Rockcastles get big win at Clay County

Board hears requests for posting of historical documents

The Rockcastle County Board of Education heard a report from a Laurel County man Tuesday night concerning the posting of Ten Commandments and other historical documents in Rockcastle County Schools.

Herschel Walker, with the Ten Commandments Advancement Fund gave a twenty minute presentation to the board, which discussed the matter briefly and instructed Superintendent Larry Hammond to gather more information on the subject and report back to them in a couple of months.

Currently because of federal law, the Ten Commandments are not posted in any of the Rockcastle County School buildings.

The board also heard from Rockcastle School Architect David Samoklar, who told them that the project at Broadhead was seven to ten days behind schedule.

The new building is scheduled to be completed by the beginning of school next August, but from all indications it is going to be a struggle for that to happen.

Hammond's personnel actions included the hiring of Renee Wolfe, Tammy Newton, Susie Carpenter and Teresa Bombard, as substitute teachers.

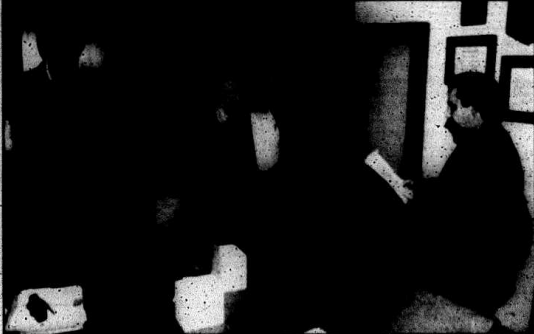

Special Morgan Veen was hired as special education teacher at the Alternative School.

One new member took the oath of office Tuesday night at the beginning of meeting.

Newly elected member Mike Burdette was sworn in, along with incumbent members Terry Burton and Martin Vanzant.

Dr. G.W. Griffin was re-elected as board chairman and Terry Burton was re-elected vice chairman.

Sam Stallsworth is the fifth member of the current board.

Council discusses variety of issues during regular meeting

By: Richard Andertin

A new Mt. Vernon City Council took office on Monday night, but they were still facing the same old problems.

The council discussed a shortfall in the budget in the water and sewer department, lack of funding for the fire house, the draft audit of the city's finances for the year ending June 30, 1994, a new boundary for the city limits and possible vacancies on the police force.

Local CPA Joe Clontz presented a rough draft of the city's 1998 audit.

Clontz said the audit wasn't complete because city employees still had not keyed in all of the information needed to finish it.

He said there didn't appear to be any problems with the audit, but that he could not issue his independent audit report and make his recommendations until everything had been completed.

Clontz said it would be in the best interests of the city and the council to try and catch up all of the audits, including the June 2000 audit as soon as possible.

Mayor Karen King said she had hired two more people in the office and that they would be used to help key in the needed information so the audit work could go faster.

When the city's audits are not completed in a timely fashion, the city loses out on money from the state.

Clontz said that it wasn't a significant amount, about $3,000 annually, but over time it adds up.

Mayor King also told the council that an engineer was currently working on squaring up the city limits.

Currently the city's boundaries look like a piece of a jigsaw puzzle.

The new boundary will be laid news for those people who currently work in businesses close to the city limits, but not in them. Once the new boundary is approved, those people will then begin paying the city's half percent payroll and net profits tax.

She said the boundary would also likely include a straight line from exit 59 to exit 62 of I-75, taking in that portion of the interstate.

The new boundary would also straighten out the boundaries along the 461 by-pass, where some businesses are in the city and some aren't.

The Mayor did not give any time frame for redrawing the boundaries.

The council also heard from police chief Bill Mink, who told them that Brian Dean had been hired to replace Colby Smith, who is joining the ranks of the Kentucky State Police.

Mink also said that officer Barry Adams would be staying with the department for the present and not going to the state police, as was earlier thought.

Mink said officers Doug Thomas and Nathaniel Price had applied to the Berea police department, but that at present neither one had been hired.

Firemen Brian Hanel and Steve Griffin asked again about funding for a new fire house on Main Street.

Two local men charged

Two Rockcastle County men were charged with manufacturing methamphetamine first degree after they were stopped by police on New Year's Day.

Mt. Vernon police officer Barry Adams arrested Jason Bullock, 18, of Mt. Vernon and Bryan Pittman, 20, also of Mt. Vernon at 11 p.m. after their vehicle was pulled over at Cummins Car Wash on Hwy. 150.

According to Mt. Vernon police Chief Bill Mink, Adams and officer Colby Smith found many of the items that are used to make the illegal drug in Bullock's car.

Mink said that police then obtained a search warrant for a house on Sand Springs Road, where the two were apparently living and when officers with the Drug Enforcement Agency and Mt. Vernon officers searched the house they found more chemicals used to make the drug.

Besides the Meth charges, Bullock was also charged with driving under the influence and possession of a controlled substance.

Pittman is being held in the Rockcastle Detention Center is due in court January 22. Bullock, who is free on bond, is due in court on January 31.

Citizens say no to landfill in northern part of county

By: Richard Andertin

Approximately 40 people turned out for the Rockcastle County Fiscal Court meeting Tuesday to protest the building of a landfill in the northern part of Rockcastle County.

The Rockcastle County Fiscal Court took immediate action against the landfill and unanimously passed a resolution against the landfill.

The proposed landfill is on the property of David McFarland at Little Clear Creek.

McFarland is a contractor and has applied to the state for a permit to build a landfill on his 200 acre farm, which lies in Rockcastle and Madison County. The landfill would be located between Mason Lake Road in Madison County and Little Clear Creek in Rockcastle, but it would be in Rockcastle County.

McFarland said Wednesday, that the landfill would be located off his private drive, near his home and a home his brother is building on the same property.

Citizens at Tuesday's meeting were concerned about the type of items that would be put in the landfill and what impact the landfill would have on the environment in the area, including the water supply and purity of Little Clear Creek.

"The landfill would be used to dispose of construction/demolition debris only."

Judge-Executive Buzzy Carlfortis told the group that he wasn't questioning the integrity of Mr. McFarland, but that he was concerned about the landfill not being monitored all of the time.

"The question I have is how is Mr. McFarland going to be sure that hazardous materials are not dumped in the landfill when he is not around," Carlfortis said.

The Judge said that he would never be a fan of any type of landfill in the county, because of problems caused by them in the Pine Hill area a few years ago.

That landfill contaminated the Bojls in the Roundstone Creek, which was used for Livingston's water supply. Now Livingston gets its water from the Wood Creek Water District in Laurel County.

After the court passed the resolution, the Judge passed around a petition against the landfill which was signed by him and all five magistrates and by those concerned citizens in attendance.

The Judge said that although the court was vehemently against the landfill, he was not sure how much control the county had over the landfill being approved.

He said that he had talked with the state on two or three different occasions and had gotten different answers about just how much authority the fiscal court had in this matter.

However the Judge told the group that the county may have some say in the matter because of their solid waste ordinance that was passed in 1990.

Part of that ordinance says that "solid waste in Rockcastle County shall be deposited at a processing facility or disposal area approved by the county."

Another part says, "no person may engage in the business of residential or commercial solid waste collection unless he or she holds a permit issued by the Rockcastle Fiscal Court."

McFarland said that his landfill would not be open to the general public and would be used mainly for debris generated by his demolition business.

He also said that agreement had been reached on disposing of debris from the Boone Square Apartments in Berea in his landfill as of yet.

He also said that concerns about large trucks tearing up the road in Little Clear Creek were also unfounded because the route to the landfill would be from the Mason Lake Road in Madison County and had no plans to travel through Little Clear Creek.

McFarland said that he would discuss the situation with anyone concerned about the landfill and give them a tour of the proposed site as well as share information from the state with them.

He said the state had already inspected the site and told him verbally that they did not think the landfill would pose a watershed problem but that he hadn't received official notice of approval of the landfill as of yet.

Judge Carlfortis said he thought word could come from the state as early as Wednesday as to whether or not the permit for the landfill was issued.

"We are going to fight this as far as we can," Carlfortis said.

After the court passed the resolution, the Judge passed around a petition against the landfill which was signed by him and all five magistrates and by those concerned citizens in attendance.

The Judge said that although the court was vehemently against the landfill, he was not sure how much control the county had over the landfill being approved.

Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette, who would be ultimately responsible for representing the county in any type of legal battle, said Wednesday that he applauded the actions of the court.

"It troubles me that Madison County debris is going to be disposed of right across the county line in Rockcastle County," Burdette said.

"Children play in that creek all of the time and they shouldn't have to worry about playing in contaminated water," he said.

"I think those citizens have a legitimate concern about the watershed in the area and I think the state won't be making a gross error if they approve the permit," he said.

"The law that so easily allows a landfill, of less than one acre to be built should be changed. It is ridiculous," he said.

Local man pleads guilty to littering

A Mt. Vernon man pled guilty recently in Rockcastle District Court to two counts of criminal littering.

According to court records, Quentin Buswell, 82, was caught twice on video cameras throwing trash from his car.

Buswell was sentenced to 60 days in jail and given a $1,000 fine but.

2000 had plenty of good, bad news

By: Richard Andertin

The last six months of 2000 began with the city of Mt. Vernon beginning to collect their wage tax.

Sheds were fired at Rockcastle County High School assistant principal Barry Noble's home and the new Hwy. 421 at Big Hill, which cost $13 million was dedicated.

A local family buried their son, a member of their family who was killed in the Korean War, would finally be buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

Brodhead needs police officer

The Brodhead City Council voted Monday night to take applications for police officer through January 26.

The new council was also sworn in, which includes one new member, Larry Taylor. Taylor joins Mayor Walter Cahn and council members Curt Brown, Everett Albright and Johnny Wilcox.

etry and the county was among sixty other counties in the state sued by the Trixie Foundation, an agency that looks out for the well being of animals.

The 13-year-old baseball all-stars advanced to the state and athletes at Rockcastle County High School learned that drug testing would begin on August 1.

Mrs. Geraldine Robbins retired as librarian at the Rockcastle County Library and Kristiana Burk was hired.

A memorial was held for the late Tandy Pedigo, former plant manager at Rockcastle Manufacturing by his co-workers and The Oaks played at Renoir Valley.

August began tragically when an Orlando man, Mark Mason, was killed in an ATV accident and the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet scheduled a meeting to discuss the possibility of a new road from Hwy. 150 to the interstate at Conway.

The Rockcastle County Board of Education gave final approval to a $6.7 million building for Brodhead and members of the Mark Mason family filed suit over his burial place.

Students at Roundstone School had the highest scores on the CTBS and the annual Little World's Fair was held in Brodhead.

Calvin Rader, a well known Mt. Vernon man was killed in an auto accident on the Hwy. 461 by-pass and Western Water announced they would begin a $1.2 million water project.

A resident on the Oscar Isaacs Road made verbal threats when county workers removed a fence from the county right-of-way and the body of a Conway woman, who had been shot to death was found at Cove Branch.

A few days after police were led to the decomposed body of Patty Clark, they arrested Davy Stewart of Orlando and charged him with her murder.

So much for putting faith in a bunch of woolly worms.

As the last living member and only human among the National Association of Woolly Worm Winter Weather Watchers (NAWWWWW), I hereby concede defeat.

Without getting into a detailed comparison of the official prediction and the actual weather conditions, I think it is sufficient to say that the weather has been much colder than NAWWWW allowed it might be so far.

I don't have the energy to defend the forecast because I've spent all my running in place and rubbing my hands together to stay warm. The several hundred woolly worms who served on the NAWWWW committee that came up with the forecast in the first place all froze to death well before Christmas.

Unless the weather takes a drastic turn for the better over the next several weeks their poor souls will have no redemption.

I'm alive mostly because I found two sets of expedition grade, polypropylene, US Marine Corps, extreme cold weather long underwear at a bargain price on Ebay. This stuff costs $60.00 a set at military surplus stores but I managed to find it for $12 which is less than the asking price for thermal knit long johns at Wal-Mart.

Unfortunately, the seller only had two sets and I'd like to have about three more. Several times I've put a set of my new long handles through the washer by itself so that I could come out of the one I was wearing, at which point I change and launder it too.

That may sound like a waste of soap and water to you but I believe in cleanliness and being prepared.

The Pentagon came up with this underwear a few decades ago when some generals were sitting around talking about what they might need if they ever declared war on the Eskimos. Since it costs 60 bucks on surplus now, I figure the going price when it first came out was at least $5,000.00 a set.

It's so warm that I may break down and sell it on the asking price (far more an I've paid for anything else in my wardrobe) for at least one more set so that I can increase my laundry efficiency by 100%.

In the meantime, I check Ebay every day and I stay toasty warm in the process.

People come into my house and start hugging themselves. They want to know if my furnace is working and whether or not I feel cold. Of course, I don't let on about my underwear.

Loretta and Chris stay gone as much as they can but the fact of the matter is that I have the thermostat set on 68 and it's at least that warm in the house. If it were summer time they'd be running around in shorts and tank tops waving themselves with those little paper church fans and complaining about the heat under precisely the same indoor conditions.

If they want to appreciate just how warm it is in the house, I tell them, they ought to take a ride to Richmond and back in my truck. I've changed the thermostat in it twice and even lifted the hood a few times to make sure the air conditioner wasn't running.

If it wasn't for the Marines, I'd be frozen stiff somewhere in a parking lot because the heater in my truck blows out air with a chill factor of 40 degrees below zero. The best explanation I've had from a mechanic is that these old Chevys are cold natured.

Mine rides rough too in cold weather. I reckon I have mud and ice frozen in the springs and shocks. One morning it was even frozen to the ground and I had to pack five gallon buckets of hot water and pour around the front wheels before it'd broken loose.

I was halfway to Berea before the big clumps of dirt and gravel that were frozen to the tire came loose and it looked and felt like I was driving across railroad tracks as I went down the highway. KqWomp, KqWomp, KqWomp.

I would have been about as comfortable, if someone on a last horse had lassoed me by the heels and dragged me to work. And I would have gotten there quicker.

Junior Helton says that the blessing in all this cold weather is that the Japanese beetles will all be frozen out too so we won't have to worry about having to squash them off our bean vines come July.

I'm afraid that all the woolly worms will be gone too. There may not be a NAWWWW forecast next year because theosophies may be extinct.

Sweet and Sour

From Zi's Kitchen Recipe for a Tragic Fire and Result!

Four (just 2) cup cooking oil in 1 quart stainless steel pan, place on small burner, turn to high heat, mix with a quick trip to the mail box - about ten steps from the porch where two neighbors are also waiting for the mailman to arrive, add a good amount of frying chat with the neighbors and greeting to the mailman before returning to the kitchen and you have a heavy cloud of smoke greeting you that can be sliced, or eaten with a spoon, and flames reaching the ceiling in the kitchen that plainly tells you that the pan of oil, intended for deep frying chicken nuggets, was too hot to handle. That is what I did the morning before election day.

I did not panic and try to take care of it myself for I realized it was out of my control. But, my voice must have been in as my frantic cry of "Fire! Fire! Fire!" was heard by the fire department.

"Fire!" was heard by my neighbor before she got in her door and also another neighbor who arrived almost instantly, offering assistance.

The garden hose, lying close by, was put to use by the neighbors, soaking the walls and roof to keep the fire from spreading till the fire trucks arrived. The fifteen minutes it took for them to get there was long enough for the fire to demolish the kitchen and everything in it, including all appliances, cabinets and their contents. The firefighters handled the fire quite well by keeping it contained there. But the smoke was not that kind.

The heavy, greasy, black smoke was relentless as it sought out every nook and cranny in the house, including the closets and drawers in every piece of furniture containing them.

and everything had to be removed and sent to the cleaner. The medicine cabinet and its contents, plus all cosmetics were ruined by a greasy black film. The house has to be rewired, ceiling fans, lighting fixtures, carpets and wall paneling have to be replaced. Three broken windows have already been replaced, also the back door. Maybe I am impatient, but it seems like the work crew could work a little faster. I may not have a terminal illness but my 87-year-old me, I don't have many years left to enjoy the house being redecorated because of my forgetfulness.

It has taken me two months of living in one room at the motel, and eating alone at the restaurant daily, to realize that I feel like a prisoner, and one of my own making. I am free to come and go as I please and well cared for when it comes to a comfortable bed, warm room and a cup of coffee, along with my paper brought to my room every morning, but something is missing, the comfort of my own house and belongings. I missed the meowing of "Sweet-beans", my cat, and his snoring on my bed at bedtime. (Yesterday) I had him put to sleep after finding him hopelessly ill when we prevailed him Saturday. I miss the privilege of going to the refrigerator when I want a snack in the middle of the night. I guess it took all this to make me realize that smoke, caused by a grease fire, does more damage to one's possessions than the fire that caused it. And that one pays dearly for carelessness acts.

I am not recommending this recipe to anyone. The consequences are not worth the time it takes to turn the burner off before leaving the room.

"What 'Is' Written"

Today we want to study about Cornelius and his group being baptized in the Holy Ghost in Acts 10 & 11

In vs. 34-43 we read of Peter's speech to this group. Then something very interesting happen as Peter was speaking, notice in, Acts 10:44-45, "While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter; because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost." As with the apostles, there was no "seeking, praying, anointing, going to the altar, laying on of hands in order to get baptized in the Holy Ghost." God simply poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. Peter in Acts 11 was "called out on the carpet" about what took place with the Gentiles. Peter rehearse this matter step by step of what took place. Notice in, Acts 11:15-17, "And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning. Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost, I remember then as when the Lord gave me the gift as he did unto us; who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?" Observe that Peter calls this a baptism of the Holy Ghost. Notice also, that he has to refer to the way back to Acts 2, to find anything like it. Peter did not say, "As I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us since the beginning," as if this was an everyday occurrence. Why was Cornelius and his group baptized in the Holy Spirit? In order to prove to the Jews that the Gentiles can be Christians. Acts 11:18. Holy Spirit baptism does not take place today, he not be deceived.

Dear Editor,
To the people that dropped the puppies at the corner of 1152 and 461.
My heart goes out to anyone that is so cruel and selfish and so uncaring as to drop two little innocent bundles in the cold snowy night as you did. Do you know that those little puppies sat right where you dropped them for two days with no food or water looking for their master to return. Every car that came by they raised their little heads to see if it was you. No wonder the world is in the shape that it is. What are we teaching our children, if you can, or do not want to except your responsibility just dump it on someone else. That is a good lesson in life. I hope that you can sleep at night.

The number one most common New Year's resolution is related to having a healthier diet or losing weight. Whether you plan to lose 5 pounds or 20, there's only one way to lose weight and that's to use up more calories than you take in. This means that you must either select foods containing fewer calories than you normally eat or you must increase your activity - preferably both.

Generally, to lose one pound a week, you must either decrease calorie intake by about 500 calories a day or burn up those 500 calories by increasing physical activity. A steady loss of 1/2 to 1 pound a week is about right.

All calories count - regardless of the food they come from. BUT, some foods have more calories than others. The fat in foods and alcohol in alcoholic beverages have about twice as many calories as carbohydrates and protein.

Protein, vitamins, minerals, and some fat and carbohydrates too, are essentials of a good diet, regardless of its calorie count. The healthy approach in losing weight is to choose a variety of foods providing the nutrients needed, and to go easy on foods that supply mainly calories. Examples are sugars, sweets, fats and oils, foods that are high in sugars and fats and, of course, soft drinks and alcoholic beverages.

Be suspicious of diet gimmicks and fad diets that promise wonders. They can be dangerous. Some are appealing because they promise quick and easy weight loss. But unless a diet is balanced nutritionally - as many fad diets are not - it could be harmful if followed over a long period of time. Diets that encourage little or no eating, diets that promote heavy eating of one kind of food, and very low-calorie diets can all cause health problems.

For more information or a free publication on Maintaining a Healthy Weight, call the Extension Office at 256-2403.

If your New Year's resolution was to lose weight, which out for harmful, fat diets.

Every year an assortment of diets are circulated, among those looking to lose weight. The diets all promise quick weight loss. Many of these diets can actually undermine your health and cause physical discomfort and lead to frustration when you regain the weight back.

How do you recognize a fad diet? The American Heart Association (AHA) has declared war on fad diets. AHA suggests using the following criteria to recognize a fad diet.

*Magic or miracle foods that burn fat. Foods don't burn fat. If we eat more than we need (too many calories), the extra food energy is stored as fat.

*Bizarre quantities of only one food or type of food. All foods can be a part of a healthy diet. But eating large quantities of one food could lead to intestinal gas, bloating, flatulence and bad breath, as well as nutritional imbalances that could have a serious impact on your health. Emphasizing only one food or food type is also boring.

*Rigid menus. Some fad diets allow a very limited selection of foods, which must be eaten exactly as written and at a specific time and day. These limited diets don't allow for the taste preferences of a diverse American population.

*Specific food combinations. There is no scientific evidence that eating goods in certain sequences or combinations has any scientific or medical benefit.

*Rapid weight loss of more than two pounds a week can be dangerous over a long period of time.

*No health warning for individuals with chronic diseases such as diabetes or high blood pressure to seek medical advice before going on the diet. Some fad diets can have serious impact on your health even if you lose weight.

Tobacco Expo

By Tom Mills

The annual Tobacco Expo will be held Wednesday, January 17, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm in Heritage Hall located in downtown Lexington. This annual event includes a trade show with over 100 companies showing the latest equipment from trap weathers to harvesting aids.

Workshops will start at 10:00 am covering topics on managing tobacco diseases, Nitro-samines and the Star project, variety update, NCI-T11, as well as an update on Phase I and Phase II tobacco settlement funds.

Farmers will also be given information on the upcoming vote for continuing a quota and price support system, projections on company purchase intentions, as well as the 2001 quota allotment.

Minds in the Middle

After an extra long Christmas break, we are finally back! As of now, we have accumulated 9 snow days. Remember that this coming Monday is a holiday and school will not be in session.

Congratulations to Jackson Bray, Teddy Stallsworth, Mary Brinson, and Cody Moore. These students made the District 11 Honor Band. Remember that our band is still collecting Pepsi notes in order to receive new equipment. Please help out with this project.

Our apologies to Cody Moore and Stephanie Perez. Cody's name was accidentally left off our list of honor roll students for the 2nd grading period. Good work Cody! Stephanie Perez's name was omitted from the honor roll list not only for the 2nd grading period but also for the 1st grading period. Stephanie had straight A's last seven weeks. Congratulations!

Our school newspaper, The Rock 'n' Roll News, went on sale Wednesday. The paper is available for 25 cents.

Our 6th grade boys basketball team came away with a win last Saturday. This Saturday, they will compete against South Laurel at Southern Pulaski. Thursday evening the 7th and 8th grade teams will be playing at RCMS against Lovel Middle. Next Tuesday, they will compete at Moore Middle School. The 7th graders defeated Northern Pulaski on Monday evening.

The staff would like to thank the 8th grade Beta Club for the donut breakfast they were treated to before Christmas break.

This Friday, there will be an After School Party in the cafeteria from 3-5:00. Students who wish to stay must have a note from their parent and permission from their team.

The 21st Century, Community Learning Center activities have resumed. This Thursday evening will be Pizza & a Movie Night. Next Tuesday, January 16, is the rescheduled date for the Open House & Caffe Supper. The supper is free and available from 3-6:00. Everyone is invited to see what the students have been doing in 21st CCLC. Monday from 5-6:00 we will begin a special series on diabetes education. For more information, contact Anthony Coffey at RCMS, 256-5118. The 21st CCLC staff and students enjoyed a trip to Christmas Island at Burnside and Finley's Fun Center before Christmas break. Seventy people attended.

Our students enjoyed the annual Career Expo on December 6. Each team is selecting one group who showed outstanding participation during this event. The winning group from the Enterprises team included Megan Griffin, Aimey Bussell, Larry Lawson, David Stewart, and Luke Ott. The Adventurers team selected the group of Courtney Corider, Andrew Isaac, Megan Adenkin, Josh Bell, and Charles Lovell. Other winning groups will be announced later.

Students should be brushing up on their spelling skills. Each team is preparing to have team spelling bees. On January 29th, the winners from each team will compete in a school wide spelling bee.

Beth Guinn - Brenda Bullock's P2 Classroom

Mt. Vernon Message

Special Events: Friday, January 12 is the day for FRCLibrary Good Behavior Video Awards.

Just a Reminder: There will be no school on Monday, January 18 - Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday. Artist of the Month: This month's artist is Beth Guinn from Mrs. Brenda Bullock's P2 classroom. Her picture is "Rainbow Tree" an abstract symmetry print. Congratulations Beth!

Thoughts by Judi Conrad, Kentucky PTA President: The following are some thoughts expressed by Judi during her meetings and workshops.

I thought that they would be appropriate for all of us.

* I promise to make this school year a positive experience for all children.

* I will set a good role model example in my respect for school officials, teachers and those who mentor to children.

* I will be fair to others and reach out to make sure I am including everyone.

* I will treat all children as I would my own.

* I will work to make my school a true place of welcome.

* I will work with other schools to share.

* I will confront bigotry where I see it, butted when I hear it and exclude when I observe it.

* I will commit myself to work with those groups and partnerships who truly wish to work together and set a good example of cooperation not one of "promotion of themselves in the name of others."

* I will remember to say "please" and "thank you."

* Gracious is not found in position, power, possessions or prestige. It is found in goodness, service and character." (Author unknown) Will you join me, in setting a good example for all our children? They are watching, and they are learning from what we do and say.

Thought for the week: It's the little things we do and say that mean so much as we go our way. A kindly deed can lift a load from weary shoulders on the road. Willa Hoey

UK offers tuition break to non-resident graduate students

In order to attract more high-caliber graduate students at the national and international level, starting in the fall semester of 2001, new non-resident graduate students at the University of Kentucky who meet certain academic requirements will be able to attend UK at the much lower in-state tuition rate.

The Kentucky Graduate Scholarships will carry a value of $7,220 each academic year based on projected 2001-2002 tuition and fee levels of $1,973 per full-time semester for resident graduate students and $5,583 for non-resident students.

To be eligible for the merit scholarships, applicants must have earned a bachelor's degree with an under-graduate grade-point average of 3.25 or higher on a 4.00 scale and have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25 on any prior graduate studies.

The Graduate School must receive a completed application for admission by June 15, 2001. All non-resident applicants will be automatically considered for the award. No separate application is required, said Michael Nietzel, Graduate School dean.

The scholarship program represents a major effort by the University of Kentucky to recruit and educate graduate students of the highest caliber," said UK President Charles T. Whittington, Jr. "I am extremely pleased with this bold initiative."

"The scholarships will advance two important goals simultaneously: recruiting the world's best graduate students and encouraging them to stay in the Commonwealth and become part of Kentucky's economic growth and technological developments," Dean Nietzel added. "These scholarships should enable UK to enhance its reputation as one of the nation's leading institutions for comprehensive graduate education."

For further information, about the Kentucky Graduate Scholarships, call the Graduate School, (859)257-4613, or visit the school's Web site at http://www.rcs.uky.edu/KGS.html

Buck Creek watershed to receive EQIP

The Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS) has selected that Buck Creek Priority Area to receive Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) funding of $200,000 in fiscal year 2001. The Priority Area will encompass the length of Buck Creek with a one-half mile buffer on the main stem and a one-quarter mile buffer on all tributaries draining into Buck Creek for a total of 72,707 acres. Buck Creek is a tributary to the upper Cumberland River in the counties of Rockcastle, Pulaski and Lincoln. Landowners in Rockcastle County, within the Brushy Creek and Bee Lick Creek Watersheds may be eligible for cost share assistance to solve environmental problems on their land.

The Environmental Quality Incentives Program holds promise to be very useful in the Buck Creek watershed.

EQIP is a voluntary program to assist landowners with solving natural resource problems through financial and technical assistance. EQIP strives to buy the most environmental benefits for the dollar. Cost share assistance will be for the establishment of long-term contracts on eligible land. EQIP eligibility is limited to persons who are engaged in live, stock or agricultural production.

Under EQIP, the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) can provide cost-share assistance to land users for up to 75 percent of the costs of certain environmental protection such as grassed waterways, filter strips, manure management facilities, and wildlife habitat enhancement. USDA may also provide incentive payments to encourage producers to apply selected land management practices that are not currently in use on their total cost. Share and incentive payments are limited to $10,000 per person per year and $50,000 for the length of the contract, which can run from five to ten years. The program is limited to persons who are engaged in livestock or agriculture production. Funds will begin January 1 and the cut-off for applications receiving scoring is January 31. Applications with the most environmental benefits for program costs will receive the highest consideration for funding.

For more information contact Randall Templeman, District Conservationist at 256-2525 ext. 3 or visit the USDA Service Center located on Hwy. 150, Mt. Vernon.

January is Birth Defects Prevention Month

January is Birth Defects Prevention Month. Birth defects are the leading cause of death in children less than one year of age. Each week in Kentucky seven babies under the age of one die. Most of these deaths are due to birth defects. Kentucky leads the nation in infant deaths due to birth defects.

Not all, but many birth defects can be prevented. Early and consistent prenatal care, as well as, good nutrition contribute to a healthy pregnancy outcome. Tobacco, drug, and alcohol use do not. Fetal Alcohol Syndrome is 100% preventable.

Recent research indicates that one kind of birth defect, spinal bifida, can be prevented by taking a simple vitamin. The U.S. Public Health Service recommends that all women of child bearing age take 400 micrograms of folic acid everyday. The local health department can provide folic acid at no cost to most women. Call, Rockcastle Health Department at 256-2242 to see if you need and qualify to receive folic acid.

Lewis and Sherry Cox would like to announce the birth of their newest family member, Sheridan Grace Cox. She was born December 26, 2000. She weighed in at 7 lbs. and 10 oz. with lots of dark brown hair. Sharing in the joy are big sister Allyson Washburn and grandparents Bud and Shirley Cox and Donna and Paul Campbell. We are blessed to have her and we love her very much.

Lordy Lordy - Look Who's 40!

We know someone who has a birthday January 10th! Happy Birthday, Love - Your Family

Hi, my name is Dorothy Corinne Seals. I was born September 18, 2000 at the UK Hospital in Lexington. I weighed 6 lbs. 7 1/2 ozs and was 19 1/2 inches long. I am a gift from God, the answer to my parent's prayers. My proud parents are Maggie and Larry Seals. My maternal grandparents are Charlie and Evelyn Tuttle of Richmond. My paternal grandparents are the late Matt and Dorothy Seals of Conway. I was named after both my grandmothers.

Allison Washburn received a very special gift for her 8th birthday on December 26th. She became a big sister! Her baby sister, Sheridan Grace Cox, was born December 26th to share her birthday. Allison later celebrated with family and friends. She is a wonderful big sister and an even better daughter. Happy Birthday Allison. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Rockets beat Clay 65-60

For only the second time since a Rockcastle County boys' basketball team first stepped on the floor in the fall of 1972, has a team defeated the Clay County Tigers.

That second win came Friday night at Clay County when the Rockets came away with a 65-60 win in overtime.

By all accounts it was a big upset over Clay County, a team that had beaten the Rockets by almost 40 points earlier in the season.

It was the second straight year a Rocket team had gone into Manchester and pulled off the upset.

Friday night the Rockets used a full court press and a 2-3 zone defense to try to shut down Clay County's inside game, which had crippled them in the earlier match.

It obviously worked. But as in the case for most teams, who go in Manchester, the game was extremely physical and not without controversy.

With 18 seconds to go in the game the Rockets found themselves ahead one point and with the ball, after they forced a Clay County turnover on the press.

Clay County pressure prevented Aaron Anderkin from finding an open man on the inbound play, but he and the Rocket coaching staff began trying to call time-out as the referee counted to three.

Inside of giving the Rockets the ball, the referee stopped his count at four and gave the ball to Clay County.

Clay setup a play and scored with about ten seconds to go in the game to put them up by a point.

Rockcastle rebounded the ball to Aaron Cash who found Anderkin on the wing. Anderkin hit a three pointer with 6.2 seconds to go in the game and the Rockets had a two point lead.

But the referees put 7 seconds on the clock and as the horn sounded a Clay County player hit a two point basket and the game went into overtime.

Rockcastle took the lead in overtime and never looked back.

"I'm proud of the way our kids played Friday night," head coach Clayton Cash said.

"We played extremely hard and didn't quit like we did against them at home," he said. "Even when we got behind we didn't panic; it was a good win for us," he said.

Rockcastle hit 23 of 32 free throw attempts and had 17 rebounds as a team.

Senior Jeremy Neeley had an excellent offensive game leading the Rockets with 26 points. Neeley hit 13 of 17 free throw attempts. He was two for four from the field and three for eleven from three point range. Neeley had four rebounds.

Anderkin had 16 points, hitting five of eleven attempts from three point and he was one for two from the foul line. He had four rebounds and three steals.

Center Josh Rowland had seven points. He was three for four from the foul line and he pulled down two rebounds and he had three steals.

Cash had six points, nine assists and three steals.

Andrew Hammond, who got in early foul trouble and eventually came out, had four points, two rebounds and two steals.

Thomas Coffey, who played an extremely good defensive game had four points and a team high five rebounds. He was perfect from the field and the free throw line. Stephen Boring had two points on two for two shooting from the foul line.

Only seven Rockets saw action on Friday night.

This Rocket team has now won seven games, which is more than some observers thought they would.

Friday night's win also keeps the Rockets in the hunt for a number one seed in the district tournament, which will be held in Jackson County, beginning February 28.

The Rockets who have already beaten Jackson County will play the Generals again on February 2, in McKee.

The Rockets travelled to Southwestern on Tuesday night, only to come away with a disappointing 63-55 loss. The Rockets are now 7-4 on the season.

The Rocket big man, Andrew Hammond and Josh Rowland kept the Rockets in the game the first quarter, as Rowland put up six of the eleven points in the first quarter. Aaron Cash hit a three for good measure.

Southwestern had the hot hand, however, hitting three 3's to go up 13-11 at the end of the first.

Rockcastle went into the locker room with the one point, 25-24 advantage at halftime, but several turnovers in the third saw the Rockets lead slip away at the end of the first. The Warriors retook the lead 41-39.

Rowland and Hammond again stepped up in the third, contributing 6 and 5 respectively, with Aaron Anderkin adding a three.

The highlight of the game for the Rockets came in the third when senior Jeremy Neeley executed the perfect alley-oop pass to Hammond for the dunk and the play of the game.

Southwestern was too much from behind the arch however, hitting ten 3's on the night, and putting the Rockets into the final minutes, outscoring the Rockets 12-0 for the 61-55 win.

Thomas Coffey and Aaron Anderkin apply the pressure Friday night in the Rockets full court press, which helped them to defeat Clay County by five points in overtime. It was only the second time that a RCHS boys' varsity team has defeated Clay County. Anderkin had 16 and Coffey added 4.

Senior Josh Rowland returned from an ankle injury Friday night to help lead the Rockets to a 65-60 win in overtime.

Ashley Mink puts the defense on a Clay County player Friday night. The Lady Rockets defeated Madison Central on Monday night.

Beat Madison Central 57-50 Lady Rockets lose return match with Clay County 58-46

After beating the Clay County Tigers by four in their first match-up of the season, the Rockets lost to the Tigers at Clay County last Friday night, 58-46.

It was a lackluster performance for the Rockets as they hit only five field goals the first half and 13 for the game.

The first goal of the ball game was made by senior Rachelie Hammond and that was the only lead the Rockets would enjoy in the game. Following Hammond's bucket, the Tigers scored 10 straight points before the Rockets could get their offense going and come back to tie the score at 12 all at the end of the first period.

However, the second quarter belonged to the Tigers who scored 12 points while the Rockets managed only five free throws on offense and went to the dressing room at halftime down 24-17.

The margin stayed the same during the third period, although the Rockets started up their offense, getting six baskets and going 5 for 6 from the free throw line for the 41-34 third quarter score.

In the fourth quarter, the Tigers got only two baskets but put in 13 free throws while the Rockets could only manage 8 points for the final 57-46.

Hammond led her team in scoring with 17. Amber Falin got 10; Jessie Rickles 6; Ashley Mink, who came off the bench to turn in a solid rebounding game for the Rockets, scored 5 and Amber Denney, Ashley Lawson, Jessie Hayes and Johanna Abney each scored 2 points.

Monday night, the Lady Indians from Madison Central visited and the Rockets got to up their season record to 10-5 with their 57-58 win.

The game was close through the first half with senior Amber Falin keeping her team in the action with five baskets and two free throws to give the Rockets a 31-27 edge at the half.

In the third quarter, the Rockets went up 44-32 for their longest lead of the game but the Indians put on a 16-8 run to pull within four late in the fourth at 58-48. However, three free throws by Mink and Falin and a basket by Hammond secured the win for the Rockets.

Hammond again led the scoring for the Rockets with 15; Falin was close behind with 14; Rickles had 8; Mink scored 7; Denney 6; Amy Barnett 4 and Jessie Hayes 3.

Jayvee Win
In the Jayvee game against Madison Central, the Rockets took an early lead and never relinquished it, winning 43-20.

Jessie Hayes and Bryanna Russell tied for scoring honors in the game with 10 each. Tara Rowe got 5; Amy Barnett and Jessica Carpenter 4 each; Johanna Abney and Krystal Parsons 3 each and Allison Anderkin and Stephanie Price, 2 apiece.

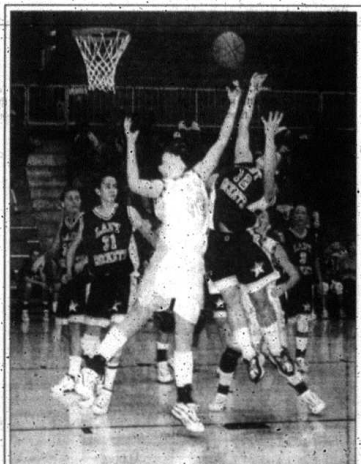

Freshmen Split Two Games
The Rocket freshmen traveled to South Laurel Saturday and came away with 10 each. Tara Rowe got 5; Amy Barnett and Jessica Carpenter 4 each; Johanna Abney and Krystal Parsons 3 each and Allison Anderkin and Stephanie Price, 2 apiece.

The Rockets trailed 13-7 at the end of the first quarter and 18-16 at the half. They went ahead 20-18 on a goal and two free throws from Abney early in the third period but that was the only offense the Rockets could muster in the quarter and Laurel was ahead 25-20 at the third quarter stop.

Besides Abney's 23, Anderkin got 4 points and Katie Parsons 1.

Tuesday night, the freshmen played hosted to Lincoln County and easily defeated the Patriots 34-25.

The scoring was a little more balanced for the Rockets in this game with Abney leading the way with 11 points; Anderkin got 8; Stephanie Price 5; Anna Guilford 4 and Katie Parsons, Krystal Parsons and Tara Rowe, 2 each.

Amber Falin fights for a rebound in the Lady Rockets loss to Clay County on Friday night.

Jessie Rickles drives around a Madison Central player on Monday night. The Lady Rockets won 57-50. Rickles had nine points.

Kentucky's first Elk hunt

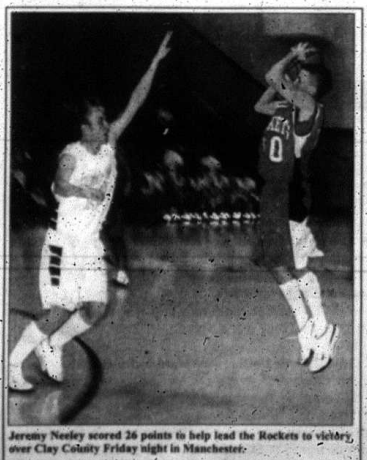

U.S. President Zachary Taylor ate many cherries and milk on a cherry July day and died nine days later. New Mexico and California were the newest states in the Union. Many Irish were moving to the United States as a result of the potato famine and the gold fields in California pulled many across the prairies and mountains to chase their dreams of wealth.

The year was 1850, the last time elk were in Kentucky. But, because of the efforts of the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources (KDFWR) and the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, the first year in the new millennium will once again bring elk hunting back to the Bluegrass State.

The dates for these historic quota hunts will be Oct. 6-12, 2001 for bull elk and Dec. 1-7, 2001, for cow elk. There will be six bull elk and six cow elk permits issued for these limited hunts. The hunts will take place on the Addington Enterprises Wildlife Management Area near Hazard. Interested hunters may apply for Kentucky's first elk hunt until May 31, 2001 wherever hunting and fishing licenses are sold. Hunters may also apply on the Internet at www.kdfwr.state.ky.us. A person must provide either their social security number or driver's license number to apply. Hunters may also apply once for a non-refundable fee of $10. Applicants must hold a 2001 Kentucky hunting license at the time of the drawing to be eligible. Non-residents may also apply.

Upon request, those who apply will receive a commemorative elk patch signifying participation in the first elk hunt. To request your patch, submit a self-addressed stamped envelope to KDFWR, #1 Game Farm Road, Frankfort, KY 40601. Please include a photocopy of your elk application permit or your driver's license number or your social security number, with your request.

Jeremy Neeley scored 26 points to help lead the Rockets to victory over Clay County Friday night in Manchester.

In Loving Memory

In Loving Memory of Julia Pearl Bullock, on her 1st Birthday in Heaven
Safety Home
I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Tread the valley of the shade? Oh, but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me

In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadow, Pray to trust our Father's will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remains; You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come! Psalm 116.
We love you & miss you deeply

State at fault over landfill

Richard Anderkin
Editor
Mount Vernon Signal

First of all let me apologizing for the inaccurate statement in last week's newspaper concerning the location of a proposed landfill in the county.

The proposed site is in Little Clear Creek at the Madison-Rockcastle County line and not at Clear Creek as I stated.

There were a lot of people at Tuesday's Rockcastle County Fiscal Court to voice their opposition to the landfill.

As I sat and listened to their concerns and comments, I realized just how important an issue this is for those people.

They all had legitimate concerns and they made those concerns known as they should have.

But as I listened - I also thought about the other side of the issue. David McFarland is a business man, apparently a pretty good one and he is attempting to make his business run smoother and more profitably.

From all indications, he has gone through all of the right steps and in no way has attempted to hide his intentions.

He said this week that he would show the site to whomever was interested and explain what he could in detail about the proposed landfill.

He also pointed out that the site was on his own property only a short distance from his home and the site of his brother's future home.

From my conversations with him, I don't think he would do anything to harm his own living environment - after all he is going to be living closer to the site than anyone else.

So don't the mad at Mr. McFarland - be mad at the state of Kentucky for making it so easy to obtain a permit for this type of landfill.

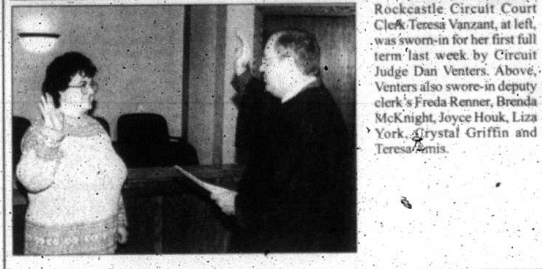

It is just another case where the state hasn't done a very good job of coming up with regulations to protect landowners and the environment.

Like the county attorney said - it is ridiculous that it is apparently so easy to meet the guidelines for such a landfill.

The judge was brutally honest and correct Tuesday when he said that even if the state was supposed to monitor the things that are dumped in the landfill, the state probably wouldn't do it correctly.

There may be nothing citizens can do to stop this landfill from being built and you can't blame David McFarland for looking out for his best interests.

But you can get hold of your state representative and state senator and ask them to consider some type of legislation that will make it more difficult in the future to obtain such permits.

Rockcastle Circuit Court Clerk Teresa Vanzant, at left, was sworn-in for her first full term last week by Circuit Judge Dan Venters. Above, Venters also swore-in deputy clerk's Freda Renner, Brenda McKnight, Joyce Houk, Liza York, Crystal Griffin and Teresa Amis.

"Recap"

Richard Lovell, of Burr, a man a federal judge described as the head of cocaine smuggling ring in Rockcastle County pled guilty and received ten years in federal prison.

Rockcastle County leaders learned they had been turned down for a state program that would have made several improvements in the county and the Bank of Mt. Vernon celebrated their 100th birthday.

In October the state released the final route of the new Hwy. 150 and all five county schools received awards for their good test scores.

Former Brodhead Mayor Billy Russell died and Warren Rosenthal received the Everett C. Brown award for community service.

The Bittersweet Festival was held in Mt. Vernon and Citizens Bank held an open house at their new location on Hwy. 150.

Halcomb East Road residents learned they would get city water and Billy Hitt was named outstanding business person of the year by the Mt. Vernon Lions Club.

The Rockcastle County Rockets completed a perfect 10-0 regular season, something that had never been done at RCHS and the RCHS Cross Country team advanced to the state.

In November, Debra Lambert was the first Rockcastle resident ever elected Circuit Judge and Ryan Riddle was released of his duties as baseball coach at RCHS.

The Bank of Mt. Vernon was sold to Community Trust and eighth grade girls' basketball team at RCMS completed a perfect three year run with another conference championship.

Integrity Mold and Die held an open house at their new location in the Rockcastle Industrial Park and the Rockets made it to the final four teams in Class AAA in football, when they won their first ever regional title.

Benton Bullock was indicted for allegedly knowingly buying stolen tobacco and the RCHS JROTC rifle won the state championship again.

Governor Paul Patton visited the county and David Lovell pled guilty to the murder of Charles "Toddy" Baker.

Ten free flowering trees

Ten free flowering trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during January 2001.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The ten trees are two white flowering Dogwoods, two flowering Crabapples, two flowering Pears, two Washington Hawthorns and two American Redbuds.

These compact trees were selected for planting in large or small spaces. John Rosenow, the Foundation's president, said, "They will give your home the beauty of lovely pink, white and yellow flowers - and also provide winter berries and nesting sites for songbirds."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between February 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's bimonthly publication, Arbor Day and The Tree Book, with information about tree planting and care.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 contribution to TEN FREE FLOWERING TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by January 31, 2001.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between February 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Holiday credit card bills will shock many

"The gifts are open. The parties are ending. The decorations are being put away. Now comes the reality of facing the bills for all of the guilty pleasures from your holiday shopping trips," said Steve Rhode, president and co-founder of Myvesta.org, a nonprofit financial services organization. To help people deal with their money troubles, Myvesta.org is offering a free publication called Avoiding Post-Holiday Headaches.

"Many holiday shoppers will be shocked when they open their credit card statements in the next few weeks," Rhode said. "January is one of our busiest months because holiday overspending pushes people into debt problems." A Myvesta.org survey found that the average holiday shopper planned to spend $1,220 on holiday gifts. The free publication coaches people to take control of their spending and track expenses so they can find enough extra money to pay off their bills in six months. "The most important thing," Rhode added, "is to pay more than just the minimum payment due on your credit card bill. If people pay just the minimum on their holiday debts, their total cost skyrockets." By making minimum payments on $1,220 at 18 percent interest, it will take 22 years to pay off and interest payments will top $2,500.

"Make 2001 the year to break free and rise above the superficial 'stuff' that drains wallets and keeps you in a perpetual cycle of debt," Rhode said. Read and download copies of the free publications at Myvesta.org.

"Council"

Mayor King told them that at the present time the city could not find the needed funds - but they were still looking.

Both men suggested that the city take the interstate into the city limits, which they said would free up federal funds for both the police and fire departments.

Councilman Gene Cromer asked how much money the city had taken in from their payroll tax, since it was implemented in April.

Neither Mayor King or City Clerk Kaye Rader could answer his question.

The council for 2001 and 2002 is comprised of Joe Mullins, Jackie Renner, Clarice Kirby, Lonetta Daugherty, Wayne Bullock and Gene Cromer. Cromer is in his first term as a council member. The other five have served previously. Jackie Renner was selected as vice-mayor for the coming two years.

LAKE CUMBERLAND REGIONAL HOSPITAL

Heartbeat of Our Community

A Report to the Community

January 2000

Dear Community Member:

Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital is a vibrant organization that is and will continue to have a lasting, positive effect on our community. Over the past year, we have made tremendous advances in patient care and a significant economic impact on the region.

We wanted to share our progress with you.

Lake Cumberland is dedicated to five key principles, which are listed below in bold. And we have made great strides in featuring these objectives during the past 12 months. This includes:

Quality care for all-Lake Cumberland has provided over $3,417,239 in charity care this year. We have not and will not turn away critical cases because of an inability to pay. In addition, we offer senior screenings, health fairs, prenatal classes and other preventative programs for free or at reduced rates to help care for themselves and the ones they love before a serious illness occurs.

Treatment for the Whole Person-I am continually impressed by the commitment of the hospital staff, physicians and volunteers to patient care. We support their efforts by providing advanced facilities and medical equipment, which enables these talented professionals to better service patients.

The level of technology and equipment used at Lake Cumberland rivals that of most "big city" hospitals. In fact, this year we replaced our hospital-based MRI with a new 1.5 tesla magnet MRI, which is one of only 9 in the U.S. This new machine produces clearer images upon which our medical staff can base their diagnosis.

Since January 2000, we have also added a new offsite outpatient Imaging Center with open MRI and CT services and replaced our Cath Lab with new state-of-the-art equipment. Each of these purchases was made to enhance the level of care we provide to patients. In addition to the acquisition of new equipment, we have renovated the Pain Clinic and added a new pediatric Unit to help the youngest among us.

Consideration for Employees-Lake Cumberland is the second largest employer in Pulaski County, with nearly 1,000 people on staff. Included in this report is a measure of our financial impact on the area and a list of groups for whom employees and physicians volunteer to make your community a better place. A special thanks to our wonderful employee volunteers who spent over 9,300 hours at Lake Cumberland last year providing comfort to those in need.

Partnership with Physicians - Our hospital, and every patient we serve, is extremely fortunate to have over 160 gifted physicians working to improve the quality of life of our community. To support their efforts, we recently completed construction of the Lake Cumberland Medical Arts Building. This 4-story, 53,000 sq. ft. structure provides offices for 21 physicians. It also includes After Hours Care Center, business offices, a laboratory, diagnostic imaging equipment and an Occupational Health Services area. Soon we will be breaking ground for a new $4 million Ambulatory Surgical Center adjacent to the hospital.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

$71,537,897

The Powerful, Multiplying Effect of Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital.

The total economic impact of Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital on this community is over $70 million annually. Let us show you how.

The economic impact of any business can be difficult to measure. Economists and business planners commonly use "multipliers" to define the total effect a company has on a community. A multiplier is used to determine the extended impact each dollar spent by one organization has on other businesses in the area.

For instance, employees, from Lake Cumberland spend the majority of their wages at local companies. A portion of each dollar they use at a nearby small business is then again spent by that firm on materials, supplies, and services from other area establishments. Obviously, some of that dollar is saved, paid in taxes or spent outside the community. The continued impact of this dollar, which is not infinite, is calculated using a multiplier.

Multipliers are typically set between 1.0 and 3.0. We used a multiplier of 2.19567510 to help us better define the "total economic impact" of Lake Cumberland on this community:

|--|---------------------|
| Expenditures by hospital employees in our community | $13,138,042 |
| Purchases by hospital visitors in the local community | $ 5,781,200 |
| Purchases of local goods and services by Lake Cumberland | $ 1,466,606 |
| Direct impact | $22,385,848 |
| Times the multiplier | X 2.19567510 |
| Sub total ("multiplier effect") | $49,152,049 |
| Plus the original direct impact (from 3 lines above) | + $22,385,848 |

TOTAL ECONOMIC IMPACT OF LAKE CUMBERLAND $71,537,897

Charitable Contributions - $373,025

Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital made $373,025 in charitable contributions over the past year. Organizations that received support include:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| American Cancer Society | March of Dimes |
| American Heart Association | National Multiple Sclerosis Society |
| Arthritis Foundation | Society |
| Bethany House | National Youth Leader |
| Blakley Family YMCA | Somerset Community College |
| Dicks Unlimited | United Way of South Central |
| Kentucky Baptist Homes for Children | Kentucky |
| Lake Cumberland Runners | Lake Cumberland Performing Arts |

Lake Cumberland also annually awards a $10,000 scholarship to baby born in our hospital.

Community Involvement

Lake Cumberland and its dedicated employees host dozens of events and spend thousands of volunteer hours helping to make our community a better place to live. Below are a number of non-profit organizations, events or programs that this hospital supports:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| Alzheimer's Awareness Day | Hospice |
| Chaplain | Housecalls |
| Community Wellness Conferences | Operation Cooperation |
| Dine with the Docs | Fairish Nurse Program |
| Drive-By Flu Shoot | Senior Friends |
| End-of-Life Task Force | Somerset-Pulaski County Chamber of Commerce |
| Free Health Fairs | Educational Partnership Program |
| Gear Up Program | Volunteers |
| Health Career Explorers | Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital Volunteers |
| Health Ministries | Women's Health Forum |
| Healthy Holiday Foods | |

We also continue to recruit new physicians to expand the services we offer to the region. In the past 24 months, we have added 30 physicians to our staff, including the following specialties: Psychiatry, OB/GYN, Family Practice, Pediatrics, Internal Medicine, Orthopedics, Cardiology, Gastroenterology, Pain Management, Radiology, Pulmonology, Urology, Anesthesiology, Oral Surgery, Allergy, and Infectious Disease.

Long Term Community Focus - This report identifies many of the organizations whom we are proud to have supported over the past year. In addition, Lake Cumberland was a primary sponsor with a $1 million commitment to the development of the Blakley YMCA, where we operate a Sports Medicine & Wellness center.

Each of these efforts has been made to enhance our service to you and our community.

We appreciate your support of our work to improve the quality of life of our community. I look forward to another year of growth and good health for the people in the communities we serve.

Sincerely,

Jon C. O'Shaughnessy,
President & CEO
Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital

Local Tax Benefits

Non-profit hospitals typically do not pay property and some other local and state taxes. Last year alone, Lake Cumberland paid $3,087,770 in non-income taxes to state and local governments. These funds support our schools, police and fire departments, infrastructure improvements and many other services provided by city, county and state government.

NOTICE OF SALE

Pursuant to a judgment and order of sale entered in this action on December 8, 2000, for the purpose of satisfying the judgment against the defendants in the amount of SEVENTY ONE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED EIGHTY FIVE DOLLARS AND 85/100 ($71,285.85), including interest, costs and attorney fees, I will offer at public auction the hereinafter described real property in Rockcastle County, Kentucky.

At the Courthouse on East Main Street Mt. Vernon, Kentucky
On Friday, January 12, 2001
Beginning at the Hour of 2:00 p.m.

Said property being more particularly bounded and described as follows:

A certain tract of land in the Lake Lilly section of Rockcastle County, Kentucky, more particularly described as follows:

Unless stated otherwise, any monument referred to herein as a "bearing with call" is set 1/2" edge with 1/2" call; easement BLS #2773; all bearings are referred by bearing of record (in 1845/50) as shown in the Harry Sagaves Deed as recorded in Deed Book 142, page 236, and lodged in the Rockcastle County Court Clerk's office.

Beginning at a found iron pin on the North side of Barrett Road and being a corner to Harry Sagaves, Jr. (DB 142 pg. 236); thence going with the North side of said road the following calls: S 82°04'17" W 73.79 feet to a found pin; S 89°36'21" W 88.00 feet to a rebar with call on the North side of said road and a corner to Marvin Carpenter (remaining portion of DB 239 pg. 34); thence going with a new line to Carpenter (line N 21°16'51" W 256.63 feet to a rebar with call in the line of Glen Roberts (DB 130 pg. 163) and a corner to Carpenter; thence going with the line of Roberts N 55°13'35" E 144.47 feet to a found iron pin in the line of Roberts and a corner to Harry Sagaves, Jr.; thence going with the line of Sagaves S 1°45'57" E 328.38 feet to the point of beginning according to survey by C. Douglas Mullins, RLS #2773, with Charles Mullins Land Survey on September 2, 1998.

Being the same real property which Teresa R. Hasty obtained by deed dated October 2, 1998, executed by Marilyn Carpenter, et al., of record in Deed Book 172, page 160 in the Office of the Rockcastle County Clerk.

The property shall be sold on the following terms and conditions:

1. The real property shall be sold for cash or upon a credit of thirty (30) days with the purchaser required to pay a minimum of twenty-five percent (25%) of the purchase price in cash on the date of sale and to secure the balance with a bond approved by the Master Commissioner.
2. The bond shall bear interest at the rate of 7.25% per annum until paid in full. The bond shall have the force and effect of a judgment and shall be and remain a lien upon the property sold as additional security for the payment of the purchase price.
3. Unpaid taxes or liens of record at the time of entry of judgment shall be paid out of the proceeds of sale.
4. The purchaser shall pay all the taxes assessed against said property for the year 2001 and all subsequent years.
5. The purchaser shall have possession of the real property upon compliance with the terms of the sale.
6. In the event that the plaintiff is the successful bidder and the sale price does not exceed the amount of the plaintiff's judgment, no deposit or bond shall be required.
7. The sale shall be made subject to all easements, set back lines, restrictions or covenants of record or otherwise and shall be sold as is.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Carl D. and Ann Seas celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on December 29, 2000. They were surprised with a party given at the Folk Center in Berea by their family. They have six children, three sons-in-law, two daughters-in-law, 11 grandchildren, four great grandchildren and one great grandchild on the way. They also have one grandson-in-law and one granddaughter-in-law.

Their wedding cake was made by Helen Minor of Louisville. The decorations were supplied by Helen Minor of Louisville and Morgan's Discount of Berea. They would like to thank everyone for the nice gifts and for taking time out to attend their party.

Their daughter Donna and husband Dean Cromer celebrated their 23rd anniversary also on December 29th. They have one son, Justin.

Happy Anniversary Howell!

Being married to you has made all my dreams come true. I think God every day that I have you to spend the rest of my life with. I love you with all my heart, forever and always.

Love you wife,
Linda VanWinkle

In and Around Willailla

By Carol Martin

Thieves have been making their rounds here in this community again. But thanks to the community watch we hope to put it to an end. Our thoughts are with the young couples who are new to this community who were hit hard by the thieves.

Mrs. Berthena VanHook spent some time on Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Sally Brown. They later had supper with Harold and Carol Ann VanHook at Ruddy.

Paul Pumphery remains ill at his home and is unable to attend church. Our thoughts are with him.

Glen Eklér is also still confined to his home. Please remember him also.

Richard Andrew (Drew) Martin celebrated his second birthday on December 23rd at his home in Mareburg with lots of aunts, uncles and cousins attending. Drew is the son of Dickie and Merita Martin and grandson of Mrs. Martha McHargue and Brownie and Carol Martin.

Sympathy is extended to Lowell, Sue, Tommy and Billy Acton and Nancy and Brian Hargis in the death of their mother and grandmother, Mrs.

Ethel Acton of Bandy. Nancy and Brian Hargis are the new owners of Willailla Grocery. Nancy and her mother, Sue are very good cooks and have wonderful hot lunches daily. Also their pizzas are the best around.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Dovie Cummins who lost her mother, Mrs. Maude Owens in December. Mrs. Cummins is also confined to her home most of the time.

Marick (Bro.) Smith and wife, Edith spent the weekend here with Edith's sister, Thelma Brown.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Mary Jane Randolph have been Hertha and Irene Whitaker of Somerset and Viola Miller. Also Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor and son, Trenton and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Keith of Shelbyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson and grandsons, Grant and Chase spent New Year's in Advance, Indiana visiting Mrs. Irene Brown and Mrs. Gerry Owens.

Mrs. Marie Goff has had several gatherings over the holidays for her family.

Five Generations

Wedding Announcement

Mrs. Regina McGuire would like to announce the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Celeste McGuire to John Edwards.

The wedding will take place at the Conway Tabernacle Church of God located on Hwy. 25N at 2 p.m. on Sunday, January 14th. All friends and family are invited to attend.

Fairview News

By Mrs. Hubert Chastean

Greetings to all you wonderful readers.

I have'n written for some time, and some folks don't forget to tell me about it. They really miss the "Fairview News." And I really hate to disappoint them.

Well, we are now into the year of 2001. Many good and bad things happened in the year 2000, but I hope everyone has a great year this time. Regardless of who you are or where you are I wish you the very best of God's blessings.

We still have Bro. Albert E. Griffin as our Interim Pastor. He and his wife are a blessing to us. We love them very much.

Our Sunday School attendance January 7th was 153 but only 75 the previous Sunday. We have a large crowd for worship service, and a good attendance for the Lord's Supper of Sunday night.

Our community has been saddened recently in the deaths of Edgar Anderson, Lufer Mullins and Mrs. Edith Mullins. It is always so hard to give up a loved one, but the good Lord is always there to help us in times of sorrow. They were all good people and will be greatly missed. May God comfort the families that are left behind.

Everyone seemed to have a good Christmas. We saw all our children and most of our grandchildren and great grandchildren during the Holidays. Hubert and I had Christmas dinner with our son, Junior and family in Berea.

Christmas-dinner guests of Mrs. Hallie Alexander were her son, Gerald Alexander and family of Mareburg and her daughter, Jewell and family of Little Clear Creek. Other guests were Chris Kirby and Jason Rawlings. Hubert and I visited Mrs. Myrtle Adams in the Berea Hospital Sunday morning.

Mrs. Hallie Alexander and daughter, Jewell Davidson visited Mrs. Lala Alexander recently.

Visiting Hallie during the past few days were Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lamb. Try to attend church every time you can. And be good to one another. God bless you all. Try to have more news next time.

Did you pile up a lot of high interest credit card bills over Christmas?
