. Davis. Turnpike, J.W. Rider, up school house built from Mt. Vernon Depot, 1906. Concrete stone crushed by W.J. Sparks at Sparks Quarry, 1906. Wagon bridge across Roundstone creek at Livingston, about 1859. Tan Bark shipped by J.J. Williams, M.L. Miller, etc. Man who was always in good humor and created as much or more fun than Mark Twain or Josh Billings, was Elisha Terril. He certainly kept things on the brass band, 1869, George Sever, once teacher. Wm. Poynter, Joe B. H. Joplin, "Dude" Owens, Charles Stewart, J.E. Vowels and G.B. Bragg were some of the members. Oil well sunk on Brush Creek in southwest part of the county, when James Kincaid drilled for salt on the farm now owned by Jop Mullins west of Level Green. The product, a black ooze, ran from the drill hole and covered the surrounding territory. The drills have no name for it called it "that stuff". Curing machine, Robert Hiron, in a building or lot on Main Street Mt. Vernon, where M.J. Miller is now living. Paul Griffin of Brushy Creek near Level Green has the only carding machine in operation in the county at this time. Burning well (gas) near Gum Sulphur since 1860. Great Salt Peter Cave ten miles east of Mt. Vernon. Quantities of this mineral was used for making gunpowder for the American Army in their fight with Great Britain in 1812.

Tanyard, Scaffold Cane, Whiskey made by steam, Ashley Owens. Fire clay test, Dr. A.G. Lovell. Telephone message sent from town of Mt. Vernon over electric telephone, S.C. Franklin, Compositor in Signal office to A.H. Bastin, Crab Orchard. Telephone office was in Joplin Hotel rooms on first floor northeast corner. Legal hanging, 1841, Jonathan Davidson was hanged on gallows which was located about two hundred yards west of where T.D. Mullins resides. Davidson killed Henry Langford by stabbing him to death on the street just in front of where now stands the store of J.T. Adams on corner of Main and Church streets. On day of execution, Davidson made a statement on the gallows which amounted to a curse. Pointing to a man in the crowd, he said, "You caused this murder. You nor any of your family will ever be a success at anything. You have brought me to the gallows. You and yours shall suffer and wind up in blankness." M.J. Miller was a witness to the killing. The writer gained most of this information from him and D.N. Williams for this article. The writer's mother mentioned in his presence many times the fact of Davidson's two little boys at the behest of their mother, went out one night and cut down the gallows the gallows on which their father was hanged and burned it into ashes. What became of the family no one in Rockcastle knows today. The curse uttered against the mother family seems to have been literally fulfilled. Masonic lodge, Ashland No. 370 organized about 1850, still has the same name, but its number is 640. The names of some of its charter members: Col. R.G. Williams, Charles Kirtley, Wm. H. Kirtley, J.C. Williams, J.L. Joplin, M.R. Moore and Jack Wilson. Later members were D.N. Williams, Charles C. Redd, James G. Carter, Willis Griffin and many others known to citizens living today. School house, Mt. Vernon, 250 feet south east of where Krueger's lime kiln is now located. Building was lost by fire in 1879 while being used as a dwelling. Robert A. Broadhurst was teacher. Church, Brush Creek, near Climax, 1850. James Croucher, now of Lexington and Pleasant Hampton were members of this Baptist church. Sewing machine, Mrs. Pauline Smith, a Wheeler & Sears machine, made in 1850, now in possession of Garrard County. Charles Murphy later owned in the Kirtley house and sold sewing machines. Metal cane mill, Caleb Quinn, Scaffold Cane neighborhood, 1866. The old wooden mill could be heard "squeaking" more than a mile at times. Mowing machines, James M. Crawford of near Boone's Fork. Molasses operator, John S. Gadd, Clear Creek. — TO BE CONTINUED

"It Is Written"

Jesus told the Sadducees in Matt 22:29, "Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God." When Jesus said "Ye do err" he was saying "You are wrong" RSV: "You are mistaken" NAS. Now folks today would take offense to such language as this. Why folks would say that it is unchristlike to tell someone they are wrong religiously. They would think it is being mean spirited to say that someone is in error. If they would question your love for people if you stated that you believed someone taught error. Oh no, Jesus told these religious people that they were wrong. He was not arrogant and haughty about it, but just stated the facts. He gives two reasons for their error.

First, they did not know the scriptures. This is also a lot of the reason for error today in our religious world, folks just don't know what the Bible says. They have not read nor studied the word of God for themselves. They are content to accept whatever is taught to them from the pulpit, and do so without question. They are not like the Bereans, "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so?" Acts 17:11

Secondly, they denied the power of God. This simply means they denied what God said. They would read or hear what the Lord would say on some matter, but then they deny this to be true and right. When God says it, that settles it, and I had better believe it! Next week we will look at some examples of this principle.

Library News

By Geraldine Robbins

The Rockcastle County Library is now observing National Library Week. We are having Open House Thursday evening 6 to 8 p.m. This is our way of making more people aware of the library services offered in the county. This came simultaneously with the set up of the new computers and training of the staff to help our patrons with them. We are very fortunate to have been able to get the five new computers without cost to the library, thanks to the Gates Library Foundation and Empower Kentucky. They greatly enhance the services we are able to provide to our patrons. We cordially invite everyone to come in Thursday evening and especially those people that have never visited our library. We have had two scavenger hunts the first three days of this week and a poetry contest. The winners will be announced at the Open House.

We have a lot of free books to give away Thursday evening. These are all new books that have been given to us and we would like to share them with our friends.

Monica Carmack has an Art Display at the library for National Library Week, also. Monica does a fabulous job of painting and it would be a treat to just come in to see her work.

Recently we have had some donations given to the library as a memorial to friends that are deceased. Our thanks go to these special people who are truly, "friends of the library." A card is always sent to the family of the deceased person, letting them know of the memorial donation to the library. One of our former board members does this quite often and others who are interested in the library are encouraged to do so, also. Sometimes a request is made by the person making the donation, to buy a specific book or some other special item for the library in the name of the deceased person. And in other cases we are told to use this as we see a need. We were able to purchase an intercom system from these donations recently.

We hope that all of you that get the Mt. Vernon Signal each week enjoyed our insert last week. Perhaps this helped to answer some of your questions regarding library services and made people more aware of the services provided to our patrons. I was pleased with all of the insert except my picture. Allen caught me on a bad day, it was late in the afternoon, and I'm really not sick as some have suggested after looking at the picture. With all the new changes in technology, it's almost enough to make one sick but I think we have all survived and are moving on to learn yet another new thing. There is no standing still in library work.

For our gardening friends, we have a lot of new books on gardening & woodworking.

1. Garden Structures You Can Make.
2. Jeff Cox's 100 Greatest Garden Ideas.
3. Birdscaping Your Garden.
4. Simple Garden Projects.
5. Building Your Own Greenhouse.
6. Gardening in Your Greenhouse.
7. Accessible Gardening.
8. Also for the ladies interested in crafts and sewing for the home.
1. The Ultimate Wreath Book.
2. Quick and Easy Sewing for the Home Windows.
3. Alma Lynne's Country Needlecrafts.
4. Georgia Bonesteel's Patchwork Potpourri.

Again, we welcome you to view

The following first appeared in the Mount Vernon Signal on January 4, 1907. It was recently transcribed from microfilm of that issue of the Signal. With these submissions, I am sharing these gleanings with the Signal's present readers. This is a continuation of the material 1850: J.R. Lawless, Oscar and J.J. Williams, Elisha Terrill and Jerry Smith. After reaching Missouri, it was discovered that a sufficient quantity of provisions had not been provided for the trip. Lots were cast to determine which of the party should turn back. Heed to J.J. Williams who reluctantly returned. Three months later the party landed in California. Oscar Williams was stricken with typhoid fever and died within three months after their arrival. D.N. Williams has in his possession the letter written by Elisha Terrill notifying him of Oscar's death. All of the members of the above party have passed over. The last to go was Elisha Terrill, three years since somewhere in Arizona. Mrs. Terrill, his wife died on the same day in Texas. Post Master, Joseph Reynolds and Col. R.G. Williams, 1861 was appointed by Solomon P.

Chase, Railroad and Express agent, J.J. Joplin. Telegraph operator, Joseph Johnson, of Shelby City, Reeper, M. Bowers, Druggist, W.M. Weber, Cooking stove, Capt. Jack Adams. Power sewing machine, S.W. Davis. Taxidermist, Dallas Rule, 1906. High School, J.N. Brown ("Buck Yarnon") Level Green. Wheat fan, James Cooper, Line Creek. Cottingin, woolen roller, Frank Devault. Tire shrinker, H.C. Henry, 1906. To go south with slaves, "Billy" Smith. Left Rockcastle at breaking of the war with eight negroes. One of these George "Mullins" escaped at Morris-town, Tennessee and returned to Mt. Vernon. Other slaves were sold and money invested in a plantation near Magnolia. Also run big store, died wealthy, but his Rockcastle heirs never received one cent of his estate. Cash register, J. Thos. Cherry. Concrete tunnel, W.J. Sparks, 1906. Computing scales, J. Thos. Cherry. Bank of Mt. Vernon, established 1900 S.H. Martin, President. W.L. Richards, Cashier, A.B. Furnish, Asst. Cashier, capital $15,000. Dental chair, Dr. M.J. Myers. Steel roofing, E.A. Herrin and Neal Parrot. To go to Mexican war, M.J. Miller, 1846, was in Col. Humphrey Marshall's cavalry. Frank White, the veteran printer, of Lancaster, was in the same company and was the mess mate of Mr. M.J. Miller. Sausage grinder, Mrs. Paulina Smith. Grandfather's clock, Mason C. Miller, 1822, brought from Jessamine County. This clock is now the possession of his son, M.J. Miller. Mt. Vernon, and "sits in the front hall." Piano, Col. R.G. Williams. Emigrant to Texas, Geo. W. Smith, was a lawyer located at Columbus, was a judge at the Supreme Court in his adopted state when under Confederate government. His estate at the time of his death, was valued at a hundred thousand dollars. Mexican war veterans, Samuel Lefew, Jack Reynolds, Perry Evans and Jack Adams. All have gone to that home without no traveler returns. Old coin, M.J. Miller has a perfect American dollardated 1794. Circuit and County Court Clerk, James Terrill. Circuit Judge, Joseph Evans of Barbourville. Merchant, mason O. Miller, sold goods in a building where Miss Kate Moore's store is now located. Christian Church Mt. Vernon built by G.B. Bragg and S.H. Thompson, contractors. Preacher of the gospel, Revs John Quinn and "Dickey" Collier. Berkshire brood of hogs, introduced by Billy Stewart. Tin Roof, Joplin Hotel. Knitting machine, none ever in county. Grain drill, supposed to have been brought to county by Michael Bowers or J.W. Myers. Known reporter for daily and foreign papers, Samuel M. Burdette. First known medical practitioner, Dr. Joplin. May have been some one before him, but its beyond the recollection of the oldest inhabitants now living. Undertaker, James E. Allen, owned the property now occupied by Dr. M.L. Myers on Old Main Street in Mt. Vernon. Allen came here from Virginia. The old man and wife both bordered on dementia about 1890. He by mistake gave an overdose of medicine from which he died. Allen later went to Fort Myers, Florida, then back to Winchester where he dropped dead while following his calling as cabinet workman. Blacksmith, Tom Ramsey, Pleas Ramsey was another who located later on a farm of Jackey Mare, grandfather of the writer, on Paint Lick creek, Garrard county, and afterwards ran a big shop in Lexington from 1863 until his death. Resident of Rockcastle to travel over the biggest part of the world, if not entirely around it, W.O. Jones, son of Mrs. J.M. Jones, while in the U.S. Navy, since 1896. Egg cases, Willis Adams, Jr., 1872, when doing business with his father, Jack Adams, where J.T. Adams store is now. Before that time eggs were shipped in tubs, boxes and barrels. Breakage were great. Ten Pin Alley, Thos. Smith, located where Dr. Davis residence now is. Horse pistol, during the war, brought in by the North-cavalry, Lloyd M. Mart now has one as a relic. Blue army overcoats seen for years after close of the war. The last one in use, is in the collection of the writer, was owned by Nehemiah Bloomer three years since. It was in use nearly forty years. Surveyor, Jesse Fish, father of A.T. and J. Henry Fish. Died about 1889 and buried in the Mt. Vernon cemetery. Tomatoes, cultivated by Henry Fredericks, a German. Citizens were afraid to eat them, thought they were poisonous. Deer and turkey were plentiful and some near up to 1860, especially in Southern part of the county where territory was sparsely settled. Beegum, or silk hats, William Craig, M.J. Miller, Chas. Kirtley, etc. After close of the war nearly everybody owned an old army musket. They are spent shotguns, a number of which are yet in use in the county and musket caps are still sold in the store. Writer was anxious to obtain information as to first grain cradle, scythe, complainer, revolver, metallic cartridges, insurance agent, wheelbarrow and lots of other things. Heated M.J. Miller, Mr. M. said, "You are asking too much. I am not a 100 years old." Well he certainly recollects a great deal of our ancient history and it was one of the aims of this article to put to record for the present and future generations as much of the county's past history as could be gleaned from the living to today. Enlisted in the Northern army, Dr. Milton Frazier, M.C. Miller, Jack and Granville Maret, etc. Enlisted in the Southern Army, Jas. and Lewis Smith, sons of Billy Smith, T.T. Wallace, etc. Channel coal, T.J. Ballard of Eastern part of the county, wagoned to Jason and Stonor Walker, Richmond, Stage line, ran everyday between Crab Orchard and Cumberland Gap in 1860. One of the drivers was a brother to the immortal Tom Marshall. Hotel in Mt. Vernon, Reubin Elkin, in building on lot where J. Fish's store now stands. Later owned by Thomas Smith and run by him for many years. Commercial travelers, among the first remembered is Joseph G. Hazelwood. Traveled many years for a Cincinnati firm and later for an Owensboro house. Went to Carthage, Texas, took up law, became a District Judge. Is yet living in Carthage in the Lone Star State. Farm or hotel bell, was used on the Elkin hotel way back in the forties.

The bell is now used by W.M. Poynter, whose house now occupied the lot on which the Kirtley House stood for 50 to 60 years. Pepperbox pistol, one now in possession of S.C. Franklin, Mt. Vernon, who also has many war relics in the way of bombshells, cannon balls, musket balls, leather cap boxes for musket caps, etc. Oldest slaves, "Uncle Billy" and "Aunt Betty", property of Gen'l Smith. Locomotive No. 42, was the first one that entered the county. It was a wood burner. William Fiddler, one of the first engineers, Mart Dillion, baggage master. Capt. Swenoney one of the first conductors. Lucifer matches, M.C. Miller or Alfred Smith. Barrel coal oil brought to Mt. Vernon by W.A. Books. (Familiarly called "Billy"). Largest newspaper advertising done by U.G. Baker, Mt. Vernon 1903 to 1907. County fair, Brood-bred, October 1896. Electric light (private) to be erected in county, G.T. Johnson, Mt. Vernon, to be finished by February 1, 1907, for use in store house and residence. The great fisherman, T.T. Wallace. Largest railroad fill in the world is 1 1/2 miles East of Mt. Vernon. Largest creek in county that "sinks" is Roundstone which at ordinary tide disappears under a mountain 2 1/2 miles East of Pine Hill and reappears 4 miles below at Livingston, at the "boils." Stock drivers of early days, who took or sent over state roads, hogs, mules, horses and cattle to Southern markets in Georgia, Alabama, etc., Mason C. Miller, Bennett Hiatt, Abe Chesnut, Chas. C. Carson and many others. Mr. Miller died on one of these trips at Huntsville, Alabama. In those days, Rockcastle not only raised enough for its own use, but had a big surplus for export. When coal oil lamps were a new thing most everybody was afraid of them and none were lighted until all the children were sent from the room, after it was lighted the kids were allowed to return. Coal oil was 60 to 75 cents a gallon. Mrs. E.H. Kirtley, mother of Mrs. W.M. Poynter, owned the first oil lamp brought to Mt. Vernon. She sent to Lexington by Dr. Robert Redd for it while he was attending school there. First monument was erected by Jonathan S. Langford on a lot in Mt. Vernon cemetery. This lot was deeded to posterity by Mr. Langford for use of his relatives. The monument is made from Rockcastle freestone and is in remarkable state of preservation. All the inscription can be plainly read. The lettering shows that Mr. Langford was a lawyer and had been a member of the legislature, and died in 1852. His remains do not rest by this monument, but in Madison county where he lived a number of years. He was the grandfather of the late M.P. Newcomb and many of his descendants are living in this county. The old "Langford house" mentioned in another portion of this article, was built by Jonathan Langford, Masonic Royal Arch Chapter, No. 140, was organized January 7, 1900. Charter members: J.C. Carter, G.W. McClure, J.C. Carmical, W.C. Mullins, J.A. Landrum and James Maret. Meetings held in rooms at Ashland Lodge No. 640, which has, in connection with furnishings of the chapter, the most complete lodge room in the Kentucky mountains. Mt. Vernon Collegiate Institute was organized on July 30th, 1889, James Houk, J.J. Williams, M. Bowers, D.N. Williams,

Rockcastle County High School Council Seeks 1999-2000 Parent Members

We are seeking two parents to serve on the Rockcastle High School Site Based Decision Making Council from July 1, 1999 to June 30, 2000.

Candidates should fill out a short nomination form saying why they want to run and showing that they are eligible. The forms are available in the school office, and need to be turned in to the school office by Friday, April 30.

On Tuesday, May 4, statements from all candidates will be sent home to 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th grade parents.

On Tuesday, May 11, all 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th grade parents are invited to vote at the school library at 6:30 p.m. Doors will open at 6:15 and voting will commence at 6:30. ALL THOSE VOTING MUST BE PRESENT AT 6:30.

New council members will receive at least six hours of training to prepare them for their role on the council.

The school council decides on school policies, plans and budgets that will help student performance. In 1999-2000, some major efforts will be:

- Hiring the new principal
 - Continuous curriculum improvement
 - Safe school policies
- If your child will be a Rockcastle County High School student next year, please consider this important opportunity to help make our school even stronger than it is today!

Tiger Pause

Congratulations to Shari Proctor and Mary Ann Childress, our parent representatives on the SBDM Council for the 1999-2000 school year. These two parents were elected at the PTA meeting last Thursday.

Parents please remember to check the lost and found for your child's missing jackets, shirts, etc. Many items are collected throughout the year. These items will not be available next school year. Any item not claimed by the last day of school will be given away.

Many students borrow clothing items from the Family Resource Center. Please remember to return these items (except underwear) after they are washed to the center as soon as possible. In order to have all sizes on hand for any child in need these borrowed items must be returned. If you have children's T-shirts or sweat pants that are in good condition that you would like to donate to the center please contact Ms. Satica.

Preschool/Entry Level registration and screening is scheduled for Friday, April 23 and Saturday, April 24, beginning at 9:00 a.m. It will also be held the following week on Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1.

The 1999 Pathfinder Report lists 6,899 individual cows. It is published in the April issue of the Angus Journal and extra copies are available from the American Angus Association.

Starting a business? Is it the right decision for you?

Is starting a business the right decision for you? You can get the answer to that question and others at a seminar sponsored by Eastern Kentucky University's South Central Small Business Development Center Thursday, May 6 in Mt. Vernon.

The event will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Bank of Mt. Vernon. The instructors will be Kathy Moats and John Preston, director and business coordinator, respectively, of the South Central SBDC.

"If you're thinking about starting a business of if you just started a business, you will want to attend this workshop," Moats said.

A $10 registration fee is payable the night of the workshop. Because of limited seating, pre-registration is urged. For more information, or to register, call 606-677-6120.

The South Central SBDC is an outreach service of EKU's College of Business, serving 15 area counties.

The largest number of Pathfinder cows from a single herd this year is 77, and several hundred breeders have a single cow that qualifies for the exclusive listing.

Wednesday: Chef salad or oven baked chicken, whipped potatoes, green beans, roll, milk and choice of desserts.

Thursday: Chef salad or hot pan on bun, potato wedges, lettuce, dill pickles, milk and choice of desserts.

Friday: Chef salad or taco salad or sloppy joe on bun, hash browns, milk and choice of desserts.

Dr. A.G. Lovell and J.W. Brown directors, C.C. Williams, president. The institution is now known as the Brown Memorial School. It is under the patronage of the church by that name in Baltimore. The school has progressed since its inception and improved as the years pass along, in educational facilities, Miss Ada M. Taylor is now in charge of the principal. She is the most energetic principal at the head of the schools affairs. Langdon Dormitory was built (1905) from funds furnished by an enterprising and philanthropic lady of Baltimore, Mrs. John P. Langdon. In the erection of this dormitory, Miss Ida M. Taylor had entire charge of planning, supervising, etc., and paying of the bills. The dormitory, Miss Taylor is endowed with remarkable executive abilities as is evidenced by her superior and successful management of the Brown Memorial School and the discharge of other manifold duties.

Jordan Dean Powell celebrated his sixth birthday with a party at his home on March 31st. He received many nice gifts and had a lot of fun riding his daddy's four-wheeler.

Brandon "Bam Bam" Russell celebrated his eighth birthday on April 19th. He is the son of Eddie and Michelle Decker-Callah and the late Jerry Russell. He is the grandson of Eddie and Sherry Decker, Joe Russell, Ruth Russell, Lucille Stewart, Marie Gentry and Shelby Decker. Bam-Bam would like to thank his brother Chris, his sister Kendra, Aunt Tina, Katie, Wesley, Randall Everett, and Kyle who made his party fun.

Cash recognized in Angus Breeder Pathfinder Report

Lonnie Cash of Brodhead has been recognized nationally by the American Angus Association for having one registered Angus cow included in the American Angus Association's 1999 Pathfinder Report.

Only 1,813 of the more than 30,000 members of the American Angus Association were represented in this year's report, according to Richard Spader, executive vice president of the American Angus Association with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri. The Pathfinder Program identifies superior Angus cows based upon recorded performance traits that are economically important to efficient beef production. These traits include regular calving and heavy weaning weights, reports John Crouch, director of performance programs for the American Angus Association. All registered Angus cows that meet the strict Pathfinder standards are listed, along with their owners, in the Pathfinder Report that is published annually by the American Angus Association.

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS OF KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY OF APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF AN ALTERNATIVE METHOD OF REGULATION

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, on April 8, 1999, pursuant to the Kentucky Revised Statutes, Kentucky Utilities Company ("KU") filed with the Public Service Commission ("Commission") in Case No. 98-474, an Amendment to its Application for Approval of an Alternative Method of Regulation of its Rates and Service (the "Amended Application"). In addition to the numerous benefits provided by the proposed alternative method of regulation and identified in KU's original Application filed October 12, 1998, KU's Amended Application provides:

- Annual reductions in customers' bills for electric service for KU and Louisville Gas and Electric Company ("LGEA") throughout the next five years in the following amount, and allocated between KU and LGEA, consistent with the method approved by the Commission in its Order of September 12, 1997 in "In the Matter of Joint Application of Louisville Gas and Electric Company and Kentucky Utilities Company for Approval of Merger," Case No. 97-300;
 - Twenty Million Dollars ($20,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000;
 - Eight Million Dollars ($8,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2000 through June 30, 2001;
 - Eight Million Dollars ($8,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002;
 - Eight Million Dollars ($8,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2002 through June 30, 2003;
 - Eight Million Dollars ($8,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004.
- LGEA's gas base rates would not be increased for a period of five years or through June 30, 2004 absent the incurrence of extraordinary circumstances and excepting any changes as the result of the operation of any lawful surcharge or automatic adjustment clause;
- An additional one-year extension of the current KU Merger Surcredit Rider through June 30, 2004;
- An additional one-year extension of KU's current commitment to cap electric rates extending through June 30, 2004, absent the incurrence of extraordinary circumstances and excepting any changes as the result of the operation of any lawful surcharge or automatic adjustment clause.

KU and LGEA also will set aside the following amounts each year, in accordance with the allocation of the merger savings determined by the Commission in its Order of September 12, 1997 in "In the Matter of Joint Application of Louisville Gas and Electric Company and Kentucky Utilities Company for Approval of Merger," Case No. 97-300, for qualified organizations for the purpose of assisting low-income customers of KU and LGEA with payment of their residential energy bills:

- Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000;
- One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2000 through June 30, 2001;
- One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2002;
- One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2002 through June 30, 2003;
- One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) beginning July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004.

KU's Amended Application proposes to make these provisions effective July 1, 1999.

The Amended Application requests that the Commission approve an alternative method of regulating KU's rates and service, as well as an Electric Performance-Based Rate ("EPBR") Tariff. The Amended Application, if approved, will change the method of regulating KU on the traditional rate-of-return method of regulation to a method based on KU's operating performance.

The EPBR Tariff, as issued on April 5, 1999, applies to all electric rate schedules and special contracts for electric service, effective July 1, 1999. The monthly amount computed under each of the rate schedules to which the EPBR Tariff is applicable shall be increased or decreased by the Electric Performance-Based Rate Adjustment Factor at a rate per kilowatt-hour of monthly consumption during the billing calendar quarter computed as follows:

EPBRA(q) = EPBRA(q)KW(h) / [EPBRA(q)FCR + MDS + GP + SO + BR + BA]

Where:
EPBRA = Electric Performance-Based Rate Adjustment Factor
EPBRA = Electric Performance-Based Rate Amount for the current quarter
FCR = Fuel Cost Recovery
MDS = Merger Dispatch Savings expressed as a credit
GP = Generation Performance expressed as a credit
SO = Service Quality
BR = Bill Reduction expressed as a credit
BA = Balancing Adjustment
KW(h) = Kentucky jurisdictional kilowatt-hour. Sales in the current quarter.
q = Current quarter shall be the second calendar quarter preceding the billing calendar quarter in which the EPBRA is billed.

The amended Merger Surcredit Rider, issued April 5, 1999, applies to all electric rate schedules and special contracts effective July 1, 1999.

KU also is requesting that the Commission approve the withdrawal of its Electric Rate Schedule Fuel Adjustment clause after all fuel costs are collected pursuant to the Utility Fuel Adjustment Clause Regulation (807 KAR 5:056) and final orders are issued in the pending fuel adjustment clause cases of KU concurrent with the approval of the EPBR Tariff; and KU is further requesting that the Commission approve conditions permitting greater tariff flexibility in the future.

The Commission's review of KU's Amended Application may result in a method of regulating KU or consumer rates and services other than the method of regulation and rates described in this Notice.

Any corporation, association, body politic, or any other person who has a direct or indirect financial interest in the Public Service Commission, 730 Schenck Lane, P.O. Box 615, Frankfort, Kentucky 40602, and shall set forth the grounds for the request for intervention, including the status and interest of the party requesting intervention.

Interested parties may obtain copies of the Amended Application and corresponding Testimony by contacting: Ronald L. Wilhite, Vice President of Regulatory Affairs, Kentucky Utilities Company, P.O. Box 30200, Louisville, Kentucky 40222-2020. Copies of the Amended Application and Testimony will be available for public inspection at KU's offices where bills are paid after April 5, 1999.

Poet's Corner

Cleda Southard - Teacher
By Preston Parrett
At the Poplar Gap School
Cleda first appeared on the scene,
And there she started teaching
At the ripe old age of eighteen.

A car scarred the mule
And he got rid of his load.
The saddle went around
And Cleda hit the ground,
The last she saw of the mule
He was howled bound.

Eighty-three schools dotted Rock-castle
They all had about the same construction,
With water buckets and pot bellied stoves
Desks and blackboards for instruction.

When water covered Brush Creek
Wolfie Creek was her route to Poplar Gap,
And getting there during high water
Wasn't exactly a snap.

In her two stints at Poplar Gap
She boarded with the Fred and Elmer Mullins families,
And she'd ride a mule or horse from Chestnut Ridge
To get to their localities.

Cleda worked in Michigan as a river-eter
As she put her teaching career aside,
Later she worked in Social Security and Agriculture Offices
Which she took in stride.

On time while riding a mule
She saw a son on his hide,
She loosened up the saddle girth
To give him ease during the ride.

She came back to Rockcastle
And her spirit wanted to soar,
She taught at Blue Springs, Rock Spring, Oak Hill and Norton
Then New and Old Chestnut Ridge once more.

Climbing back in the saddle
They were in the middle of the road,

When teaching in one room schools
She handled all the details,

From cleaning the outhouses
To carrying water in pails.

There were no custodians
And she had to do it all,
From being the cleaner upper
To building fires in the fall.

She was in charge of discipline
And leader of the songs,
She read Bible verses daily
And taught students right from wrong.

She was the counselor
And also the nurse,
She treated cuts and bruises
So they wouldn't get worse.

She liked the Chestnut Ridge schools
From her home they were just down the road,
And James Lambert, Fannie Coldiron,
Evan Helton and Wanda Vanhook,
Helped her share the teaching load.

At the school on Chestnut Ridge
The kids made a wonderful stew,
They'd bring vegetables and put 'em
in a pot.
Then throw in a piece of meat or two.

The girls would put it on the stove
And bring it to a boil in the pot,
Then during the noon break
They'd all eat a lot.

A kindly neighbor would bring combread
But I've forgotten the name,
Cleda told me who it was
So my bad memory has to take the blame.

In the fifties and sixties
One and two room schools started closing down,
And students were transported to larger schools
Usually in the heart of town.

Cleda was transferred to Livingston
In nineteen hundred and fifty-three,
And there she taught the fifth grade
Becoming part of the school's history.

She was a dedicated teacher
Who did her job extremely well,
But there's one more incident
That I've just got to tell.

At Poplar Gap she pulled a prank on Halloween
And heard a shotgun roar,
She got on top of a big rock and yelled
"You missed me, shoot some more."

Congratulations to Pvt. Jerry Michael Muncy on graduating from Basic Training on March 25 and from AIT (Advanced Individual Training) on May 6. We love you and are very proud of you!

April 18-24 is Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness Week

April 18-24, is organ and tissue donation awareness week. Rockcastle

Circuit Court Clerk Teresa Vanzant and staff would like to encourage everyone to donate $1.00 when renewing their license. The donation helps promote the need for organ/tissue donation in the state of Kentucky. Today over 300 people in the state of Kentucky are in need of a life-saving organ transplant. Many more are waiting for critical tissue and cornea transplants. You can make a difference. The decision to become an organ and tissue donor is an extremely important one. When you renew your driver's license you will be asked to donate $1.00 to the Trust for Life Organ donation program. At that time, consider becoming a possible organ donor and discuss the decision with your family. Everyone who donates the dollar gets a choice of a ink pen, a ruler, a refrigerator magnet or a comb. The week of April 18-24 everyone who donates the dollar will have a chance of winning a XL Trust For Life T-shirt. For more information contact the Circuit Clerk's office.

Robert Sandusky, Mt. Vernon, recently competed in the Kentucky Derby Festival Spelling Bee in Louisville. Pictured left to right are Joe McGeehan of Kentucky Farm Bureau Insurance Company, Robert Sandusky, David S. Beck of Kentucky Farm Bureau and Milton Metz of WHAS Radio. A total of 47 youngsters from Kentucky and Southern Indiana competed in the annual event sponsored by Kentucky Farm Bureau, WHAS and Business First.

Miss Tara Cox of Mt. Vernon recently attended the Ky. Tennessee District Convention in Tennessee to accept an award for the RCHS Key Club. The Key Club won The Most Outstanding Club of Division 9 for service, commitment and reputation. Also, Tara was given The Most Outstanding Key Clubber of Division 9 and Honorable Mention for the Most Outstanding Key Clubber of the Ky-Tennessee District. The Rockcastle Kiwanis is proud of Tara and all the RCHS Key Club for their outstanding achievements. The Kiwanis presented Tara with a new briefcase at their last meeting and also gave pens to the Key Club members as their way of saying 'way to go' for a job well done. Tara is shown with the Governor of the Ky-Tennessee Division.

By Dr. Don Whitehead

Misguided Individuals

Sometimes Missions Sarah (not her real name) came to the abuse shelter because her husband had beaten her badly. This was not the first time this had happened. Sarah was a Christian and very confused about what God would have her do in this situation. "My pastor told me that I should give him another chance," Sarah told me, "but I don't want to! If I don't, am I going against God?"

Sarah is one of many battered women who have run into a brick wall when trying to discern what God would have them do. "After I left him, John (not his real name) has started going to church," she added. "Last Sunday he got saved. I hear he is getting counseling with the pastor now. My mother told me he bought a new Bible and carries it with him everywhere."

Batters will use any means possible, even religion, to convince the spouse to come home. Many, many abusers have gotten saved or rededicated their lives or confessed sin in front of the church the first week their wives moved to an abuse shelter.

Christians and even pastors are sometimes fooled by this display of religion. How could they not believe a man who stands in front of the church weeping and confessing to abusing his wife? They see this as an indictment the batterer has changed and implore the wife to "give him another chance."

Most of the time these people do not know the history of the relationship. They do not realize that the victim has kept the abuse secret, hidden from the public. She has covered her bruises and her emotional hurts so well that none knows what she has endured. They do not know that she has already given him a second chance "at least a hundred times." They do not know that she has heard these same promises over and over again, only to have them broken every time.

Immediately after an abusive incident, the abusive relationship often goes through a "honeymoon stage." In the honeymoon stage the abuser will say he is sorry and make promises he cannot keep. He may bring home flowers and candy. If she has left him, he will write her letters or try to find her. He may promise to stop drinking, see a counselor or never hit her again. Most victims of abuse have heard these promises many times before.

If the victim believes the promises and returns home, the honeymoon stage will last for a little while. Gradually, though, the abuser reneges on his promises. He stops going to church and refuses to see a counselor. He begins to show more and more anger. Soon he abuses her again. Then comes another honeymoon stage and the cycle continues. Many abuse victims have repeated that cycle literally hundreds of times.

Batters are in a good con men and can make a person believe the sky is red. They seem so sincere when they make their promises. Perhaps they are sincere, but the real question is: do they have the ability to keep their promises? Most do not.

For those who believe the abused woman should always stay with her abuser and try to "work it out," I have a question: do you really think that God wants a woman to continue to be abused and to raise her children in the midst of that abuse?

I will be leading a new support group for victims of domestic violence. The group is sponsored by Bethany House Abuse Shelter and there is no charge. Please call me for more information at 679-4134 or 1-877-PASTOR 8. Group membership is confidential.

4-H Camp gearing up for another exciting summer

By John McQueary
Co. Ext. Agent for 4-H/Youth Dev.

As the school doors in Kentucky schools close for another summer, thousands of young people will continue the learning process through 4-H camps. More than 10,000 youngsters will be attending one of the state's five residential 4H camps this summer. Another 15,000 will participate in county day camps held in various local sites across Kentucky.

The 4H camping experience emphasizes personal development. It is a community setting in miniature, helping young people to develop and practice social skills, experience leadership roles and make friendships that sometimes last a lifetime.

More than 3,000 volunteers help direct campers. Each camp is also staffed with emergency medical technicians, certified life guards and instructors for nature and recreation. 4H Camp also provides young people with a chance to learn lifetime hobbies. Some will learn to swim, paddle a canoe or square dance. Crafts, nature study, fishing, archery and shooting sports are also a part of the long list of activities available to keep everyone involved throughout the day.

The Rockcastle County 4H camp is held at J.M. Felner 4H Camp in London, Kentucky. The modern facilities include cabins, dining hall, swimming pool, lake for canoeing and fishing. Cost of the five-day residential camp is $70.00 per person and scholarships are offered. The costs include transportation to and from the camp, 13 meals and four nights of overnight lodging. This year the camp is scheduled for June 14 - 18.

All of Kentucky's 4H camps participate in the federally funded Summer Food Service Program, operating under guidelines similar to public school lunch programs. Free meal service is based on family size and income.

Rockcastle is just beginning the sign-up process. If you haven't signed up yet, there are still camp openings. Contact the Rockcastle County Extension Office at 256-2403 for additional information on 4H Camp.

consumption. The preliminary contribution schedule for Kentucky (not accounting for any adjustment factors) is the following:

Year 1 (1999) $114 million
Year 2 (2000) $84 million
Year 3 (2001) $120 million
Years 4-10(2002-08) $150 million
Year 11 (2009) $132 million
Year 12 (2010) $45 million

Does the Agreement Call For Specified Uses For Phase II Funds? The only criteria outlined by the tobacco companies for Phase II money is that 100 percent of these funds be distributed to tobacco quota owners and tobacco growers.

Who Will Determine the Allocation of These Funds to Quota Owners and Producers? Governors in each of the major tobacco producing states will form a state board consisting of various political representatives (Governor, Commissioner of Agriculture, Attorney General, national and state lawmakers) along with three to six farmer representatives. While various farm organizations in Kentucky are making recommendations on how to equitably allocate these funds, ultimately the Phase II state advisory board (yet to be officially named by Governor Patton) will be making the final decision on the distribution of settlement funds.

Once this decision is made for a given year, the state board will inform a national tobacco trust board who will issue payments to quota owners and growers. Distribution plans can vary across states and change from year to year.

What are Some Potential Payment Levels for Kentucky Quota Owners for 1999? If the Kentucky state board decides to allocate all the anticipated funds for 1999 based on quota owned or quota lost a potential payoff schedule for Kentucky could be the following:

- *approximately 26 cents per pound of basic quota owned if 1998 is selected as the base year.
- *approximately 37 cents per pound of basic quota owned if 1999 is selected as the base year.
- *approximately 91 cents per pound of quota lost if the calculation is based on the 1999 basic quota reduction. Keep in mind that these are potential payments for 1999 only. Given that company contribution and quota levels change annually, the payment level will change as well.

Part 2 of this series will continue in next weeks paper. For more information, contact the Rockcastle County Cooperative Extension Service at 256-2403.

- 3 cups frozen mixed vegetables
- 2 (2.8 oz.) packages Oriental-flavor Instant Ramen noodles, with seasoning packet.
- 2 tablespoons thinly sliced green onion

In a large non-stick skillet, brown ground beef over medium heat, cooking 8-10 min. or until beef is no longer pink. Stir beef as it cooks to break it up into small pieces.

Remove beef to a bowl with a slotted spoon and stir in a seasoning packet from one of the noodle packages. Pour off drippings from skillet.

In the same skillet, combine water, vegetables and noodles (broken into pieces). Bring mixture to a boil; reduce heat. Cover and simmer for 3 minutes or until noodles are tender, stirring occasionally.

Add beef to noodle mixture. Cook only long enough to heat beef. Stir in green onion just before serving.

Refrigerate any leftovers.

Issues Surrounding
Distribution of Phase II
Tobacco Settlement Funds

Farm Bureau recently hosted Larry Forgy at a tobacco update meeting. For those who could not attend, the following is part 1 of a 2 part article on The Specifics of the Phase II Settlement.

Kentucky is scheduled to receive approximately $1.5 billion (or roughly 30 percent) of the $5.15 billion secondary settlement fund (referred to as Phase II) established by the tobacco companies to compensate tobacco farmers and quota owners for the anticipated financial losses caused by the national tobacco settlement. The Phase II funds are to be distributed over a 12 year period. Under the original agreement, payments would be adjusted upward by the annual rate of inflation (with 3 percent being the minimum annual upward adjustment). However, contributions will also be adjusted downward by the annual decline in domestic cigarette consumption. One issue yet to be resolved is the base year for determining domestic cigarette

Food Wise - Basics of the Grain Group

By: Hazel Jackson County Extension Agent for Family and Consumer Science

Crunchy cereals, nutty whole grain breads and oodles of noodles are all part of a low cost, healthful diet. Add rice, pasta, crackers, tortillas, pretzels and popcorn and you've got the Grain Group. This group is the most basic part of the Food Guide Pyramid. Enjoy sit to 11 servings each day. The Pyramid reminds you to eat a variety of foods for good health.

When shopping for Grain Group foods, think big. Wise buys include bread, cereal, rice and pasta in any package size. Cut costs even more with bulk or large containers. This is only true if you use the entire package before it spoils.

Because grains are basic to many meals, using large packages is easy. For example, pasta and rice can stretch your food dollar. Team either with vegetables and a little meat for a cost-cutting main dish. Or serve meatless topped with sauce, vegetables and cheese.

As with all shopping, compare prices and package sizes. This way, you'll get the best buy. Here is a tasty, healthy recipe using oodles of noodles. This recipe makes 6 servings and costs about 59 cents per serving.

ABSOLUTE Auction

of Mr. and Mrs. James "Bear" Bradley's

47 Acres, m/l, in Tracts - Tobacco Base Saturday, April 24, 1999 at 10:30 a.m.

Wabd Jones Road, Mt. Vernon, Kentucky

Location

7 miles southwest of Mt. Vernon, turn off Highway 461 onto Old Highway 461 Loope #1, go meeting. For those who could not attend, the following is part 1 of a 2 part article on The Specifics of the Phase II Settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley are in the process of reducing their farming operation and have authorized our firm to sell this property for the absolute high dollar.

The property will be offered in individual tracts, reserving the right to regroup in any manner and as a whole in order to obtain the most favorable results for the sellers. When combined, there is a total of 47.04 acres.

- Tract 1: Contains 1.42 acres with 213.32 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.
- Tract 2: Contains 19.62 acres with 86.30 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.
- Tract 3: Contains 85/100 of an acre with 125.04 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.
- Tracts 4, 5 and 6: Each of these tracts contain 86/100 of an acre with 125 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.
- Tract 7: Contains 5.69 acres with 329.24 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.
- Tract 8: Contains 4.50 acres with 323.23 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.
- Tract 9: Contains 12.38 acres with 104.02 feet of road frontage along Wabd Jones Road.

A tobacco allotment will be selling separately from the farm. However at the time of printing, the basic allotment had not been determined by the Rockcastle County Farm Service Agency and will be announced day of sale.

Auctioneer's Note: All of the tracts have city water available and they're ideal for building sites for mini-farms. This is some of the most desirable property in this area. If you're looking for an excellent tract of land at your own price, be sure to attend this absolute auction on Saturday, April 24 at 10:30 a.m.

Terms: 20% down day of sale, balance within 30 days.
Announcements day of sale take precedence over printed matter.
For additional information, contact the auctioneers.
