Somerset man arrested after Friday wreck

By: Richard Anderkin
A Somerset man faces four felonies and two class A misdemeanors after a Friday afternoon wreck that sent four people to the hospital.

According to Kentucky State Trooper Tommy Cromer, William Adkins, 33, of Providence Road, Somerset, caused a three vehicle accident around 4 p.m. Friday, when he lost control of his Mazda Protege on the Hwy. 461 bypass near McDonald's Restaurant as he traveled north toward I-75.

Cromer said Adkins crossed the center line and then the fast lane of the south bound lanes of the bypass, clipping a Dodge pickup driven by a Berea man and then going sideways into a van driven by a Somerset woman.

The van and Adkins' vehicle both came to rest next to the guard rail after the impact and Adkins and his son and step son had to be extricated from the vehicle by rescue workers.

The trooper said he charged Adkins with two counts of first

Eubank man arrested for stalking near PJ's Day Care

Last Saturday, Rockcastle Deputy Sheriff Ronnie Bradley, Jr., arrested a Pulaski County man on an arrest warrant from Rockcastle District Court.

Jackie D. Fletcher, 51, a white male, was charged with first degree stalking and lodged in the Rockcastle County Detention Center, according to Sheriff Mike Peters.

According to the arrest citation, Fletcher is accused of stalking a high school student near P.J.'s Day Care Center on Freedom School Road, in Mt.

According to a criminal complaint filed by Deputy Sheriff John Guilfoil, he and other investigators have seen Fletcher blowing kisses at the student and trying to get her into his car.

Arrested on Saturday Brodhead Police officer resigns after eight months

After only eight months on the job, Brodhead police officer John Bellamy has resigned.

City Clerk Becky Bussell said Bellamy's last day on the job was last Tuesday.

Bellamy, who has served as police officer for the city since December 29th of last year, was the subject of a 90 minute closed session of the council on August 6th, after which he was told that he must work night shifts. Mayor Walter Cash said Monday that councilman Larry Taylor had also taken over the police chief's schedule.

Bussell said Bellamy's letter of resignation stated he was taking a job as a police officer with a private company in Iraq, but Bussell said she thought he was relocating his family to somewhere in Georgia.

Rockcastle Memories

By David J. Griffin

Okay, I admit it. I was a thief – but dad-gum-it, it was fun.

As teenagers, we just didn't consider stealing watermelons a crime; we just thought of it as a silly prank. It takes looking back on the adventure from a considerable distance to realize that it was actually a crime – one for which we could have been seriously punished.

The night I am referring to occurred when I was sixteen years old and had just begun to drive. Several of my friends and I were sitting on the side of the street in Mt. Vernon when we noticed a large semi hauling a load of watermelons down Richmond Street toward Renfro Valley. (Remember, there was no interstate at this time.)

Someone said, "Why don't we head off the truck on Greenfish Hill!" So, we did. We piled into my car and raced toward Renfro Valley to beat the truck to the mile-long hill on the other side of the valley.

We gathered speed to the top of the hill and parked. The guys and I jumped out of the car and ran back down the hill to hide in a ditch beside the road. Our plan was to meet the truck filled with the melons before it reached the half-way point up the rise.

When it did, a couple of guys jumped onto the back of the trailer and began to toss off watermelons to those of us running on the road behind the truck. We carefully laid them on the side of the road and came back for more.

Keep in mind that the truck probably contained several hundred melons, and we only took what we could put in the trunk of my '58 Chevy. The total number of melons most likely numbered a dozen or less.

As soon as we thought we had enough, the guys jumped back onto the highway, and we watched the semi creep on to the top of the hill toward Berea. We immediately hiked to my car and drove back down the hill to retrieve our "bounty." We carefully filled my trunk and headed back to Mt. Vernon to show our prizes to our friends (and girlfriends) waiting on Main Street.

Someone suggested that we share our wealth with any teenager in town that night. In order to do so, we went into the Dinner Bell Restaurant and borrowed a large knife to slice the melons. Before long, teens up and down the street were consuming the ripe, sweet melons and were coming back for more.

In our minds, we were heroes because we shared our prize with anyone who wanted a sample. We laughed for days afterward as we remembered

Points East

By Ike Adams

I am looking for someone with either an incredible memory or lots of time on their hands to help me track down the lyrics of a couple of songs that I can't find on the internet.

I have found reasonable fac-similes of a couple but I can't find anything that comes close to the versions that my Mom used to sing to my brothers, cousins and me.

The first one is called Pretty Polly. I know a verse or two but the entire song contains many. I'm guessing that Mom knew about fifteen. Knoxville Girl was also one of her favorites and it must have contained at least 25 verses. Another old favorite was called Preacher and the Bear and Mom's version went on for a spell.

It's easy enough to find some of the lyrics because all three songs were recorded by one or more musicians for radio and phonograph play but they were all three so long that it was impossible to get all the words on one record. The artists sort of selected their favorite high-lights and sung until they ran out of space.

When Mom did her renditions it was more like story time at the library than what one might call a "singing".

There are two reasons as to why I am so interested in finding the entire songs. The first one has to do with my grandsons, two of whom will actually sit and listen to me play guitar and the third one, who will be two in September, already has the potential to be a guitar player. I'd simply like to pass along some heritage to the kids if I can sneak around and sing to them.

Neither of their Moms will take kindly to them being exposed to the stories of violence documented in Pretty Polly and Knoxville Girl but so far nobody in my family has killed anybody and the old songs don't seem to have had any negative effects on the adults we grew up to be.

The second reason I want these lyrics is to exercise my brain. I want to see if I can memorize all three songs and be able to sing them without looking at the words on paper.

When Mom used to sing we were at least as impressed with her ability to remember all the words as we were with her musical ability.

She had also committed many poems to memory and to this day she is the only person I have ever known who could recite Longfellow's epic Song of Hiawatha in its entirety. Her pronunciation of some of the Native American language may not have been accurate but I don't recall anyone ever challenging her on it.

I will, however, be content to get through the three songs I've mentioned here if someone knows where I can find all the original lyrics and I'm not talking about Teddy and Doyle Wilburn's version of Knoxville Girl, which is scarcely more than a preview of the real thing.

And I just thought of another one. There's also a much longer version of Tennessee Stud than anybody has ever taken the time to record on any audio device with which I am familiar. I've heard Doc Watson's rendition but I know he left out several verses that Mom knew.

Anyway, I have been advised that working on memorization is a good way to stave off Alzheimer's which I can't pronounce and refer to as "old timers disease." I can't think of a more enjoyable way to do this than relearning some of the old songs that my Mom used to sing.

Snail mail me the lyrics, or email them, or send me a link if you know about one on the internet and I will try real hard to remember who sent them to me.

T.J.'s Journal

by: Tonya J. Cook

Dear Journal:

I'm sitting here in deafening silence of the Laurel County Public Library. Stanley and I had a day off together, so we've not had to adhere to any rigid schedules. We love such days. They give us a chance to sleep in, and a day to play the role of couch potatoes, if we so choose.

We stayed up late last night, far past our bedtime. We started watching TV Land, which had been running Elvis footage all month. It was to commemorate thirty years since his passing on August the sixteenth, in 1977. About 8:00 PM, came on a film called "Elvis on Tour." We never got to see Elvis on tour, but this was very close to the real thing. Of course, I had seen it before. Mom and I had gone to the movies to see it in the late '70s.

About the closest to Elvis I ever got was several years ago when I toured Graceland, his home, and stood at the foot of his grave. I remember it was awfully hard to be inconspicuous carrying a shovel. "Ask me no questions, and I'll tell you no lies."

I remember the day that Elvis died. I've always hoped that it was just a publicity stunt, or a cruel joke. Some say that he is still alive today, but in seclusion. I will have to admit, that out of the historical homes and places of interest that I've visited, Graceland is the only

Kentucky Summit on Children in Louisville

By Joseph E. Lambert, Chief Justice of Kentucky Opinion Piece Submitted

The waning days of August will find more than 500 professionals convening in Louisville to discuss one of the most pressing issues facing Kentucky today: how Kentucky courts can improve services to our children.

From Aug. 27-29, the first Kentucky Summit on Children - the largest-ever gathering of its kind in Kentucky - will bring together judges, attorneys, legislators, guardians ad litem, child welfare officials, court system personnel, and foster parents and children to shine a light on decision-making for children in the child welfare system and before our courts.

The numbers are extraordinary. Each year in the United States, 3 million reports of abuse or neglect are made to child protective services, with 900,000 of those becoming substantiated cases. There are 520,000 children in the foster care system nationwide and in Kentucky approximately 6,300 children are in the custody of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services because of dependency, neglect or abuse. In addition, children from minority groups are twice as likely to be in the child welfare system and they experience both longer stays in out-of-home care and more frequent moves within the system. In addition, last year alone, habitual truancy cases were the number

The Unauthorized (but surprisingly common) Practice of Law

Issues relating to the impersonation of attorneys, or the rendering of legal services by non-lawyers, is becoming increasingly common-place. According to Mary Kay Lieberman of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America ("ATLA"): "[p]rior to the last few decades, the unauthorized practice of law was not the issue that it has become today." The reason for this increase in the unlawful practice of law can be attributed to various factors.

Judge David Tapp

First, the Internet is becoming an increasingly common source that people use to seek legal advice. Competent legal professionals provide some of that advice, but some is provided by imposters and charlatans. Many web-sites now offer "self-help" forms and instructions for dealing with issues such as wills, divorces, patents, and corporations, which traditionally required the services of a lawyer. Whether these web-sites are engaged in the unauthorized practice of law without a license is largely determined by the nature of the services they provide. In many states, simply offering blank legal forms for sale which the purchaser must decipher and complete is considered legitimate. However, where a company advises the purchaser on how to complete the forms, or provides strategy for dealing with a particular case, that company may cross a legal boundary.

A second source of unauthorized practice complaints is related to services provided by paralegals. There are many paralegals competing for relatively few jobs, especially in rural communities, because paralegal study programs are now commonplace. Thus, while paralegals' responsibilities used to be restricted to organizing documents and performing other administrative tasks, they are increasingly tasked with dealing directly with clients. ATLA describes this as "pushing the paralegal envelope." When paralegals cross the line into providing advice to clients, or acting without attorney supervision, as some self-employed paralegals do, then an unauthorized practice of law scenario may exist. Some independent paralegal firms have been successfully sued by state bar associa-

We are one of only a few available experienced providers in this area, performing Ear Stapling for weight loss, smoking, migraines, stress, and tension.

Ear stapling has been around for over 20 years and has fast become one of the most sought after methods to stop smoking and lose weight. Ear stapling is a form of Acupuncture that originates from Chinese medicine.

The staples will last approximately 2-3 months. We have clients reporting losing as much as 60+ pounds in that time period. The staple we place for weight loss targets two reflex points in the ear that work together to reduce your overall appetite, sugar cravings, desire to snack between meals, and give you an abundant craving and thirst for water, and also helps to relieve stress, tension and migraines.

The ear staple we place for aid in stop smoking targets a different ear reflex point, which greatly reduces your cravings, and makes you reject the smell and taste of cigarette smoke. Results are immediate, and are seen within the first 24-48 hours!

In memory of Joseph Sparks Daddy's Birthday

Has it been a year, going on two When the angel of God came after you

We knew the day was coming That you would go on ahead We had been given the report - we knew what they said

Yet, still we were not ready When you took your final flight

Though the sun shone brightly Grief turned that day into night.

But we knew that you loved us And if you could talk to us today

You would tell us about Jesus You would tell us to Pray

So, I'm trying to follow the example you set

I'm following Jesus - I'm not home yet.

Just know that I'm heading to Heaven someday

But I miss you, Daddy. Happy Birthday.

BVFD thanks Rockcastle citizens...

Dear Editor,
The Brodhead Volunteer Fire Department would like to THANK the citizens of Rockcastle county and surrounding areas for making the Little World's Fair successful for the second year in a row. We hope everyone has enjoyed all the attractions and events seen at the fair this past year and we look forward to preparing the fair for next year. The money raised during the fair will be used to purchase firefighting equipment and update our station.

The Brodhead Volunteer Fire Department would also like to thank some local businesses who gave money, time, and/or equipment to the fair. These businesses include Citizens Bank, Brodhead Pharmacy, Collins Respiratory Care, Brodhead Farm Equipment, People's Bank, Mark Souder, Woodall's Towing, Johnny Watkins Chrysler Center, Terry Harris Construction, Newland Construction, and Ford Brothers Auctioneers and Realtors. Without your support the Little World's Fair would not have been possible.

Thank you for our new gym....

Dear Rockcastle County Board of Education,

As a student at Roundstone Elementary, I would like to thank you very much for our new gym. I like it a lot and it's bigger, better and cooler than every before. My little sister said thank you too. Our school wants you to come visit any time you want.

I hope you will be this generous the next time the school has a problem. Thanks for the picture of the Eagle in the lunch room and the big letters on the gym floor.

Thank you again,

Thank you for our new gym....

Dear Board of Education,

Hi, my name is Natasha Nicole Cottrell. I'm a 5th grade student at Roundstone Elementary. I love the new gym you built us. At first, we had very little room to run and play in but now we have as much space as we need. So, thank you for building the gym.

One thing I am thankful for is that we have more space in the new gym. Also, if you trip, it doesn't hurt as badly as the old gymnasium.

The supply room has more space for the equipment. Also, since it's not the lunchroom and the gymnasium, we have enough time for morning activities like exercise.

Once again, thank you for building our gymnasium.

Sincerely,
Natasha Cottrell

Renfro Valley will continue with or without restaurant tax...

Dear Editor,

We are writing to you in reference to the City Council's first reading of the three percent restaurant tax that was reported on the front page of last week's Mount Vernon Signal. We take objection to the statement that Renfro Valley Entertainment Center and the Kentucky Music Hall of Fame and Museum will cease to exist if more money is not generated for the Mt. Vernon/Rockcastle Tourism Commission to do more marketing and advertising, through the passing of a three percent restaurant tax.

While we appreciate the Tourist Commissions efforts for generating more revenue and their concern for our economic well being, the information presented was based on speculation and not the facts.

We are very proud of our facilities, musical heritage and our community. We welcome visitors from all over the country and plan to be open and operating for many years to come.

Respectfully,

Cars everywhere when school is out...

Dear Editor,

Hello to all the Good people in our county out there that reads our great paper. I really appreciate the job the Signal staff does to bring a great paper together. As for the rest of you hello as well. Take time out to read the paper to those less fortunate that cannot, God Bless them.

Well, I have another story for you.
Has anyone been around close to a school about the time the students are being released. Take the elementary schools for instance, Brodhead and Mt. Vernon. People, parents, everyone, are parked in and blocking one or both lanes of the streets and sometimes in the middle of the road, on the sidewalks and usually all of the above. Most of the time you'll find them there at 2:00 - 2:30 blocking the road and causing a traffic hazard.

I've been caught in all this and you have no choice but to drive around and face on coming traffic, and if those two aren't bad enough go to highway 461 by the high school at this same time. People are lined up in the emergency lane on this major highway. This is as bad as welfare check day at the post office. This is so dangerous that words can't describe.

I counted 3 or 4 posted No Parking state highway signs where these people are parked. This is a violation of state safety laws and a traffic hazard. The streets at the elementary school are bad enough, but a state highway. We all can expect the city police not doing their jobs, by not writing tickets, but surely the D.O.T. or state police should do their job. A violation is a violation. People must realize how dangerous this is. We pay high school taxes so the board can use our money to pave school parking lots and driveways and people still park on the roads and highways. Very uncalled for. I went all 13 school years to school and graduated. My people never parked in the middle of the highway. I even have a stepson to graduate and never once did I park in those places. There are no excuses. You are breaking the law and are in violation period.

So, don't waste your time responding to my story, you are guilty as sin. There is no reason or excuse for this, none, unless these are the unfortunate people that my heart goes out to that can't read and write or maybe this is like the situation with our court system where these people are related to the police, or these are their buddies perhaps parked illegally. This may be the reason this is so called "overlooked". This is where the buddy system comes into play.

Unfortunately, one of these days something tragic is going to happen if this isn't stopped. There is too much traffic for this. If you don't believe me look back at all the fatalities in this 1 mile stretch. I bet if I parked one of my vehicles where these people park either at Brodhead, Mt. Vernon or Highway 461 or anywhere my vehicle would be towed away and called a traffic hazard. Maybe Frankfort should know about the 461 deal. These others are local streets and buddy system ruled. Just think of all the big fines and court costs that could be collected from these tickets and all the hard working people at the courthouse could get a hefty raise, or take the money and build their relatives another big house.

the prank that we had concocted.

One of my teachers got wind of the theft, and she reminded me of how disappointed my mother would be if she heard about the crime. That got me to thinking!

If my mother (Bee) had actually found out what we had done, she would have skinned me alive. And I am sure that she would have locked up my car for a month or longer. Bee would never have understood the fun of stealing anything. Remember this is the woman who read the Bible from cover to cover many, many times.

Because Mt. Vernon was such a small town and everyone knew everyone else, I sweated for several weeks hoping that no adult would hear of my crime and tell Bee. I was lucky. As it turned out, she never did find out about my "dastardly deed," and I was so relieved.

Some might wonder why I have not included the names of my co-conspirators. To be perfectly honest, I don't remember. If you were with me on that fateful night, please drop me a note or e-mail and "fess up!"

By the way, I still love watermelons.

tions and forced to disband.

Finally, it seems that some people who lack the most basic legal education, knowledge, and ethics, are providing traditional legal services. These cases run the gamut from the helpful neighbor, to the unscrupulous debt collector, to the outright criminal.

In a recent South Carolina case, a court found that an insurance agent who assisted her friend by drafting a will and power of attorney using pre-printed legal forms from a commercial source was practicing law without a license. In 1967, a Kentucky court determined that similar conduct warranted the imposition of a fine because of the danger posed to society.

In Kentucky, notaries public have been charged with the unauthorized practice of law for preparing deeds. Persons acting as private investigators have also been found guilty of unlawful practice where they rendered legal advice in personal injury cases and divorces. And in a 1967 case originating in Somerset, a man who typed a contract for the sale of land between a buyer and seller was found guilty of contempt for the unauthorized practice of law.

It is also common for suspended or disbarred lawyers to continue to perform legal work under the guise of a paralegal or law clerk. According to the American Bar Association, one defrocked Colorado lawyer was hired back by his former associates following disbarment and was actually supervising his old firm. Such unethical conduct, by both the disbarred lawyer and those who assisted him in perpetuating his fraud, is particularly egregious and may invite criminal punishment.

In some cases, criminal punishment is the only appropriate sanction. Earlier this year, the Cook County Sheriff's Office arrested a Chicago man who had been impersonating an attorney for over a year, representing clients in criminal court and at administrative hearings. Imposters sometimes pose as attorneys to get into jails to visit clients and sometimes pose as state or federal prosecutors. In these instances, the offender faces far more severe consequences than being held in contempt.

Where an issue involves legal knowledge or advice, only a licensed attorney in good standing with the state bar can lawfully assist. Anyone else who endeavors to do so, however well-intentioned, may be engaging in the unauthorized practice of law.

one that seems like a home that is yet being occupied. I suppose that spiritualists would reason that Elvis had such a strong spirit or presence that a part of that still remains.

It's hard to believe that thirty years have passed since that fateful August day. I don't think that Elvis has lost much of his popularity; if anything, he has gained in popularity, becoming as big in death as he was in life, and is now an icon. He has made forty million dollars or more every year since his death. Almost everyone can tell you where they were and what they were doing when they learned of his death, and about half of the US population has dreamed of Elvis at one time or the other, according to reports.

After "Elvis on Tour" was over, the first and last episodes of M*A*S*H played. Being the M*A*S*H fans that we are, we started watching it, and didn't know when to stop. The finale concluded about two-thirty AM, and we finally got to bed.

Naturally, we slept in until about eight-thirty. That killed any early morning plans that we had. So the entire day wouldn't be a total loss, we did some chores about the house. It needed all the help that it could get.

Our house is in a horrible mess, and has been for the last couple of years, or longer. We've been going through a constant paint, paper, carpet, and redecorating that requires everything that we have to be pulled out of place, and set in some oddball place in the house. We are doing the work ourselves, so it has taken quite a while. We're just working in our spare time, and you know how rare that is.

That brings us to the present. As I said, we're here at the library, "gallivanting." I'm glad that I did come along. I started to stay at home and rest or work...or maybe some of each.

The first thing I noticed when coming through the door of the library was a flier about William Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew." It is to be presented here at the library in September by the Cincinnati Shakespeare Company. I was so pleased, I was ready to shout. It is my favorite Shakespearean play.

I've gotten two flower arranging books to take home. I love to arrange flowers as a hobby, and other than that I'm responsible for the floral arrangements at my church every other week. I was in need of some new ideas.

I'm sitting at a table in the reference book section. I could sit here until tomorrow and browse through some of the books that I see. There are volumes of encyclopedias about art, music, and antiques to my right; and to my left, there are encyclopedias about poems, plays, operas, and literary masterpieces. All of these are some of my very favorite subjects. So much good reading, and so little time.

OK. I've stood it for as long as I can. Books, here I come. I wonder when they close.

one status offense for juveniles in Kentucky, with more than 6,500 truancy cases processed in our court system.

The Summit on Children will feature national and local speakers who will address critical topics such as overcoming barriers to justice for children; best practices for ensuring safety, permanency and well-being for children; understanding the parameters of the courts; at-risk juveniles and the juvenile justice system; combating truancy; and developing regional action plans. After the Summit is over, regional meetings will be held throughout Kentucky to provide the opportunity for follow-up in local communities.

I directed the Administrative Office of the Courts to convene the Kentucky Summit on Children as the result of a challenge issued by Chief Judge Judith S. Kaye of New York, who hosted a national Summit on Children in New York City in March. She encouraged chief justices and child welfare experts to discuss how court systems across our nation can be made accountable in providing services to families and children.

"You will have an opportunity to jump-start those partnerships in meetings of your state delegations here - to identify initiatives to take back home and implement, to forge collaborations across systems and across states, to define your measures of success and map out how to reach them," said Chief Judge Kaye in her opening remarks.

"We seek justice for children in the broadest sense," she added, "not just by processing or adjudicating their cases, but by assisting them in solving their problems so that they leave our courthouses and our child welfare systems far better off than when they entered. We call this 'problem-solving justice' and justice, as you know, is a joint enterprise."

The need to continually improve Kentucky courts and our child welfare system is a joint enterprise indeed and I appreciate the support of our state and national partners in hosting this important event. We have received support from the American Bar Association, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services, the Center for School Safety, the Citizen Foster Care Review Boards, the Department of Education, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the Division of Mental Health and Substance Abuse, the Juvenile Justice Advisory Board, the Kentucky Alliance for Drug Endangered Children, the Kentucky Bar Association and Kentucky Bar Foundation, Kentucky Child Now!, the Louisville Bar Association, the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Operation UNITE and Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky. I especially want to thank the Kentucky Adoption Blue Ribbon Panel for bringing important child welfare issues to the forefront.

To these partners, I express my sincere gratitude.

The Kentucky Summit on Children will shine a light on the vulnerable, hurting children behind the cold statistics. We intend to identify the strengths and weaknesses of our current system and continue our endeavor to provide a bright and promising future to the children who need us most.

Roundstone Missionary Baptist began in 1940

Article Submitted
 Sunday was homecoming for the Roundstone Missionary Baptist Church, which first began meeting in early 1940 at the Hayes Grove School.

Mr. Greenfish and Molly Parker felt the burden for a church to be built in the Roundstone area. After a period of time, there were many people attending and they moved to the woods across from the present day church and met in "Brush Arbor Fashion."

Dewey and Flora Bullen donated the land for the church to be built and the deed was written by Stella Jones.

Dewey Bullen and Molly Parker along with some youth, canvassed the area to solicit funds for the building of the church. Work progressed on construction of the church as funds became available.

The first service in the building was in April of 1942.

Renold Gill and Bert Thacker, who was a member until his death in November of 2005, measured for the foundation and several men of the community helped pour it.

Alonzo McCollum, who is a member today, and his father, Rolly McCollum, George Parsons and Cecil Linville were the carpenters who built the building.

Until 1948, the church met with on a sub-floor. During this time hardwood was difficult to obtain, but was found by Coleman Burdette in 18 inch long by 1 1/2 inch strips. This building flooring was laid by the men in the evenings after a hard day's work. Memories of the pot bellied stove still linger for many.

The present church furniture was purchased in 1973. The Baptistry was added in the early 1980s. Until this time baptismal services were held in Roundstone Creek.

Robert Abney, father of the late Mary McCollum, donated additional land and a playground was built for the children in 2000.

After much prayer, work began on a new fellowship hall in 2003 with completion in 2004. The note burning ceremony was held October 30, 2005.

The congregation met in this building until earlier this year and, in December of last year after much prayer and a step of faith, a unanimous decision was made to reconstruct the church which had suffered many years of structural damage.

We are so blessed to have had so many members helping to see that things run smoothly during this process that required the services being held in the new Fellowship Hall for over three months. We are all so proud to have been a part of this.

On May 6th of this year, service was held in the newly-renovated building. A dedication service was held on May 20th for the new sanctuary.

After 30+ years, a new piano was purchased and arrived last Friday. The piano was used for the first time on Sunday during homecoming services.

The Church has been honored with the leadership of several pastors thru the years. The first pastor being Bro. Bill Hinchman and the present pastor, since April 2005, Bro. Rick Reynolds.

The first deacons of the church were Noah Cox and Dewey Bullen. Present deacons are Alonzo McCollum and David Thacker.

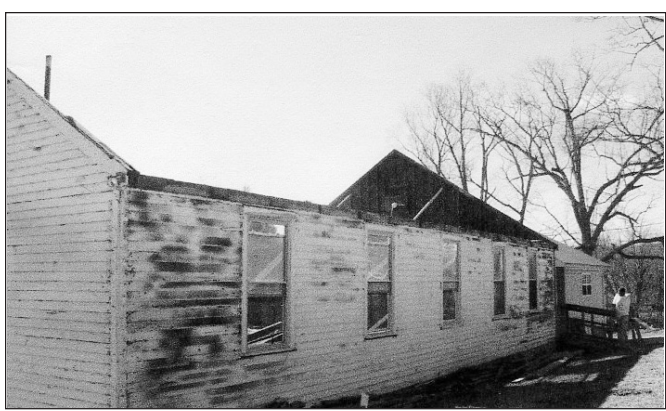

Jimmy Thacker, Noah Cox and Dewey Bullen were the first trustees. Present trustees are Randall Conley, Alonzo McCollum, Merle Taylor, David Thacker, Vester Maples, Eddie Wilson and Bill Shelton.

Many of the early leaders of the Church were Mr. and Mrs.

Leonard Reese, Mr. and Mrs. John Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Sexton, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Thacker, Mr. and Mrs.

(Cont. to A8)

In December of 2006 church members voted to reconstruct the original church building after many years of structural damage.

Roundstone Missionary Baptist Church recently underwent a $75,000 renovation project, which completely remodeled the original structure built in the early 1940's. (Roundstone Baptist Church photos by Richard Anderkin).

Bro. Rick Reynolds has been at Roundstone Missionary Baptist Church since April of 2005.

What Is Written

The term pastor is a misunderstood Bible term, let's examine from Acts 20 who are the pastors. In Acts 20:17 we read, "And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church." Notice Paul called for the elders of the church, and in verse 18 it says they came. Now as Paul spoke to these men, look at what he said to them, "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." Acts 20:28. Notice, he said these elders were overseers, which is a word translated sometimes bishops. So when we talk about elders we are talking about bishops. Then notice in this text he says the elders or bishops are "to feed" or as the NAS translates the word, "to shepherd" the church. This comes from the word "poimen" which is translated shepherd or pastor. So the elders are the pastors or bishops. The pastors are the elders or the bishops. These terms apply to the same office or function in the N.T. church. The qualifications of the pastors or bishops or elders are found in 1 Tim.3:1-7, Tit.1:5-9. And also notice there are to be a plurality of pastors or elders in each local church or congregation, cf.Ac14:23.

Rockets win 2007 season opener 35-21

By: Richard Anderkin
 Maybe it was tradition, maybe it was condition, but whatever the reason, the Rockcastle Rockets proved once again on Friday night why they are considered one of the top football programs in the state.
 The Rockets took a somewhat inexperienced team to the Ray Correll Bowl and came away with a 35-21 victory over the Southwestern Warriors. "I am very proud of the way our young team played on Friday night, especially after falling behind," head coach Tom Larkey said.

 After the Rockets fumbled the opening kick-off, Southwestern scored after only two minutes and twenty seconds had ticked off the clock. "We could have folded our tent right there but our senior leadership, and the determination of our team to stay in the game, was a good sign of things to come. I think our players grew up a lot on Friday night and they certainly proved they play older than they are," Larkey said.

 "Southwestern's players were dropping like flies in the second half but our players toughed it out," he added.
 After falling behind 7-0, the Rockets cut the lead to 7-6, on a 12 yard run by junior Casey Hayes with only ten seconds left in the first period.

on a 42 yard touchdown pass to give the Rockets their first lead of the game at 18-14. The Rockets then moved their lead out to 21-14 when Bishop kicked a 32 yard field goal with 3:14 left in the first half.

But the Warriors were not finished scoring in the first

Junior Casey Hayes, #22, is shown fighting for yardage against Southwestern on Friday night. Hayes had a great game, scoring four touchdowns in the Rocket's 35-21 win.

Senior Abe Kirby is shown running the opening kick off back against Southwestern on Friday night, which he would fumble. The Warriors recovered but Kirby made up for his mistake later in the half by recovering an onside kick which led to a Rockcastle touchdown.

Rocket student manager, Jessica Cummins helped Rocket Shawn McHone after he left the field Friday night with leg cramps. The heat caused several Rockets to temporarily miss action because of cramps. Also in the photo is student manager Cody DeBoard and volunteer asst. coach, Burley Burkhart.

But in the second period, the Warriors scored again, this time on a 70 yard touchdown pass to move their lead to 14-6.
 The Rockets came back two minutes later to score on another run by Hayes to trail by only two 14-12.
 And, after senior Abe Kirby recovered an onside kick, quarterback Dustin Bishop found receiver Tanner Perkins

Sophomore Dustin Bishop, #3, got his first start as a varsity quarterback on Friday night at Somerset against Southwestern. Bishop was 6 for 10 through the air for 79 yards and he threw one touchdown. Shown going in motion is #14 Zack Burkhart who caught one pass in the game for five yards. The Rockets won their season opener, 35 to 21.

half. With 1:51 remaining, the Warriors scored on another pass, this time a 50 yard completion to tie the game at 21 going into half-time. Neither team could get much going in the third period, with both of them suffering leg cramps because of the extreme heat, but in the fourth quarter it was all Rockcastle. The Rockets used a smothering defense and ball control offense to grind out two touchdowns.

Bishop found Perkins for the two extra points on the last touchdown to round out the scoring for the game. Offensively, the Rockets racked up 408 total yards. The Splendors of the Mediterranean Seven from Rockcastle visit Italy and Greece

Imagine walking through the cobblestone streets of Italy, riding through Venice on a gondolier boat, or discovering the ancient ruins in Greece. Seven people from Rockcastle didn't have to imagine it because they experienced it first hand. Les Scalf, art teacher at Rockcastle County High School, led a group of six others recently on a two week exciting educational adventure throughout Italy and Greece. Others who attend were Vicki Whiteley, Chelsea Whiteley, Zac Pensol, Catelyn Williams, Connie Williams, and Brandon Edester. Brandon added this advice to future travelers, "Try to pack light and bring only what you need. Also, bring an European adaptor".

The group started their journey in Venice where they entered by boats and explored the artistic and romantic city. This city flourished in salt trade and was built on wooden poles which petrified in the ocean salt water to provide a foundation for the buildings and homes. Once they ventured out from St. Mark's Square, the group seen why Venice is famous for its glassware when viewing a glass blowing exhibit and visiting other fine craftsman such as painters and mask makers. Whether strolling across one of many fantastic bridges or looking down endless beautiful waterways, the true spirit of Casanova could be felt. The difference in the value of currency was obvious too. Connie Williams mentioned, "the value of the euro over the American currency makes me curious as to what the U.S. can do to strengthen the American dollar".

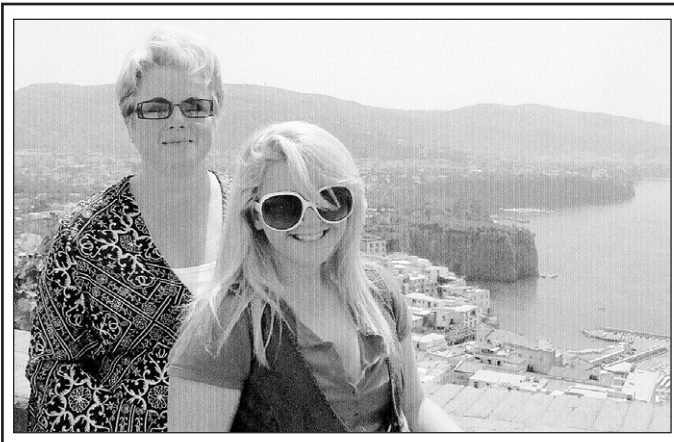

The next stop was in the wonderful city of Florence known to be the birthplace of Italian language and Renaissance art. "Immediately I felt the influence of the powerful and wealthy Medici family", said Mr. Scalf, who adds, "It is evident in both the art and the architecture located throughout the city". The group viewed the magnificent art collection located inside the Uffizi Palace. Other sites included the Gates of Paradise, the Duomo Cathedral, Santa Croce, along with many others. "I noticed with the internet, clothing styles are also becoming more similar throughout countries", added Vicki Whiteley.

Once on the road again traveling south thru Italy, the party made a brief stop in the town of Assisi and continued onto the city of Rome. Assisi is one of those quaint towns filled with Medieval basilicas such as St. Francis and St. Clare, and many craftsman still continue the artistic painting style of Giotto influenced by his left over frescoes. Once in Rome, the group entered the Vatican City to view elaborate galleries filled with one artistic masterpiece after another leading you to the Sistine Chapel. Michelangelo painted the Sistine Chapel with religious themed images between 1508 to 1512. From there, under the watchful eye of the brightly dressed Swiss Guard, it was onto St. Peter's Basilica erected on the site where the saint was martyred. Other things the group did while in Rome was tour the Trevi Fountain, the Colosseum, the Roman Forum, the Pantheon, and ate tasty gelato ice cream.

From there the party continued to the Bay of Naples, to the town of Sorrento to view the long lost uncovered city of Pompeii. The city of Pompeii was covered when the nearby Volcano Mount Vesuvius erupted in 79 A.D. Plaster was poured into some of the cavities where bodies were uncovered to reveal expressions and gestures of the people's last moments of life.

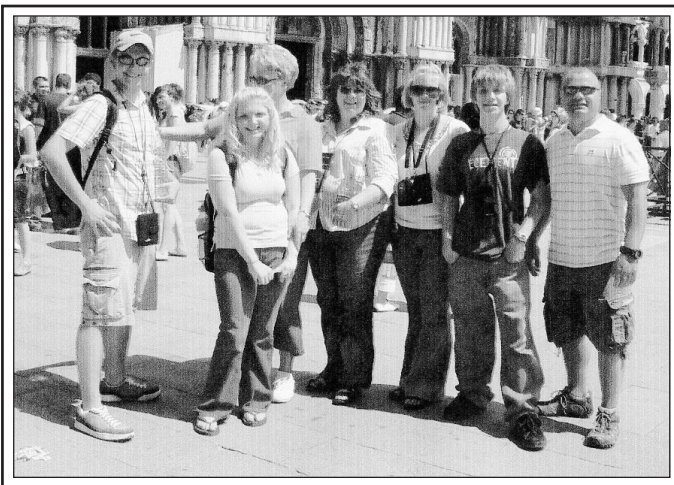

The group then boarded a boat to sail across the Aegean Sea to enter into Greece. While in Greece stops were made in Delphi, Epidaurus, Mycenae, and Athens. The group walked these Ancient archeological sites to connect with ancient early Greek civilizations and understand what events, culture, and daily life they led. The party toured the Hot Gates (famous from the movie 300), magnificently preserved open air theaters, and the temple of Athena (the Parthenon) located in Acropolis. While in Athens, they were entertained at a Greek evening ceremony which consisted of traditional dance and foods. The group then boarded their flight from Athens and flew safely back to the States.

Rabies vaccination clinics scheduled

The Rockcastle County Health Department, along with Dr. James Chism, DVM, are sponsoring rabies vaccination clinics for dogs and cats.

The first clinic will be held Tuesday, September 11 at the Rockcastle County Health Department. The other clinic will be on Thursday, September 13 at the Brodhead Fire Department. Both clinics will be open from 4 to 6 p.m. and the cost will be $7 per vaccination.

All animals must be on a leash or other appropriate restraint. Dog and cat owners are encouraged to bring pets to have them vaccinated for the first time or to receive a booster vaccination.

Dogs, cats and ferrets, at least four months of age, are required to be vaccinated against rabies, which is usually spread by wild animals such as skunks, foxes, raccoons and bats. Any mammal can get rabies, including dogs, cats, horses, cows and humans. Animals that are not mammals, such as birds, snakes and fish, do not get rabies.

Rabies is caused by a virus and is spread by contact with the saliva of an animal with the disease. Symptoms of rabies in animals may include a change in behavior, sickness, inability to eat and swallow, increased drooling or salivation or aggression. Wild animals may appear to be tame or sick. Some rabid animals appear to be normal, especially in the early stages of the disease. There is no cure or treatment for rabies. Death will usually occur within ten days of symptoms.

A person should avoid contact with stray or wild animals. Stray cats and dogs may not have been vaccinated against rabies. Report stray animals to an Animal Control official. In Rockcastle County, contact the animal shelter at 256-1833.

If an animal bites a person, wash the wound with soap and water for at least five minutes. Then seek medical assistance for additional treatment and report the animal bite to the local health department. Officials from the health department will quarantine the animal for ten days or order the animal to be tested for rabies. If the animal that has bitten someone cannot be found, then the victim is referred to a medical doctor. The physician will then determine if the victim should be treated to prevent rabies.

The first line of defense to prevent rabies is to have your pets vaccinated. If your dog or cat needs a rabies vaccination, bring your pet to one of the clinics. If you cannot attend one of the clinics, contact a veterinarian for an appointment.

For more information, contact Clara Patton, Sr. Environmentalist, at the Rockcastle County Health Department, 256-2242 ext. 129.

ASPI is working for healthy land and sustainable communities in Kentucky and Central Appalachia.

ASPI's Andy McDonald, Coordinator of the Kentucky Solar Partnership, stated "While ASPI has long advocated for renewable energy and conservation as a means to protect the environment and public health, this grant will help us highlight another major benefit of these clean energy options - job creation and economic development. As society comes to grips with the implications of climate change and the great need to shift away from fossil fuels, there is much concern about the economic consequences of this transition. What many overlook is the fact that an enormous work force will be needed to transform our buildings, transportation, and energy infrastructure. The economic opportunities inherent in this moment are enormous.

One of the strengths of the sustainable energy movement is that it brings multiple benefits to society. We are grateful that with the support of the USDA we will be able to focus on another of the critical benefits associated with renewable energy and efficiency, its economic and job creation potential."

ASPI's local office is in Mt. Vernon and they have state office in Frankfort.

ASPI also operates a research center on a 110 acre complex on the Rockcastle River.

It is easy to see that people enjoy the Somermite Cruise. In spite of the heat, more than 600 cars and countless numbers of people crowded downtown Somerset on Saturday, August 25 for the monthly cruise. Chevrolets were featured but many other models were also on display. Bethany House was there with a booth and information about domestic violence.

J.C. Penney and Bethany House gave away a $150 J.C. Penney gift card. The drawing was won by Angela Mitchell of Burnside. She is shown receiving the gift card from Bob Brown, Bethany House Executive Director.

Bethany House thanks Somerset Printing and Sign Company and Midge Rimer for help with the booth. John and Claudia Gillette of Thriftee Varietee Store loaned the tent and balloon for the event. [Visit the Bethany House Boutique at John and Claudia's store across from Reno's on South Highway 27. Items sold at the Boutique benefit Bethany House programs and services.]

Bethany House Abuse Shelter was at Somermite to proclaim the message that "Violence against Women Must Stop." Is violence against women a problem in Kentucky? Definitely. In Kentucky a woman is beaten every 9 seconds. (Men are also assaulted but not as often as women. In domestic violence situations, the woman is the victim 95% of the time.)

Nationally, one in three women will be a victim of sexual assault, rape, domestic violence and/or stalking in her lifetime. Violence against women is not only costly for the victims, but also costs employers $4.1 billion in health care expenses each year.

At least 29,000 acts of rape and sexual assault occur in the workplace each year. Women who have been raped or sexually assaulted report diminished work functioning, sometimes for up to eight months after the attack. In 2002, 66% of corporate leaders identified domestic violence as a major social issue. (Statistics are from the Kentucky Domestic Violence Association.)

The children who live in violent homes are deeply affected by the violence. Last year Bethany House sheltered 135 of these innocent victims. Adult victims of violence are also emotionally and physically damaged by the violence. Last year Bethany House sheltered 267 adult victims of domestic violence.

Bethany House serves the ten counties of the Lake Cumberland Area Development District: Adair, Casey, Clinton, Cumberland, Green, McCreary, Pulaski, Russell, Taylor and Wayne. A court advocate from Bethany House attends court in each of these counties to talk with women and men who have been victims of domestic violence. This is the first time that many of these victims have heard that there is a place where they can go for help.

Bethany House provides safe shelter, food, clothing, transportation, case management services, referrals to community agencies, and individual and group counseling for victims. There is never any fee for services provided by Bethany House.

Thanks to Somermite Cruise and all those who visited the Bethany House booth. Thanks especially to the woman who told me her story of spending sixteen years in a violent relationship. She and women like her are the reason that Bethany House exists.

"Probation"

in September of 2005 on 25 counts involving multiple counts of rape, sodomy and sex abuse against two minor female victims.

Spoonamore was sentenced to a 10 year probated sentence as a result of a plea deal to testify against Bretz. Bretz was ultimately sentenced to 15 years of which he will have to serve at least 13.

Spoonamore was required to complete sex offender treatment and, at the hearing on Friday, the Commonwealth put forth evidence that she had been terminated from the program for failing to attend.

It was also pointed out that Spoonamore had failed a drug test and been convicted of shoplifting while on probation.

During the sentencing hearing, Bartley told the court that the acts in the indictment were particularly heinous and the only reason he reluctantly recommended probation was that Spoonamore's testimony was necessary to convict Bretz.

Bretz was sentenced in July of last year, after pleading guilty to five counts of first degree rape by forcible compulsion, eight counts of first degree sexual abuse, two counts of first degree sodomy by forcible compulsion and five counts of incest.

Judge Tapp followed the recommendation of the prosecutor on Friday and imposed the suspended ten year sentence against Spoonamore.

Following the hearing, Montgomery noted his approval of Bartley's handling of the case and reiterated his office's tough stand on sex offenders.

"Justice has come full circle in this case. It is a difficult thing to do, but because of certain rules of evidence, it is necessary, at times, to plea bargain with co-defendants so that the principal offenders can be convicted. Here, the end result is that two sex offenders are serving lengthy sentences and will forever be known as sex offenders to the public and will be on notice of them if, and when they are released from their prison term," Montgomery said.

At the time Bretz was indicted in 2005, Spoonamore was indicted on five counts of complicity to rape by counseling, planning, promoting or aiding Bretz in rape.

Kentucky in the Community Transportation Association of America (CTAA) National Rodeo in May 2008 at New Orleans.

Gary Scott of RTEC in Mount Vernon was named KPTA's Dispatcher of the Year. Nominated by RTEC staff, Scott has dispatched RTEC's fleet for over 5 years and has been instrumental in the implementation of a paperless and wireless technology for dispatching the 12 county transportation services.

The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Office of Transportation Delivery recognized area transit systems for outstanding performance. Executive Director, Vickie S. Bourne presented the State's award to FTSB of Lexington for Central Kentucky, Sandy Valley Transportation for Eastern Kentucky, Fulton County Transit System of Western Kentucky, Louisville Red Cross Wheels for Section 5310 Operator and Daniel Boone Community Action for Statewide Section 5311 Operator. The State's Outstanding Overall Transit System award was presented to Rural Transit Enterprises Coordinated (RTEC).

RTEC operates public transit services at the counties of Bell, Clinton, Cumberland, Knox, Laurel, McCreary, Monroe, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Russell, Wayne and Whitley and provided over 480,000 passenger rides during the past year. Along with the Laurel County Fiscal Court, RTEC has completed a $4.9 million transit facility in London, is currently building a transit center in Somerset and has a construction project in Pineville.

RTEC is in the design stage of building a trolley café and renovations for its facilities located in Mount Vernon. There are 166 employees and 188 transit buses on the road. The buses are all equipped with the latest technology, including automatic vehicle locators (AVLs) and Mobile Data Terminals (MDTs), a camera surveillance system. RTEC is currently conducting feasibility studies for implementing Smart Cards, an electronic payment system and an Interactive Voice Response System (IVR) for its passengers.

In an interview with the director, Shirley Cummins stated “With the assistance of the Office of Transportation Delivery, we have upgraded our fleet and have the best technology available for vehicle operations and now we need to direct some attention to our local facilities”.

Cummins and the board of directors have always been mindful of historic preservation of the existing buildings and plan to convert the former Eaton building on Spring Street to a café. Over $100,000 in grant funds have been received for the project.

RTEC's offices are located in the former post office building, Bryant Building, a beauty shop and barber shop, located on Main Street and the maintenance garage is located in the Parsons building on Spring Street in Mount Vernon.

degree assault, one count of second degree assault, driving under the influence, aggravated circumstance and trafficking in marijuana.

Cromer said the aggravated circumstances charge makes the penalties greater for a DUI and were filed because Adkins caused serious injury to others in the accident.

The trooper said that, when he was looking in the trunk of Adkins' vehicle for a license plate to the car, he found almost two pounds of processed marijuana, a set of scales and sandwich bags.

Cromer said he also found a baggie of marijuana lying between the seats of the car and an emergency protection order that had been filed against Adkins the day before.

The trooper said Adkins had apparently been ordered to stay away from his estranged wife, Glenna Sue Adkins and his son and step-son the day before the wreck. Cromer said Adkins had picked up the 15-year-old and 13-year-old boys from their grandparents' house in Somerset shortly before the 4 p.m. accident.

Adkins and both of his sons were taken to the University of Kentucky Medical Center, two by helicopter, and one by ambulance.

The Somerset woman, Heather Kennedy, 36, was taken to Rockcastle Hospital where she was treated and released.

The driver of the pickup, Ben Richardson, 49, refused treatment.

Adkins' step son remains in the hospital, but Adkins and his 13-year-old son have been released.

Adkins was arrested by Cromer on Tuesday night at his Somerset residence and lodged in the Rockcastle Detention Center. He is being held on a $50,000 cash bond and was due in court on Wednesday morning.

Both were released on unsecured bonds and have a September 12th court date.

Mayor Cash said that deputy sheriffs would step up patrols in Brodhead until an officer can be hired.

Applications are being accepted at city hall in Brodhead until September 17th.

Leger's switch bolsters Cat's offensive line

By: Chip Cosby
Lexington Herald-Leader
Former Rockcastle County High School standout football player, Jason Leger, would never be a poster boy for Muscle and Fitness, magazine, but he's what his University of Kentucky Wildcat teammates call "Country Strong."

Instead of spending his time flexing with barbells, Leger developed his brute strength by doing chores on his family's farm in Rockcastle County.

"That's where I learned about hard work," Leger said.

"We'd be out there all day in the heat doing different stuff. It was tough, but it was just what we did every day."

That same tough farmer's mentality has served Leger well on the football field. Leger is entering his second season as an offensive lineman after playing defensive tackle his first two years on campus, and he'll be in the starting lineup at right guard when UK hosts Eastern Kentucky on Saturday.

"He's definitely tough," offensive line coach Jimmy Higgins said. "He gets in there and gets after it. He brings the mentality of a defensive lineman. He is not afraid to get physical."

But Leger has shown the ability to use his brain just as much, if not more than, brute strength and brawn. Slightly undersized as an offensive lineman (6-foot-1, 287 pounds), the fact that Leger is a thinking man's player helped him get by.

"He plays with great pad level," UK Coach Rich Brooks said. "He's a smart guy who knows his assignments. He's not the biggest guy, but he plays big."

Leger didn't switch from defense to offense until the season's fourth game last year, but he still managed to make three starts before suffering a shoulder injury. The transition is a testament to his smarts.

And, despite missing spring practice and several fall workouts because of the shoulder injury, Leger has held on to his starting position and even gives advice to UK's younger offensive linemen.

With at least two freshmen, one of which is Rockcastle's own Brad Durham, expected to see action, having Leger's wisdom around pays off.

Jason Leger is a senior member of the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

An Iowa couple was seriously injured Monday afternoon when they lost control of the motorcycle they were riding north on Interstate 75 around the 52 mile marker. The 2 p.m. accident closed all northbound lanes of I-75 for approximately an hour while two helicopters landed at the scene. Above, a paramedic with the first helicopter, heads to a waiting Rockcastle Ambulance to pick up one of the victims. Both victims were flown to the University of Kentucky Medical Center. Kentucky State Police Trooper Jason Vanhook said the accident occurred after a rear tire on the motorcycle blew out causing the motorcycle to overturn on the interstate.

Above is two of the eight foot quilt blocks for the Rockcastle County Quilt Trail which are located in the west Ottawa area of the county. In the top photo is, the "Eight Point Star" quilt block which was painted by Miachel Robbins in honor of his grandmother Ella Gentry, who was a life long quilter. The colors blue and yellow are for the 17 special years that he taught school at Livingston Elementary School. The quilt can be seen on Ottawa Road at the farm of Miachel and Peggy Robbins.

The second quilt is "The Palm" or "Hozanna" which has religious significance of pre-Revolutionary origin in Maine. It can be seen on Old Smokey Road, off of Dughill Road, on the farm of Bob and Doris Wright. This block was also painted by Miachel Robbins. A total of six quilt blocks has been put up in the county as part of the trail. Ten more will be painted and placed in the county in the coming months. For more information about the Rockcastle County Quilt Trail contact Hazel Jackson, Rockcastle Family and Consumer Science Agent, at (606) 256-2403.

The Rainbow Show Puppets return after a year of absence here at the library. On Thursday, September 6th, 2007 the Rainbow Show Puppets will be performing the classic tale of "Henny Penny". The program is strictly for preschoolers. Local schools are being transported to the library to see the program. MVES will be here 8:30-9:15 am and at 1:00-1:45pm. Brodhead and Roundstone will be here at 9:30-10:15am and at 2:00-2:45pm. All parents and children in the community are welcomed as well. Please remember that the library will not be open to public at 8:30am but it will be open for the program. The library will open at 10:00am on Thursday as usual. The library would like to think Mr. Allen Pensol and the Rainbow Show Puppets for all that they do and we can't wait to see the show!

In celebration of Ms. Carla's 18th birthday the children at story hour had a birthday party. The library was decorated in balloons and streamers. The children also had cupcakes, ice cream and a treat bag to take home. The children really enjoyed the party and so did Ms. Carla. Come and join story hour every Tuesday at 1:00pm to sing, count, read a story, make a craft and to have a snack. Ms. Carla would like to thank all the children for such a great birthday party, gifts, and thoughtfulness.

The children made birthday hats for a craft. Brandie enjoys her cupcake and ice-cream with her birthday hat on.

Senate Week in Review

By State Senator Ed Worley

The Kentucky General Assembly met this week and approved economic development legislation that will make Kentucky a national leader in energy policy.

America's dependence on foreign oil has lead state and national leaders to re-examine what natural resources are within America's boundaries that will lead to energy independence.

In order to compete with surrounding states, it was necessary that we pass House Bill 1. energy related companies are interested in locating in Kentucky and the surrounding region because of this area's unique natural resources.

House Bill 1 is a historic environmental, energy, and economic development package for Kentucky. It is intended to take advantage of new energy research and emerging technologies, protect Kentuckians' clean air, and maintain our affordable energy bills.

The incentives in this legislation are designed to attract billion dollar facilities. During the construction and permanent operation, these new facilities will provide thousands of job opportunities. To encourage these companies to employ Kentuckians, the legislation provides additional incentives to companies hiring Kentucky residents.

Because we are all concerned with protecting the environment, this legislation mandates that companies locating in Kentucky conform to federal requirements regarding carbon dioxide emissions and ways to restrict the emission CO2.

We have worked very hard to ensure that this is a comprehensive and balanced energy policy. This legislation has a strong agricultural component, which includes incentives for bio-fuels as well as renewable sources of energy.

As inducement for biodiesel producers and blenders to locate in Kentucky, the bill also raises the cap on the $1-per-gallon tax credit on those fuels to $5 million statewide in 2008 and $10 million in 2009. That's a significant increase from the current $1.5 million annual cap. Cellulosic ethanol producers, who make ethanol fuel from plant waste such as sawdust, paper pulp, switchgrass, and other materials, will also be eligible for the $1-per-gallon credit, up to $5 million annually under a separate program. Producers of "regular" ethanol, derived from corn, soybeans, or wheat, will be give a separate $5 million program.

If we are truly interested in weaning ourselves off foreign oil, however, we must tackle the energy issue from several different angles. Alternative fuels and power sources alone won't totally offset our dependence on foreign energy sources. That's why the bill includes incentives for companies that take significant measurable steps to improve their energy efficiency.

Of course, the public sector must set an example for the private sector in saving energy. The state will incorporate a rating system to design, build, and operate energy-efficient government buildings, and develop a strategy to switch to hybrid and other alternative-fuel vehicles in our state fleet. We'll also study ways to increase our use of biodiesel, ethanol, and other fuels to reduce the state's use of foreign energy.

Since House Bill 1 serves a dual purpose -- creating a comprehensive energy policy as well as spurring economic development -- we wanted to make sure we invested in Kentucky's coming generation of energy-industry workers. We created a student-loan forgiveness program for students who attend a Kentucky college or university, then work in Kentucky in an energy-related field. We're also directing the state Department of Education to create an energy technology career track program that local school districts can offer to their middle and high school students, and then give them the funding to do it.

Finally, we're increasing our state's direct interest in energy research. We're investing $5 million with the Kentucky Geological Survey to study the potential for oil and gas recovery as well as coalbed methane recovery using the carbon dioxide produced by the gasification facilities we've already mentioned. We've given $2 million to University of Kentucky's Center for Applied Energy Research to help industry rapidly integrate fresh alternative fuel production technology into their new facilities. Various other grant funds will allow Kentucky-based companies to study alternative fuels and renewable energy, making our Commonwealth a leader in energy.

This session was truly a landmark effort by everyone involved to restore Kentucky to the forefront of the national energy scene. We have what it takes -- both in natural resources an in human capital -- to be the leader in our nation's fight for energy independence. We think this bill puts us on the right path.

We'll return to Frankfort in January for our regular session, but I always welcome your comments and suggestions. Feel free to contact me in Frankfort through the Legislative Message Line at 1-800-372-7181, or follow our work online at <http://www.lrc.ky.gov>.

Rockcastle Association of Kentucky Baptists set to pray "With One Voice"

Rockcastle Association of Kentucky Baptists will be joining with Christians from across the state in a series of simultaneous prayer gatherings on the evening of September 11 to ask God to bring spiritual awakening and healing to communities, the state, and the nation.

Using the theme "With One Voice," the local prayer gathering will be held at the Maretburg Baptist Church on Hwy 150 at 7:30PM on Sept. 11. The prayer gathering will be one of nearly 70 being held across the state. All of the prayer gatherings are open to the public with everyone invited to attend.

At each location, Baptists and other Christians will gather for approximately one hour of concerted prayer. "At the gatherings, we will pray for believers to experience renewal, for churches to experience revival, and for God to use revived churches to share the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ with every person in their community," said Dr. Bill

Mackey, Executive Director of the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

The September 11 event follows up on two years of prayer tours in which a team of KBC leaders traveled the state to lead prayer gatherings. In 2005, the team traveled the perimeter of the state, making more than 30 stops for prayer gatherings of Kentucky Baptists. In 2006, the leaders' travels focused on the interior of the state.

"There's nothing magical in all of us gathering for prayer at exactly the same time," Mackey said. "But I do believe it helps us all to focus in on the importance of prayer and on the importance of the issue we are praying about."

Rockcastle Assoc of KY Baptists is sponsoring the prayer gathering. It is part of the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the founding of the very first Baptist association in America in 1707.

For more information, call the Rockcastle Baptist Association Office at 256-4571.

"Leger"

"He learns, he pays attention, asks a lot of questions, and knows what to do," Higgins said. "He's not afraid to make a mistake, and he's ready to correct it when he does."

"I'm the type that will ask questions and keep trying stuff until I found out what works for me," Leger said. "I try to listen to anybody who gives me advice, and if it doesn't work, I'll try something else. I think that's why I was able to make the adjustment to the offensive line. I think a good football player can go out and play any position that you need him to."

Leger admits that he'd still rather be playing defensive tackle but knows that it's an all-around better situation on the offensive line.

"Defense is what I really like to do but, for the way I'm built, the offensive line is better for me," he said. "I'm a better athlete as an offensive lineman and I think the team is better off with me there."

Leger still feels occasional soreness in his shoulder but he doesn't expect it to be a problem during the season.

"I'll be O.K.," Leger said. "I just need enough practice time to get used to who's playing next to me, and we'll have the first two games to get that done."

The football cats kick off their 2007 season on Saturday when they host the EKV Colonels at 6 p.m.

(Editors Note: Jason Leger played for the Rockcastle County Rockets from 2000 through 2003 and is considered one of the best, if not the best, linemen on both sides of the ball to ever take the field for the Rockets. Leger, the son of Mike Leger and Shelia Hurst, both of Willailla, was named first team all-state defensive lineman and honorable mention offensive lineman in 2003, his senior year at the ROCK. In his junior year, he was named third team, all-state offensive lineman. This story was reprinted from the Monday, August 27, 2007 edition of the Herald-Leader. RFA).

Lead Poisoning

Family and Consumer Sciences

Hazel Jackson Rockcastle County Extension Office

The news has been filled with recalls on Mattel toys and most recently baby bibs which contain lead. Lead paint was found on the Mattel toys and found in the vinyl of the baby bibs. You can go online to <http://www.cehca.org/> and <http://www.mattel.com/safety/us/> to find out if you have any of these products.

Lead is a poisonous metal that has been known to be harmful to man as far back as 100 B.C. Lead enters the body through the mouth or skin (a cut or scrap). Once lead enters the blood stream it is stored in the liver, kidneys, brain, spleen, and heart. After several weeks the body will confuse lead with calcium and begin to store it in bones and teeth.

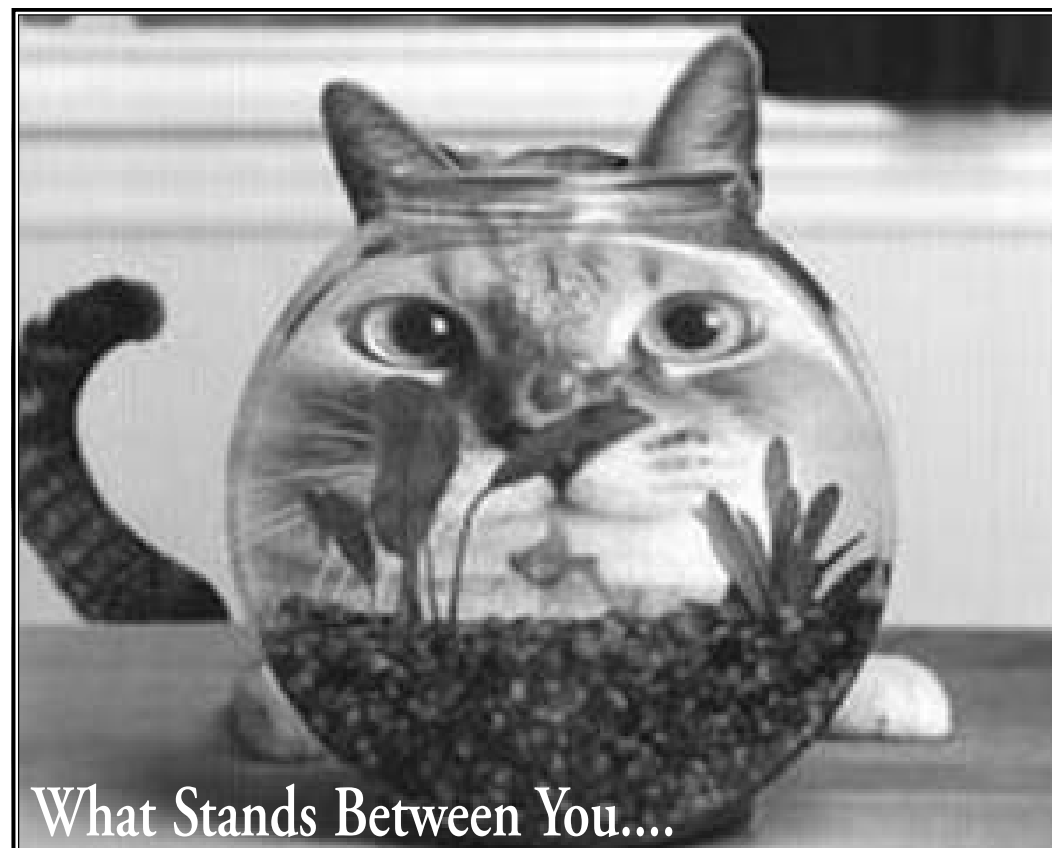

Normally, in an adult about 99% of lead is excreted in urine and feces.

But, in a child only 32% is excreted. The amount of damage depends upon length of exposure.

The most common symptoms include: abdominal pain, vomiting, constipation, change in appetite, and irritability. By looking at your child you cannot tell if they have lead poisoning, the only sure way to know is to have your child's blood tested. Contact your child's health care provider if you have concerns.

Additional publications on Lead Poisoning are available free by contacting the Rockcastle Extension Office at 256-2403. You may also visit the Kentucky Department of Public Health at <http://chfs.ky.gov/dph/ach> and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention at <http://www.cdc.gov/Features/ChildhoodLead/>.
