Work on the School Street - Newcomb Avenue project is well underway. Newcomb Street, above, was closed on Tuesday for several days of preparation for the new lanes and curbing. Residents of the area, workers and visitors at Rockcastle Regional Hospital and customers of Mt. Vernon Pharmacy will have to use Maple Street, which is accessed next to the health department off Richmond Street. Below, workers are preparing School Street for its rough base coat, which should be put down sometime this week. Mayor Gary Cromer says that work is on schedule, and the Department of Highways is currently locating the four best spots to put the poles for the new lights.

Football Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony to be held Saturday night

The Rockcastle County Football Hall of Fame Committee has announced its newest class of players who will be inducted at a ceremony Saturday, October 23rd at the RCHS Auditorium and cafeteria beginning at 6:00 p.m.

The following players will be inducted into 2010 class: Troy McClure, 1972; Leonard Davis, 1972; Mark Bray, 1973; Adam Coleman, 1989; Mike Durham, 1991; John LaFevers, 1997; Christopher Parsons, 2000; Devin Taylor, 2003; Matthew Burkhart, 2005.

In addition to the induction ceremony, the Hall of Fame will honor the 1963 Mt. Vernon Red Devils football team. This team was the first team to compete with eleven men, and went undefeated. (See related article).

The Hall of Fame inductees and the '63 Red Devils will be introduced at half-time of the RCHS and Southwestern game on Friday, October 22nd and at the banquet on the 23rd.

This year will also be the first RCHS Football Players Reunion. All former players, coaches, and cheerleaders are invited to attend. The reunion will also take place with the induction ceremony on Saturday evening. This year, the Senior players from the 1980, 1990, and 2000 seasons will be recognized.

Tickets for the meal will be $15 and may be purchased at Brodhead Pharmacy or Subway of Mt. Vernon. Tickets will also be

School Street and Newcomb Avenue project continues

By: Sara Coguer

The School Street-Newcomb Avenue construction project is on schedule, according to Mayor Gary Cromer, with a rough base coat of blacktop applied Tuesday to the School Street addition in preparation for final blacktopping. The curbs around the Snack Shack parking lot are already in place and the rough base coat for the Newcomb Avenue side should be completed by next week.

According to Cromer, Newcomb Avenue has been inaccessible from Richmond Street since Tuesday for installation of the new curbs on that side of Richmond Street. This will continue through this week. There is also one final telephone pole on the Lambert Property side of Newcomb Avenue that has to be moved.

Residents in the area, workers and visitors at the Rockcastle Hospital and Medical Arts Building and customers of Mt. Vernon Pharmacy will have to use Maple Street, which can be accessed off of Richmond Street next to the health department or High Street, next to the Post Office for both ingress and egress.

Mt. Vernon Drug is the main business that will be affected by the Newcomb Street shutdown, but it will still be accessible from Richmond Street by its drive through lane to the left of the property and also a new entrance off of Richmond Street, to the right of the former Cornelius property. Customers will have to enter and exit the parking lot from Richmond Street.

According to the Department of Highways, a crew is deciding this week the best location for the four posts that will hold the traffic light on Richmond Street. The Department also stated that, hopefully, traffic will be moving again normally in the area in the next two weeks, even though the project will not be completed.

All excess blacktop that is currently being taken to accommodate the new intersection is being put behind the current parking lot of Snack Shack, to give them extra parking that they originally lost in order to make the new School Street addition.

Local family involved in crash on Highway 150

A local family was involved in a two-vehicle collision on Highway 150 last Wednesday, resulting in the death of a Tennessee man.

According to the Kentucky State Police, Bert King, 41, of Mt. Vernon, co-owner of Peg's Food Mart, and his family were attempting to merge onto Hwy. 150 from Singleton Road in Lincoln County when he struck a motorcycle being operated by Jackie Haga, 54, of Bristol, TN.

The impact caused both vehicles to leave the road and travel down a nearby embankment.

Haga was transported to Fort Logan Hospital in Stanford, where he was pronounced dead by the Lincoln County Coroner.

There were no reported injuries to King, his wife Angie or their four daughters, all of whom were in the vehicle.

Reports suggest that low visibility due to heavy rainfall may have played a role in the accident. Alcohol or drug use does not appear to be a contributing factor. The collision remains under investigation by the Kentucky State Police.

Mt. Vernon Council meeting held Tuesday

By: Sara Coguer

The Mt. Vernon City Council had their monthly meeting Tuesday night with very little new business to attend to. After approving the minutes for the September meeting, and calling role in which councilman Jackie Weaver was not present, the council approved paying the bills for the current month.

The Council also approved the financial report for September, as well as giving a second reading of the 2010 Property Tax Rate ordinance.

The two new items up for discussion included the dredging of parts of Lake Linville. The company that is putting together a proposal for the dredging did not have their proposal

In celebration of its 200th birthday . . .

Many unique reasons to love Rockcastle County

By: Sara Coguer

In celebrating Rockcastle County's 200th birthday, the Mount Vernon Signal has decided to compile 200 interesting and unique facts about Rockcastle County.

The project will take place between now and the end of the year and hopefully will have been contributed to by members of our community.

Each week, the Signal will tell twenty things about Rockcastle County that you may or may not have known. However, the completion of this project will be up to our readers to help tell the rich history and stories of our people, the times, the places and the events that have made Rockcastle County the place we fondly call home.

We will share the obvious, those tidbits of information that most of our citizenry should already know. What we would like for residents to do is submit any fact that you think is interesting or unique about anyone, anyplace or anything in our county.

We know that there are 200 facts out there, we are just hoping that you, our readership, will be willing to play along and submit those wonderful memories that you have that helps to make our county special. Nostalgia is welcome here, just try to keep it short and sweet.

To start this project off, here are the first 20 interesting and unique facts about Rockcastle County. All of the facts that we are presenting have come from the book Rockcastle County,

Kentucky and It's People, as well as websites on the internet, including Rockcastle County's very own website, www.kykinfolk.com, the Rockcastle Tourism website and the Rockcastle Historical Society website.

1. Rockcastle County was formed in 1810 from portions of Lincoln, Madison, Knox and Pulaski counties. The largest land areas being taken from Lincoln and Madison counties.

2. The geographical boundaries of Rockcastle County changed twice. The first in 1825 in which portions were taken to help form Laurel County and then again in 1858 to form Jackson County.

3. About one fourth of the county is located within the borders of the Daniel Boone National Forest.

4. In 1750, Explorer Thomas Walker noted a rock on a mountain above Livingston that resembled a castle, and in 1767 Isaac Lindsey named this rock Castle Rock. Both the Rockcastle River and later the county took their names from this.

5. Two major pioneer trails, Boone's Trace and the Wilderness Road intersect in Rockcastle County at Mt. Vernon. This intersection became the fork in the trail as Daniel Boone made his way from North Carolina to Boonesboro.

6. Stephen Langford and his family led the first settlers into Rockcastle County and founded Mt. Vernon, the county seat, in 1790, establishing Langford's Station in 1792.

7. Colonel James Maret, who was born in Garrard

County, came to Rockcastle County in 1877 and established the county's first telephone exchange and newspaper, the Mountain Signal. He was also town clerk for 25 years and is buried in Elmwood Cemetery.

8. John Lair, born and raised in Renfro Valley, started the national radio broadcast of the "Renfro Valley Barn Dance" and country music show in November 1939.

9. PFC David M. Smith, of Livingston, is the only Congressional Medal of Honor recipient from Rockcastle County to date. PFC Smith, who served in the Korean Conflict, threw himself on a grenade during a battle to smother the explosion and saved the lives of five men. This display of valor cost him his life on September 1, 1950.

10. In 1798, John Baker discovered a large cave opening from the hillside along Crooked Creek, in what was then still part of Madison County. The next day, Baker, his wife and two children, went back to the cave to explore its depths with the aid of torches. However, the torches burned out and after two days the family finally found their way out. This began the colorful history of the Great Saltpetre Cave.

11. Two happenings of the Civil War took place in Rockcastle County. On October 21, 1861, the Battle of Camp Wildcat ensued in the Rockcastle Hills along the border of Laurel County. After the Ramblings . . .

A New Generation
by:
Sara Coguer, Editor

I asked mom today if she cared if I stole her column head of "Ramblings." She said no, but then she backed it up immediately by telling me not to forget to put my byline on it, she didn't want anyone to think she had written it (meaning anything I've written, I guess). Oh the love of working with family! I feel as if I have truly come home and have been accepted.

I know I probably shouldn't steal her column head, especially since she may want to write something again sometime, but seeing my name under "Ramblings" will really make me feel as if I've arrived.

I just remember when I was little that I would love it when mom wrote her column. I can remember how many people made comments to me about it.

About how it made them laugh out loud (usually at some antic of one of her other children, I'm sure). About how she really had her finger on the pulse of what was going on in our community. I want to do those things, too.

I know it will be big shoes to fill, I've already experienced that with trying to be everywhere Rick always seemed to be, but I am up to the challenge.

It's funny how personal this business can be. I wanted to write my column the first week I started, but I never really could find the words that I wanted to use to express my thoughts about my new job, and my old one, too.

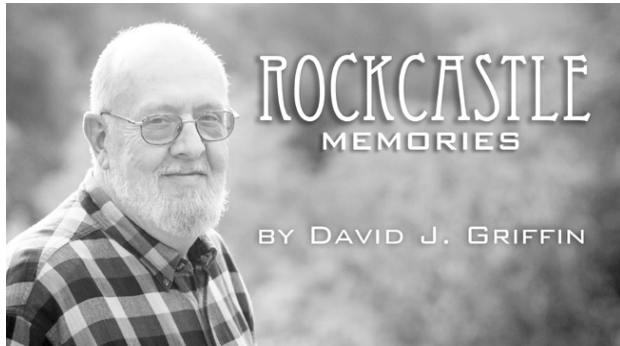

Now that I have gotten my feet wet a little, my thoughts are coming out of my head a little too fast, but I want to try to make sense of a few of them for you.

I believe a lot of you know that in my previous life I was a teacher. I taught fourth grade for seven years and special education at the high school for a year and half prior to that.

I have had several people just amazed that I would want to leave teaching, but my response has always been that teaching is hard. Not that I wasn't up to the challenge, but I was having a very difficult time juggling my 9-5 job and my job as a mother.

I know a lot of mothers who have managed both, but when the opportunity arose to work with my family and do something else meaningful, it was really a no brainer for me. After all, the Lord only charged me

MEMORIES
BY DAVID J. GRIFFIN

The Space Race

When I was thirteen years of age, the United States and USSR were involved in a race to explore and control space flight and travel. In those days, the news media kept everyone sitting on the edge of their chairs to see which country would prevail. The very idea was rather unsettling and left U.S. citizens nervous and uneasy about what might happen at any day. The entire world was watching on October 4, 1957 when the Soviet Union successfully launched its first satellite, Sputnik I. It was an event that changed everything.

Immediately after the Sputnik launch, the U.S. Defense Department responded by approving funding for its own satellite project. As a result, on January 31, 1958, the United States successfully launched Explorer I. This satellite carried scientific proponents that discovered the magnetic radiation belts around the Earth, which were later named the Van Allen radiation belts. This small satellite weighed a mere 30.8 pounds.

I can also remember watching President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address on January 20, 1961, in which he challenged Americans to strive for higher goals and service to our fellow Americans. Among the achievements he wanted to see fulfilled was one that seemed mighty ambitious: "I believe that this nation should commit itself to achieving the goal, before this decade is out, of landing a man on the moon and returning him safely to earth." Not many of us believed that such a feat was possible. However, we had confidence in our new President and if he thought it could be done, then who were we to argue with such a wonderful dream.

As a young teenager living with my mother (Bee) in Rockcastle County, I was enthralled by the scientific advancements that were taking place all around the world. I purchased models of both satellites and hung them from the ceiling in my bedroom. At night I concentrated on the small spheres slightly swinging from the ceiling light above my bed. It was a thrill to be alive while such miraculous events were taking place in the skies above our small farm.

This was just the beginning of the space race. On April 12, 1961, the Soviet space traveler Yuri Gagarin became the first human to travel in space and to orbit the earth. He was the hero of the Soviet Union. He received medals from around the world for this pioneering tour.

Then, within less than a month, Rear Admiral Alan Barlett Shepard piloted the Freedom 7 mission and became the second person, and the first American, to travel in space. Unlike Gagarin, Shepard had control of Freedom 7 in determining the altitude of his spacecraft. The launch, his return from space, and the rescue by a helicopter were seen live on national television. Headlines the next morning gave Americans reason to be proud of our space accom-

It's that time of the year again and last Sunday afternoon was about as perfect for an outside convention as I have ever seen. I speak, of course, about the annual weather forecast hosted in late October for the last 35 years by the National Association of Woolly Worm Winter Weather Watchers, better known as (NAWWWWW).

For new readers unfamiliar with NAWWWWW, let me briefly that the organization consists thousands of woolly worms scattered throughout central and eastern Kentucky. I am the honorary president and the only human directly associated with NAWWWWW and it is job to show up at the convention and then report the winter forecast to human-kind.

There is always much arguing among the membership and it's always especially bad in an election year. Members of NAWWWWW use human political candidates as ex-

Let's Make Some More History!!

Vote McGuire Write-In Candidate

5th District Magistrate

- I believe myself to be the people's best choice to defend against "High Taxes," "Big Debt," and unproductive spending.
- I will stand for the people and with the people against county wide zoning, or any ordinance related to zoning.
- Let's be good stewards of our Tax Dollars.
- Let us not raise taxes or create new ones but work together to make better use of the resources we already have available (such as) Money, Land, empty buildings, interstate & railroad access, national forest, water ways, etc.

When elected I will work to help move the county forward in a safe, steady and wise manner.

- I believe the county should get all the grant money that we can afford for good and worthwhile projects.
- Let us help our first responders: Police, Fire, Rescue & Ambulance workers. Some of these people are unpaid volunteers. To them and the rest, I say "Thank You." We appreciate what you do! We dare not take you for granted.
- Our library is also important to both young and old. As well as our senior citizens centers - these we must support.
- Let us not forget our small towns like Livingston. Let's come up with some good ideas and resources to help them grow.
- We have a serious drug problem in our county that needs to be dealt with, which threatens all of us in one way or another.
- Everything that we do or don't do affects our future, so let us always keep our children and young people, and everyone else, in mind and their best interests at heart.
- I am grateful to have the opportunity to apply for this job as Magistrate (A servant of the people).

I humbly ask for your vote!

Rissie Brock

Rissie Brock, 92, of Brodhead, died Thursday, October 14, 2010 at her home, with her family by her side. She entered into this life on August 2, 1918 in Pine Hill, the daughter of William Lucas and Mattie Cottongim Overbay, both of whom preceded her in death. She was united in marriage to Reverend Virgil Brock, on February 15, 1941 and to their union of marriage came seven children to richly bless their home. She was a homemaker, and spent her days loving and caring for her family. She was a member of the Union Chapel Pentecostal Church, and the Rockcastle Co. Ladies Library Club, and will be remembered for her love of crocheting, gardening, and ceramic art.

She will be lovingly remembered by: seven children, Barbara (Audy) Faulkner of Copper Creek; Melvin (Helen) Brock of Brodhead, Doug (Judy) Brock, Sr. of Mt. Vernon, Shelia (Dallas) Severance of Copper Creek, Phyllis (Reggie) Benge of Mt. Vernon, Linda Brock of Mt. Vernon, and Gloria Brock of Hamilton, OH; 13 grandchildren; 17 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and neighbors.

Besides her parents she is preceded in death by: her husband, Reverend Virgil Brock; three brothers; and six sisters.

Funeral services were held Sunday, October 17, 2010 at the Union Chapel Pentecostal Church with Rev. Ralph Reynolds officiating. Interment followed in the Saylor Cemetery.

Casketbearers were: Spencer Benge, Doug Brock, Jr., Chad Brock, Chris Faulkner, Chad Severance, and Gary Hopkins.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Saylor Cemetery Fund.

Ida Parriman

Ida Parriman, 83, died October 18, 2010. She entered into life on April 29, 1927 in Brodhead, the daughter of Golden and Lilly Brock. She was united in marriage to Vernon Parriman, and to their union came three children to richly bless their home.

She will be lovingly remembered by: her children, Ron (Deborah) Parriman of Blanchester, OH, Greg (Pamela) Parriman of Goshen, OH; five grandchildren; two great grandchildren; and a host of friends and neighbors.

She is preceded in death by: her husband, Vernon Parriman; her son, Gary Parriman; her grandson, Benjamin; and her parents, Golden and Lilly Brock.

Visitation will be held on Friday, October 22, 2010 from 10 - 11 a.m. at the West Brodhead Church of God followed by a graveside service at 11 a.m. at the Negro Creek Cemetery with Rev. Paul Crisp officiating.

Visitation will also be held Thursday, October 21, 2010 from 6-8 p.m. at the Evans Funeral Home, 1944 SR 28, Goshen, Ohio 45122.

Allen not re-elected just on ballot...

Dear Editor,
As a voter in the 5th District, I must remind the people that Ralph Allen did not get re-elected as magistrate in the May 18th primary race. All he won was the right to have his name on the ballot in the General Election on November 2nd under the Republican Party. He did this with only about 40% of the popular vote cast. The other 60% were votes cast for McGuire and Miller, who were running on the same platform, against county-wide zoning and high taxes. Mr. Allen voted in favor of the occupational tax. His vote was the swing vote that allowed this tax to be passed. On county-wide zoning he refused to stand against it and said it was a myth.

Now, in the upcoming General Election on November 2nd, democracy will truly be served. With the field of candidates narrowed down to only two, McGuire and Allen, Democrats, Republicans, Independents, Tea Party and others are allowed to vote for the candidate of their choice. One of these two candidates must receive greater than 50% of the popular vote to be named magistrate of the 5th district.

Sincerely,
Donald Singleton

Allen is right choice...

Dear Editor,
My name is Gary Davidson. My great grandparents moved to Crooked Creek in 1896. I am a fourth generation part owner of the old home place.

I recently bought a used tile from the county and hired Carpenter Construction to install it. Now I hear it was said that Magistrate Ralph Allen did this for me, which is a complete untruth.

My friends and neighbors, I have the receipts to prove who put them in.

My mother told me that I was conceived in Morris Valley and have been coming here 62 years. I was carried over a mile in my uncle's arms the first time I was brought here so I remember how the roads were. Let me say the roads have never been better in the 5th district. This is all due to our good magistrate Ralph Allen.

So, think of yourselves and make the right choice. Let someone else make the history.

Wants land surveyed before donation considered...

Dear Editor,
In June 21, 2010, I sent the County Judge/Executive Buzz Carloftis a certified letter. The following is part of what I wrote him.

"Sir, I cannot or will not sell or give land I don't own. Let me be very clear. It is your responsibility to show me in a served legal description as to what land you would like me to donate. When you have that in hand, contact me and I will consider a donation. In the meantime, I give the county permission to survey the land you are interested in."

When I met with Buzz, he told me that Lambert Road is not recorded. He went on to say he doesn't have to do anything on that road.

Buzz, be a servant of the people you serve and present a plan and a legal description of the land you want. Don't be a dictatorial official.

November is just around the corner. People, look hard at the past 17 years. I think we need a change. Is Buzz doing his job in the right way? I think not.

Congratulations to Jr ROTC...

Dear Editor,
My special thank you and congratulations to the Jr. ROTC program at the Rockcastle High School.

This past Friday, Saturday and Sunday was the Camp Wildcat Civil War Reenactment in our community and the 21 ROTC students and Sgt. Keith Graves and Cpt. Jeffrey Thompson were an essential part of making the whole weekend a huge success.

For three days the students parked cars, washed dishes, stacked and unstacked chairs, moved the supplies and equipment over the campground as needed and did a hundred other chores, all with a good will and a positive attitude. I was there on all three days as a spectator and I can say positively that the parents of each student have every reason to be proud. The weekend never could have happened without them.

Sincerely,
Bob Coffey

plishments. I can remember going to high school after Shepard's space travel and listening to countless teachers and fellow students discussing the possibilities of future space travel. However, no one was able to predict what was going to happen in less than a decade.

When I was 25 years old, I was walking around the mid-way at the Bluegrass Fair in Lexington when an announcement came over the speakers: "If you want to see the first man walk on the moon, please go to the main tent, and it will be televised in less than one hour." I think everyone attending the fair that night began to run toward that particular tent. I managed to get second row seats for the special event. The date was July 20, 1969.

Like any who observed it, I will never forget the moment when Neil Alden Armstrong stepped down that spacecraft ladder and set the first human foot on the surface of the Moon. It became one of those events which created an indelible memory - "Where were you when?"

Armstrong had traveled to the moon in the Apollo 11 spacecraft. On this eventful mission, Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin descended to the lunar surface and spent two and a half hours exploring while Michael Collins remained in orbit in the Command Module. When Armstrong stepped off the Apollo Lunar Module and set his left boot onto the surface of the moon, he spoke the now famous words, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." Just typing these words gives me cold chills as I remember the historic event. For his momentous mission, Armstrong received the Congressional Space Medal of Honor.

I am so glad that I was alive during this historical time in the United States. Who could ever have predicted the events that were to take place in America during those historic ten years? As most senior citizens will tell you, "It seems like it was just yesterday; where does time go?" I acquired a new pride in being an American during those remarkable events. Through the years, that feeling has never left me. I was and still am proud to call myself an American.

The citizens have gotten tired of getting the run around.

There are places such as mud slides, culverts, etc. which the people have reported and nothing has been done.

Anywhere a school bus, or other services vehicles run, should be blacktopped.

with bringing up three children, not mine and a lot of other people's too.

A lot of people only know about their own experiences in school, 10 years or more ago. Trust me when I tell you that teachers today are not the same ones you might remember.

Not that there hasn't always been wonderful, hard working teachers, I had several, but what the state is asking of teachers today is unbelievable.

The pressure to help students reach above and beyond what they think they can do is so insurmountable that when I was in the classroom, sometimes it was literally too much. And it is only going to get worse.

Sadly, therefore, when I went home I didn't have the energy or desire to be a mother to my own children. I didn't want to help them with their homework. I didn't want to listen to stories about their school day. Honestly, I struggled with even wanting to be around them.

I know that sounds awful, but it is the truth. Teachers and administrators play the role of surrogate parent over and over during a single school day, dealing with everything that frankly, a lot of parents neglect.

The good news is that teachers and administrators are resilient. It comes at a price, though. Sadly, too many times teachers who are doing their job correctly are overwhelmed and have very few outlets for their own frustrations and needs.

So, having said all that, I would love for any parent who has a child in our wonderful school system to please let your child's teacher know you appreciate them.

I am unofficially declaring the rest of October “Thank Your Child's Teacher and Administrator” month. You would not believe how much a little thanks or encouragement can mean. They are under a lot of stress, please take just a second to show them they are making a difference.

I still have every note, good and bad, and every trinket that I received from a parent or student. It won't take you but a minute, but would sure brighten the day of the person who, if you think about it, probably spends more waking hours with your child than you do.

On another note, I have been given the task of writing about the 200th anniversary of Rockcastle County.

I racked my brain trying to come up with a new spin on history and have come up with something that might be quite difficult, but I am up to the challenge.

I have decided to celebrate our 200th birthday by writing about 200 interesting and unique facts about Rockcastle County. I know, it will be quite the challenge, but I am hoping to not face it alone.

Between now and the end of the year, we are going to focus on 20 interesting and unique facts each week about Rockcastle County.

I will focus on the obvious ones, but I need help from you to tell me about the truly unique aspects of our county. Whether it be geographical or human interest in nature, we need to celebrate those unique aspects that make us who we are.

If you think you know an interesting fact about someone, somewhere or something in our county - past or present - please email this tidbit to me at mvsignal@windstream.net.

Unfortunately, if the fact seems too unbelievable, it probably will not be included unless you also send along some proof, or a way for me to corroborate it.

We would also love to have any old photos that you might want to share. Those too, can be emailed or brought to our office.

“Points East”

amples for their own debate and I don't have to tell you that mudslinging has been exceptionally rampant this year. The convention was not a place to take young children or even adults with serious religious beliefs.

Anyway, the gathering was held in the parking lot of Robinson Quality Sausage and Meats there in East Bernstat. It got to the point that many members were not speaking to one another and several simply just headed back to the woods. Far too much influence by U.S. candidates, Jack Conway and Rand Paul in my opinion.

Suffice to say that there was nothing close to consensus when the convention adjourned before sunset. One caucus argued that this would be the worse winter in 20 years with mostly freezing cold and lots of snow. Another group maintained that the weather would be balmy but rainy throughout the season.

However, unlike the Kentucky Legislature, enough NAWWWWW members crossed party lines to come up with a solid majority vote because none of them were interested a special session. So, even though there were many dissenters, here's the most popular opinion.

Basically this winter will be much like last year's. That is, mostly wet in the form of drizzly rain, miserably cold but bearable temperatures through December and January. There is some optimism for a white Christmas. The coldest and consistently dreary weather will commence around the end of January and continue through February and into early March.

The biggest snows of the season will happen between late February and well into March. A wet cold snap is predicted for April so be prepared for a late snow. So that's the news from NAWWWWW as best I can summarize it.

In the meantime, please get out and vote on November 2nd and help restore some faith in our country and our state. And do be on the lookout for woolly worms as they hustle across driveways and black top roads searching for warm dry places to hole up and hibernate throughout the winter. You may see some politicians doing the same thing.

30x60 park will be located at the rear of the newly-blacktopped parking lot below the courthouse.

Even though the city owns the parking lot, the Fiscal Court agreed to help pay to have the lot blacktopped, since the bulk of cars that use the lot are doing business in the county courthouse. Both the city and the fiscal court spent approximately $6,500 for the blacktopping project.

Leadership Rockcastle has purchased approved ramps for the park and those are also awaiting installation.

Fencing for the project has been purchased and will be installed in the next week or so. Mayor Cromer reported that less than $10,000 has been spent by the city for the park, which includes the shared cost of the blacktopping and the fencing.

ready and asked that the council table the discussion until November. The council agreed to table the issue until their November meeting.

The last new item that was up for discussion was to accept changing the provider of the city's worker's compensation insurance from Kentucky League of Cities to Van Meter Insurance. The change would save the city more than $19,000 on their worker's comp premiums for the upcoming year.

Van Meter Insurance also will become the carrier for the city's other insurance needs, saving the city $3,864 over the year for those premiums.

When Mayor Cromer asked for a vote on changing the insurance carrier, Councilman Don Jones asked if they had to vote on it at this meeting and Mayor Cromer said yes, in order for the premiums to take effect November 1, they would have to be voted on during this meeting. With the exception of Jones, who voted no because he "didn't like to be rushed into voting for anything," the council approved the changes to their insurance carrier.

Police Chief Terry Jackson gave his monthly report, saying that the force had received the three vehicles that they had requested through a grant with a 50/50 match, and had also received three AR15 assault rifles for the force that he had requested months ago through a military surplus giveaway.

Fire Chief David Bales reported that the fire department made 16 runs in September, using 16,500 gallons of water.

In other business, Councilman Wayne Cromer reported that the All-American Club had picked up 85 bags of trash recently.

Meth Lab

found several meth precursors, including anhydrous ammonia, the curing component of meth. The possession of the anhydrous ammonia alone is a felony charge.

Officers arrested Richard Bowling, 38, of Booneville and Reedia Gadd, 35, of Mt. Vernon for the manufacturing of meth. Two children, ages 15 and 10 were in the home at the time and were removed by Social Services.

Bowling and Gadd were each charged with one count of manufacturing methamphetamine and two counts of controlled substance endangerment to a child.

Bowling is being held in the Rockcastle Detention Center on a $50,000 cash/property bond. Gadd is also being held in the Rockcastle Detention Center on a $35,000 cash/property bond.

Rockets roll over Raiders

Rockcastle has dominated McCreary Central during the last three years by beating the Raiders by an average of 30 points.

Things would not be any different this year as the Rockets found themselves playing the role of spoiler once again last Thursday on senior night at McCreary Central.

Coach Parkey's club racked up 360 yards on the ground and saw four different players get into the end zone cruising to an easy victory 43-6 over the Raiders. Clarke Rowe, the fifth leading rusher in the state, turned in another impressive night racking up 229 yards on 23 carries and two touchdowns.

McCreary Central did have a little something to celebrate as they took the opening drive and marched it down the field for their lone score.

Parkey was very pleased with the overall play of his defense, "After they scored first on us, we realigned and became refocused on what we were trying to do."

The Rockcastle offense responded by putting together an impressive nine play drive that took 4:58 off the clock and ended with a Clarke Rowe one yard touchdown run to tie the game at six with 5:26 left in the first.

Parkey gave credit to his offensive line for opening up running lanes for his backs, "This was the second week with this particular lineup and they looked good opening holes. We look for them to only get better as October winds down."

After the opening touchdown by the Raiders, the Rocket defense got some redemption on the very next offensive series as the Rockets' Nick Thomason recovered a Raider fumble at the Central 43 yard line.

Clark Rowe then added his second touchdown of the night by breaking through the Raider secondary and scoring from 18 yards out. The two point conversion was added by Brock and Rockcastle was on top 14-6 with 2:40 to go in the first.

Rockcastle's defense then forced Central into a three and out to give the ball back to the offense. The offense wasted no time getting to pay dirt. The Rockets only needed 15 seconds and two plays that ended with a Zach Ream's touchdown run of 50 yards.

Reams, the leading receiver on the team, took the hand-off on an end around play for the score. Parkey welcomes the opportunities to get the ball into Reams's hands more, "Reams is a guy we look to get the ball to in space. He has great speed as he has shown in the last two weeks on his two long TD's." Going for two, Brock hit Luke Allen in the end zone to make the score 22-6 at the end of the first quarter.

After a scoreless second quarter, the Rockets took the opening possession of the third and continued to move the ball on the Raider defense. The result was a five play drive that covered 48 yards and was capped off by a John L. Saylor two yard touchdown run. The two point conversion was good with Brock hooking up with Saylor and the Rockets were in control 30-6 with 10:17 left in the third.

Another three and out by the Raiders gave Rockcastle the ball back at their own 47. The Rockets then went seven plays that ended with Brock getting his only touchdown pass of the night, finding a wide open Luke Allen. The scoring drive was set up by another nice pass play between Brock and Allen that covered 25 yards.

Rockcastle's third possession of the third quarter resulted in a 42 yard touchdown run by fullback John L. Saylor and, after the extra point by Rowe, the Rockets had the final score of 43-6.

Saylor had 5 carries for 62 yards from his fullback position and Parkey hopes that Saylor can become more of a threat in the offense, "Saylor established himself as a threat once again averaging more than 10 yards a carry. Both he and Reams have to keep improving and be seen as a threat to the defense."

After giving up an opening drive touchdown, the Rocket defense was stingy, giving up only 92 yards of total offense on the road including turning away the Raiders after they had the ball first and goal late in the second quarter.

The defense also did not allow a Raider first down in the third quarter, giving the offense not only the ball back, but with good field position most of the night. The Rocket secondary received a lot of the credit for holding the Raiders down and also drew praise from their head coach. "The secondary played great pass coverage forcing the quarterback to run."

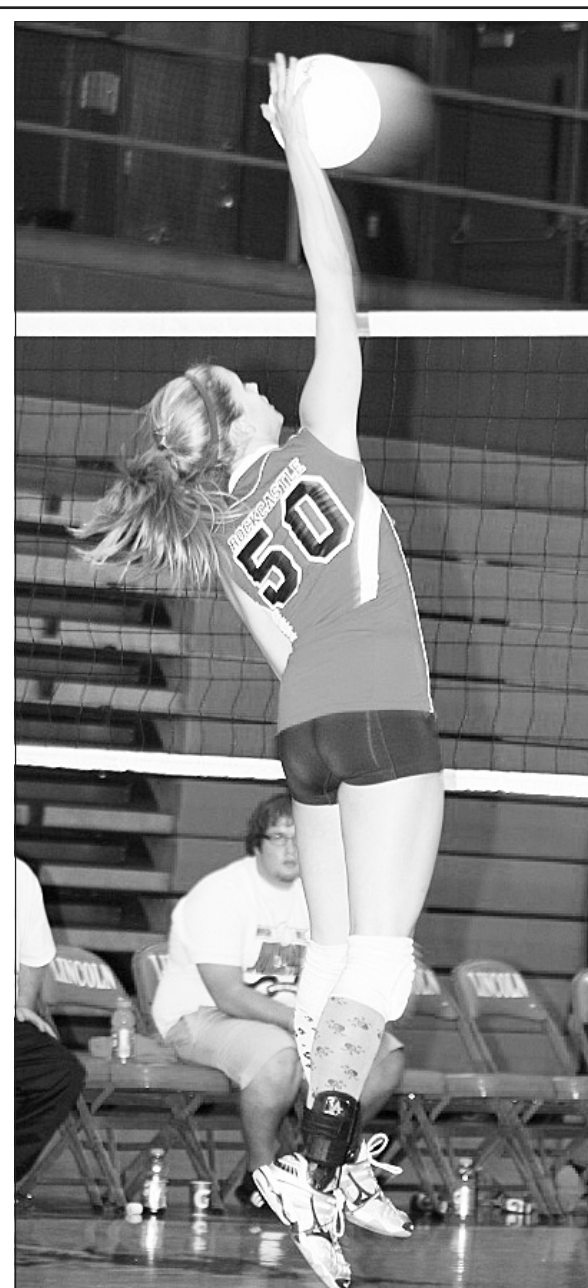

Parkey was impressed with the play of B.B. Bradley who was in on seven tackles. "Bradley set the tone for us early with aggressive tackling."

The Rockets (4-4, 2-2) will now prepare for Senior Night next Friday and will face non-district foe Pulaski Southwestern (5-4, 3-1), who defeated the Rockets last year on the final play of the game.

Southwestern is coming off a 21-14 loss to their cross town rivals Pulaski County. Parkey says that the team should have more than enough incentive to go out and perform their best but Southwestern, who owns a win over Danville this season, will be a tough opponent.

"We went down to the last play against Southwestern last year and pretty much gave it away. That provides motivation and Senior Night brings out the

New football alignments shift Rockcastle to new district

It was Benjamin Franklin who said that the only two things certain in life are death and taxes. If Franklin were alive today he would add a third item, courtesy of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association's Football Realignment.

Every four years the K.H.S.A.A. Board of Control reviews the enrollment data, as well as the geographic locations of its member schools. The Board then makes changes based on those enrollment numbers to divide high school football teams into six classes and to rearrange the eight districts that are encompassed within the class system.

The new district football alignments for each of the state's six classes were approved with amendments at Monday's KHSAA Board of Control meeting in Lexington.

What this means for Rockcastle County is that they will be competing in a new district next year that will continue through the 2014 season. The Rockets will remain in Class 4A but will be in District 6 along with Clay County, Knox Central, and Russell County.

Teams that make the play-offs will face teams from District 5 in the first round which includes, perennial powerhouse Boyle County, private school Lexington Catholic, Marion County, Mercer County, and Taylor County.

"Rockets"

best in our guys and they will be ready to play for the home crowd. Southwestern is a good team with skill and athletes who can run."

In addition to Senior Night, it will also be Hall of Fame night as the Rockcastle Football Hall of Fame will honor the undefeated 1963 Mt. Vernon Red Devil football team. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Rocket Notes

Clarke Rowe has moved into third place on the all time leading rushing list at Rockcastle with 3,690 passing Jon Cromer. Next on the list is J.D. Harris who had 4,086 career yards.

Rockcastle's game with McCreary Central marked the 450th game of the program. The Rockets are 287-162-1 all time.

The lone tie was a 0-0 stalemate during the 1973 season against Russell County.

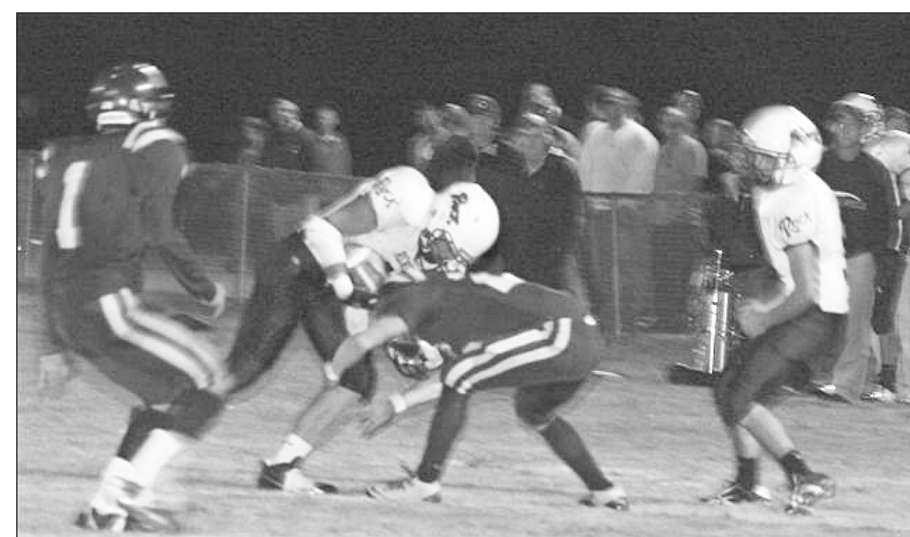

The Rockets are 4-0 when scoring 32 points or more this season.

Junior Alexandra Martin attacks the net during first round regional action Tuesday night in the Rockets win over Burgin. The Rockets were slated to play Russell County in the semi-finals on Wednesday night after press time.

Rockcastle football head coach Scott Parkey gives direction to several flag football players during their end-of-season tournament last Saturday. Flag football, which Coach Parkey started as an introduction to football in a non-contact environment, was a huge success this year. RCHS Sophomore Eli Haddix looks on.

County Judge Executive

Fellow Rockcastle Countians,

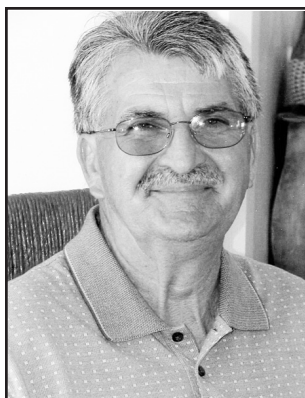

We only have one opportunity to get it right. The decisions you make, you must live with. We will not have the opportunity to do it over.

Which candidate will you trust :

- (1) With your wallet, checkbook and family budget
- (2) To give your families the best opportunity to have enough take home pay to own a house, car and provide for your children
- (3) To protect our freedoms and property rights
- (4) To give each of you the respect you deserve and a voice that matters in our government
- (5) Help keep our families safe from robberies, drugs and other crimes
- (6) To understand that jobs are of the most importance
- (7) To be an example for our youth to follow
- (8) To speak openly and honestly with you every time we meet
- (9) To be humbled by the opportunity to serve you
- (10) To never forget that elected leaders are "Servants of the People"
- (11) Lead us forward with a balanced budget containing no new taxes

Believing in my ability to do all these and more, it would be a great honor to serve you the next four years.

The decision is yours.

tober 23, at Noon on stage at the Renfro Valley Barn. Admission is free.

The event is scheduled annually in conjunction with The Fiddlers' Festival and has become a popular part of the Festival. The contact person is Kathee Steton Ingram at 615/879-5552.

Reasons to love Rockcastle

12. Battle of Perryville, Confederate forces retired using the Cumberland Gap through Rockcastle County, with two columns of Union soldiers pursuing.

13. Early Lincoln County tax lists and land grants have settlers in this area before 1790.

14. After the Civil War, and due to the railroad, both Pine Hill and Livingston were more populated than Mt. Vernon.

15. The original Rockcastle County Courthouse burned to the ground in 1873, destroying all local records to that date. This event has made researching early information in Rockcastle very challenging.

16. From 1835 to the early 1900's the Rockcastle Springs Hotel, located about 5 miles from the Rockcastle River, was a popular summer resort.

17. In 1873, Pine Hill, during its height as a coal and lumber town, had a population of six hundred residents.

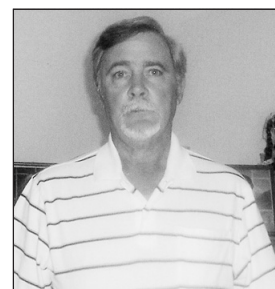

18. The Great Saltpetre Cave sheltered both Union and Confederate troops during the Civil War.

19. Skaggs Trace was named for Henry Skaggs, a Long Hunter. Many famous pioneers, including John Floyd, Benjamin Logan and William Whitley traveled over it.

20. Brodhead High School, the first public school in Rockcastle County, was established in 1909.

21. Native Americans used the Rockcastle area as hunting grounds and temporary camps. There is evidence in two different parts of the county, East Fork of Skeggs Creek and on Eagle Creek along the Rockcastle River, of a permanent settlement or at least of returned-to encampments.

VOTE Troy Cromer

for 3rd District Magistrate

- We need to get more INDUSTRY in the county so our kids and grandkids can have a job.
- We need to help our FIRE DEPARTMENTS more than we do.
- We need more PARKS in the county for our children to play.
- I am against ZONING.
- If elected, I will always be a person that you can count on and talk to about your concerns.

Rest assured, I WILL be available to assist you in any way possible.

1963 Red Devils bowed to no one on the grid iron

The best Rockcastle football team you never heard of

By David W. Owens

When attention turns to football each August, we begin to speak the pigskin language, including how the coaches and players will handle the upcoming season.

In turn we like to reminisce about past seasons and players. Four Rockcastle County teams are usually considered the standard to judge others by.

Coach Tom Larkey's two state runner-up teams from 2001 and 2002, his 1991 team and Coach Glenn Polly's 1977 team. As great as those teams were, there is only one team from Rockcastle County to go undefeated; Coach Larry Travis' 1963 Mt. Vernon Red Devils.

1963 was the era of President John F. Kennedy who coined the phrase, "Ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for your country."

Evidently that phrase had caught on with Rockcastle Countians. Plans were laid for the building of a new courthouse and a county-wide high school.

Meanwhile Larry Travis, football coach at Mt. Vernon High School was preparing to take his team into a new era. The Blue Grass Football Conference, of which Mt. Vernon was a member, was an eight man conference had voted to become an eleven man conference in 1963.

When asked about the step up to eleven man football, Travis reported that his hand was forced when the conference voted for the change. "When the conference voted to go to eleven man, we had to step up or step out," said Coach Travis.

When asked to speculate on his team's chances for a successful season, he admitted it would be hard for his squad, made up of 22 players, and they would have to play "Iron Man football."

Travis said that he, and assistant coach Wayne Berry, would have the team to practice, practice, and practice some more to have a chance to beat teams such as Madison Central and Paint Lick.

Practice they did. Senior Tommy Hodges, who was a pulling left guard, stated, "Coach Travis and Coach Berry, who was an ex-marine, were strict task-masters and ran us to death. We knew those plays forwards and backwards."

favorable season. Having a good bunch of experienced seniors, led by quarterback Bobby Hays and speedy younger players would perform, especially on defense.

The Red Devils opened their season at home against Burgin High and came out flat, not able find the end zone for the first three quarters while the defense, in turn, shut down the Burgin offense.

In the opening minutes of the fourth quarter, Burgin struck pay dirt off a five yard run but failed to convert the extra point (in 1963 there were no two point conversion) to take a 6-0 lead.

The crowd was reported to be downhearted, but Hodges gave the Devils the spark they needed. Catching the ball on the twenty yard line, he ran the kickoff back for an 80 yard touchdown. The extra point attempt failed, and the score was tied at six all.

The Red Devils kicked off to Burgin and held them to three and out after which half back Shannon Hellard returned the punt for a 65 yard touchdown. Quarterback Bobby Hayes then found end Jerry Makin in the end zone for the extra point to take a 13-6 lead.

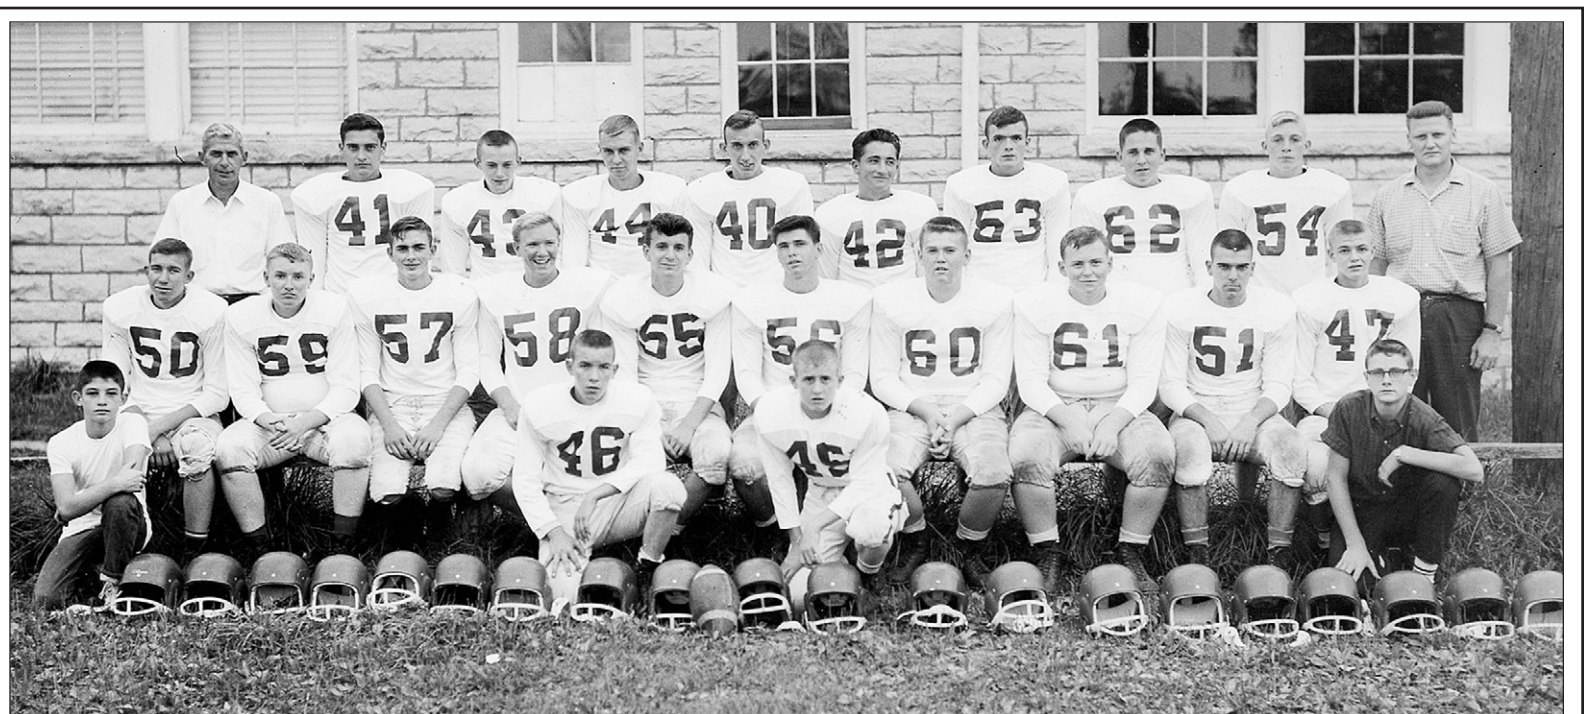

Following the Red Devils kick, Burgin was unable to obtain a first down and had to punt. The Red Devils advanced the ball down the field where end Charles Machal swept left for a 35 yard touchdown. Hayes then hit Bill Price for the extra point for the final score of 20-6.

Football Hall of Fame Inductees and MVHS '63 Red Devils will be recognized during halftime of Friday night's game against Southwestern

In spite of having gone 3 and 5, as an eight man squad the previous season, there were reasons to hope for a halfback Shannon Hellard, the Devils could put points on the board. The question, however, were how the

EDUCATION

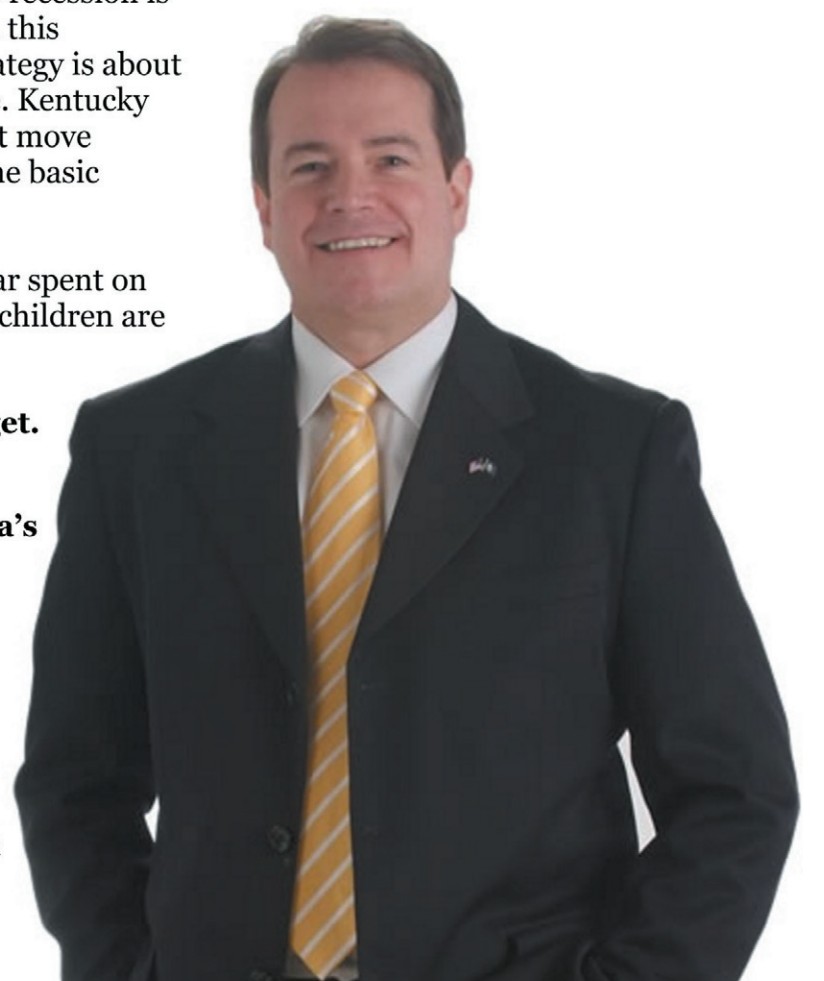

A quality education must serve as the foundation of Kentucky's economy. This recession is winding down. It will end, and we need to be prepared. As we climb out from this economic crisis, our children must be ready for the jobs of the future. This strategy is about more than just recovery — it is about how we will emerge stronger than before. Kentucky will only advance if our children can compete in the global economy. We must move toward greater technology training while never forgetting the importance of the basic curriculum.

We must focus on pre-kindergarten programs. It is proven that for every dollar spent on early childhood development, Kentucky saves 17 dollars in the future as these children are less likely to drop out and less likely to end up on a welfare program.

- Lee will fight against any attempt to cut Kentucky's education budget.
- Lee will stand strong with Kentucky's teachers to protect the Teachers Retirement System.
- Lee will work to create programs for advanced training for our area's adults to get them back in the job market.
- Lee will strive to increase funding for Pre-K programs.

Lee fully understands that even though the current budget situation in Frankfort presents some major challenges, we CANNOT allow education to be placed on the chopping block. This is a move that will have devastating effects on our children's future for years to come.

"Our teachers have fought too long to pull Kentucky's education system from the abyss. We have made large achievements and cannot allow education to slip backwards"

Health and Rehab resident has art show

Submitted
 Mattie Hasty, a resident at Rockcastle Health and Rehab, had an Art Show displaying some of her paintings. Mrs. Hasty stated she began painting about 10 years ago.

Her children would visit throughout the day and when they all left at night she would begin painting. She stated that some of the big paintings would take three evenings and the smaller ones would take one evening depending on the amount of time she had to spend.

Her work is absolutely beautiful when some of the participants ask if she would sell any, she smiled sweetly and stated that they are not for sale. They are for my children to have.

Staff and residents really enjoyed viewing all the beautiful paintings. We hope to have another Art Show in the future and invite the public to view as well.

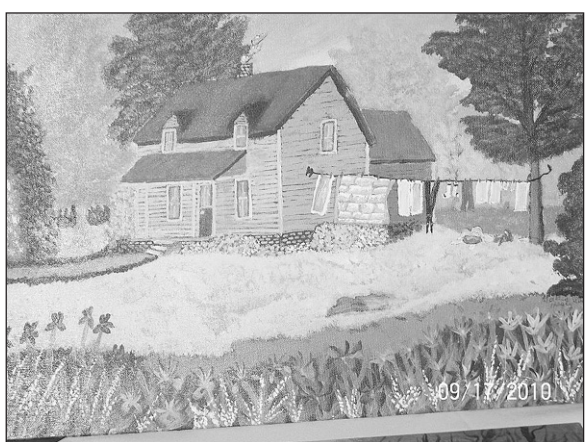

I want to thank the family for setting this up, it was enjoyed by all.

“Red Devils”

Next up for the Red Devils was Paint Lick who fell to the Devils 27-7. The Red Devils then took their show on the road to Lancaster for their first away game to play Camp Dick Robinson. On the opening kick, Jerry Hines tackled the Camp Dick Robinson receiver who fumbled the ball and Hines recovered it on the five yard line. On the very first offensive play, Shannon Hellard rounded left end for the score. Bill Price failed to convert the extra point but the Red Devils had an early 6-0 lead. On their next possession, half back Nicky Williams, with high stepping speed, raced 40 yards for the score then quarterback Bobby Hayes hit end Bill Price on a button hook pass for the extra point to make the score 13-0.

The Red Devil defense again forced Camp Dick Robinson into a three and out forcing them to punt. On the first play from scrimmage, Bill Price was on the receiving end of a long Hayes’ pass that went 60 yards for the score and converted the extra point on a hand off to Doug Rickels to make the score 20-0 at the end of the first quarter. The Devils continued to play stingy defense but the offense sputtered until just before the half ended when Travis’ club took possession of the ball and marched 50 yards to Camp Dick’s five yard line where Doug Rickels ran off tackles for the score. The extra point was converted on a pass from Hayes to Bill Price for a 27-0 half time lead. The Devils kicked to Camp Dick to open the second half and held them to three and out. Shannon Hellard ran the punt back to the Camp Dick’s 20 yard line.

Hellard then went off tackle to score on the first play from scrimmage and Jerry Makin corralled a Hayes toss for the extra point for a 34-0 margin.

The Devils later added another touchdown when Chock Machal ran 12 yards around left end and Bobby Hayes sneaked in for the extra point for a final score of 40-0.

The Red Devils then journeyed to Richmond to play Coach Roy Kidd’s powerhouse Madison Central Indians.

Bill Price took the Indians’ kickoff out to the 17 yard line and then, on the second play from scrimmage, Shannon Hellard went around right end for an 80 yard score. The extra point attempt failed but the Devils had made a statement and led 6-0 over highly-favored Madison Central.

The Devils early success provided them with confidence and they effectively shut down the Indians high-powered offense and shocked Central again in the second quarter when Hellard hit pay dirt from 40 yards out. Quarterback Bobby Hayes then hit end Jerry Makin for the extra point for a 13-0 spread.

The Red Devils continued to keep the potent Indians offense at bay and moved the ball effectively, eating the clock, and in spite of two touchdown runs by Chock Machal being called back, the Red Devils were unable to tally another touchdown and the final score was 13-0. The Devils were now 4-0 and had defeated the best team on their schedule.

After the game, Coach Kidd approached Coach Travis and stated he would like to have Machal on his team, “That guy knows how to play football,” Kidd said.

Travis’ red hot Red Devils then traveled to Harrodsburg for a rematch of their season opener with Burgin. Half back Nicky Williams lit the score board up with three touchdown runs of 80, 60, and 45 yards while Chock Machal and Shannon Hellard added extra points for a half time score of 20-0.

The Devils added two more scores in the second half when Hayes hit Machal for a touchdown strike and Makin for the extra point and fullback Doug Rickels ran up the middle for a 17 yard score while the defense pitched their third straight shut out for a final tally of 32-0.

The Devils’ road show then went to Paint Lick to play the pre-season district favorite. They allowed the most points scored on them, but came away with a hard fought 28-14 victory.

Chock Machal, behind terrific blocking, went 40 yards for the first score in that game and Hayes’ pass to Jerry Makin was good for the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

A few plays later Jerry Hines picked up a Paint Lick fumble and scrambled 25 yards for the score then Hayes connected with Machal for a 14-0 lead. Paint Lick scored seven before the half ended, by way of a 80 yard touchdown pass, and converted the extra point.

The second half began with fireworks when left halfback Chock Machal raced 18 yards to the end zone and quarterback Bobby Hayes sneaked over for the extra point. There was no further scoring until the third quarter when Paint Lick intercepted a Mt. Vernon aerial and ran it in from 35 yards. After converting the extra point the score was 21-14.

The third quarter closed out with Mt. Vernon adding another touchdown when right halfback Shannon Hellard ran off tackle for a seven yard score. Quarterback Bobby Hayes again sneaked over for the extra point giving the Red Devils a 28-14 lead.

That was the final score as neither team hit paydirt in the fourth quarter.

After the game Coach Travis stated, “Our last game is with Camp Dick Robinson at home. You fans come out and watch these boys perform. They are playing great football and if they continue to work hard, it will be a season they shall never forget.”

The Red Devils ended their first eleven man season by downing a stubborn Camp Dick Robinson team 14-6 at home. In a tight defensive battle, the Red Devils found themselves down 6-0 at the half when Camp Dick scored on a short run following a blocked punt.

After a half time scolding from Coach Travis, the Red Devils came out with a little more pep in their step and managed touchdown runs of 65 and 25 yards, both from Shannon Hellard.

Quarterback Bobby Hayes sneaked over both times following the touchdowns to convert the extra point. The defense was spectacular in shutting down the Camp Dick offense for the final score of 14-6.

Having gone undefeated, the Devils were the 1963 Bluegrass Region Champions but, unfortunately, were not eligible for the state playoffs. KHSAA rules then required a eight game season to be eligible for playoff participation.

Coach Travis stated he attempted to schedule an eighth game, but could only find one team willing to play his red hot Devils.

Fort Thomas Highlands would agree to play the Devils provided that they traveled to Fort Thomas. Unfortunately this arrangement could not be worked out as the Mt. Vernon administration did not have funds to cover the transportation costs to travel to Fort Thomas.

Coach Travis stated the scheduling conflict arose when the Bluegrass Conference voted to become an eleven man conference. Two teams decided to drop out which caused the Devils to lose two games off their schedule.

Had the Devils been eligible, they would have played, My Old Kentucky Home High School from Bardstown.

Looking back Travis stated he would have loved to have seen his boys play that club. “I believe we could have beaten them and who knows what could have happened from there.”

Recently Joe Mullins and Chock Machal reminisced about that season. “We really didn’t know how good we were until it [the season] was over, but gosh we sure would have loved to play My Old Kentucky Home!”

National Teen Driver Safety Week is October 17th-24th

Gov. Steve Beshear has signed a proclamation in honor of National Teen Driver Safety Week, which is Oct. 17-24. In support of this effort, the Kentucky Office of Highway Safety (KOHS) is partnering with State Farm Insurance to bring awareness of safe driving practices to Kentucky's teenagers.

"Young drivers are four times as likely as adults to be killed in a car crash," said KOHS Executive Director Chuck Geveden. "Driver distraction, lack of experience and skill, alcohol and the lack of seatbelt usage all contribute to the high number of fatalities for this age group."

Last year in Kentucky, there were 28,207 total crashes involving drivers under 21 years of age. These crashes resulted in 9,348 injuries and 136 fatalities.

"Car crashes remain the number one killer of teens and October continues to be our single biggest battleground month," said Lisa Ripley, spokeswoman for State Farm Insurance. "While promoting teen driver safety requires a year-round commitment, the fall time frame is critically important. As teens return to school, attend homecoming and begin managing very busy schedules, we want them to keep safe driving practices at the top of their minds because our data shows this is one of the most dangerous times of year for teens to be on the road."

The KOHS is visiting 10 schools throughout the week with various programs, demonstrating the dangers of distracted driving and the benefits of seat belt use. Representatives from KOHS and State Farm will visit Western Hills High School in Frankfort on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 1:30 p.m. EDT with the signed proclamation. Students will also participate in the KOHS Distracted Driving (D2) simulator, which gives life-like exposure to the dangers of distracted driving without putting teenagers at risk by mimicking and displaying the handling characteristics of a vehicle. Drivers can receive and send phone calls and text messages while attempting to obey the rules of the road.

In 2009, teenage drivers accounted for 14,505 distracted driving related crashes, resulting in 4,531 injuries and 40 fatalities on Kentucky roadways.

Kentucky's new texting law bans texting for all drivers while the vehicle is in motion. For drivers under 18, use of all personal communication devices such as cell phones and pagers is not allowed while the vehicle is in motion.

For more information about teen driving safety, please visit www.nhtsa.gov; www.distraction.gov; and <http://highwaysafety.ky.gov>.

Eagle Echoes

This is an exciting time for fifth graders at RES. On Friday October 15th Mrs. Hurst and Mrs. Burdett's fifth graders attended the Camp Wildcat Civil War Reenactment in Laurel County. Students have been studying about the Civil War and a field trip like this one is a way to bring history to life. In addition to the battle reenactment students got the opportunity to hear a speech by President Lincoln, experience camp life, learn about medical procedures of camp doctors, and some even got to shoot a period fire arm. Fifth graders are also conducting research and will create a project in conjunction with Kentucky History Day. Students may work individually or in a group of up to three students to produce an exhibit or a digital story that will be displayed at one of Roundstone's Family Literacy Nights. This year's theme is Debate and Diplomacy in History: Successes, Failures and Consequences. Mrs. Hurst says "Students only begin to understand history when they realize how it is relevant to their own life. Inquiry based project such as this one, cause students to be curious and look for answers to sometimes "tough" questions about our past."

Working Together Works

October is fire safety month. Students throughout the building here at BES have been learning ways to improve their safety at home and school. On Friday, October 8th the Brodhead Volunteer Fire Department presented students with a fire safety program.

Students were able to see a fireman in full uniform as if he were entering a burning building and learned how each piece of the uniform protected the fireman. The Brodhead Volunteer Fire Department stressed the importance of having an escape route at home and school in the event of a fire. And how we all should have a specific meeting place outside once everyone has evacuated the burning building. At the end of the program students were treated with a special tour of a fire engine and received lots of goodies from the fire department. We want to thank all of the Brodhead Volunteer Firemen for presenting such a great program!

Mamaw's Kitchen

By Regina Poynter Hoskins

DEEP DISH BROWNIES
I made these brownies for Will's company picnic when he worked in Oakland, CA. I knew they were giving away prizes for the most popular dishes, but was very surprised these simple brownies came in as a first place winner. They weren't as fancy as some desserts, but they were delicious. I certainly enjoyed spending my prize—a $50 gift certificate to Williams-Sonoma.
3/4 cup butter, melted
1 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1/2 cup cocoa
1/2 teaspoon salt
Preheat oven to 350°. Lightly grease 8-inch square baking pan. Blend butter, sugar, and vanilla in bowl. Add eggs, beat well with spoon. Combine flour, cocoa, baking powder, and salt. Gradually add to egg mixture until well blended. Spread in prepared pan. Bake for 40 to 45 minutes.

VEGETABLE SOUP
This soup is perfect for those cool nights when you want something hot and nutritious, that you can fix quickly. There is no fat in this soup, but it has plenty of flavors from the herbs and spices. I started making this soup after eating at a popular restaurant in Pigeon Forge.

1 can (14 ounce) petite diced tomatoes
1 can (29 ounce) Veg-all®, drained
1 cup water
1/2 teaspoon each dried oregano and garlic
1/2 teaspoon dried chopped onion
1/2 teaspoon dried celery
1 dash hot sauce
1/2 teaspoon sugar
Salt and pepper
Add all ingredients to large soup pot. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and gently boil for 30 minutes. Serve with warm cornbread or crackers.

WALDORF SALAD
3 medium Red Delicious apples, unpeeled
1/2 cup seedless grapes, halved
1/2 cup celery, chopped
1/2 cup chopped walnuts or pecans
1/4 cup Miracle Whip®
1/4 cup sour cream or plain yoghurt
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
Dice apples. Combine with grapes, celery, and nuts. In another bowl mix the Miracle Whip®, sour cream or plain yoghurt, sugar, and lemon juice. Pour over fruit and mix gently. Refrigerate.

Marching Rockets get highest score this season

Submitted by A. B. Sharpe

Wow! The Marching Rockets gave a spectacular performance at the South Laurel Invitational last Saturday. They finished 3rd with a score of 68.51, their highest of the season! It truly was a magnificent show. The weather was perfectly delightful and the crowd was engaged. All the hard work has really paid off and the new uniforms made our band really stand out. All the bands I saw perform seemed to be at the top of their game. When the competition is tough it is a good thing to come in third.

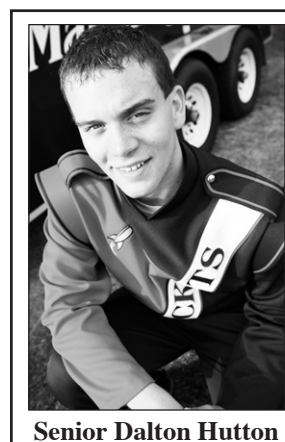

Tomorrow night is Senior Night at the football game. The 2010 Marching Rockets are proud to have six Seniors this year. Please come out and honor all these fine young musicians.

Low Brass Section Leader Matt Fields, son of Ray and Kim Fields of Brodhead, has been a Marching Rocket for 5 years. His best moment for this season is "dressing up like the band KISS for band camp." And his most memorable time throughout his years in band is "when we poured the water on Mr. D and made him sick when we found out we were going to state last year. That was awesome! And also last year, at band camp when we performed on Friday in front of everybody, I did it in my sister's pants. I had been in a hurry packing and had mistakenly packed her khakis instead of mine."

Mallory Harper, Pit Percussion Section Leader, is the daughter of Harold Harper of Augusta, GA and Sherry Harper of Brodhead. She has been a Marching Rocket for 5 years. The best moment in band this year for Mallory was "qualifying for Regionals." And her fa-

Richard Dean

Constable 4th District
Rockcastle Co., Ky.
Working for the Community

To the Citizens of the Fourth District,

I want to thank each and every one that supported me in the May Primary Election. It would be greatly appreciated if all Republicans and Democrats would continue to support me in this November election. It means so much to me that all the people believe in me enough to elect me as your Constable.

I promise that I will do all in my power to serve in the capacity of this office to make our district a more safe place to live.

- I am strongly against drugs and theft
- I am looking forward to working with all law enforcement officials to prevent all the crime in our county and district
- I WILL NOT LET YOU DOWN

Pd. for by Richard Dean Thanks, Richard Dean

Marching Rockets

favorite memory throughout her years in band is "going to state the first year I was in the band with Eye of the Storm. It was great!"

Saxophone Section leader Dalton Hutton, son of Dewayne and MaryAnn Hutton of Mount Vernon has been a Marching Rocket for 5 years. His best moment of the 2010 season is "star-tripping at band camp. Star-tripping is when all the lights get turned off and you get spun around about 20 times. Then they shine a light in your eyes. It's a really weird feeling." And his most memorable time over the past five years "is my 8th grade year when we went to state for the first time. That was a big accomplishment. It was so cool watching the best of the best compete."

Drummer Elliott Jackson is the son of Byron Jackson of Mount Vernon and Hazel Jackson of Mount Vernon. This is his first year marching with the Rockets although he did play with the Brazilian Percussion Ensemble last year. The best moment of this season was "the first competition, actually competing and finishing. It had seemed like it would never happen. It was exciting that first time and every time since." His memories of band are a lot more recent than the other seniors. "It's never boring. I get to hang out with all my favorite people."

Ethan Miller, Sideline Conductor and Trumpet Section Leader, is the son of Kenny and Janice Miller of Crab Orchard. This is his fifth year as a Marching Rocket. His best moment of the 2010 season was the "last day of Camp Crescendo because it was the last time ever." And his most memorable time through all these years is "from my 8th grade year when we went to state and I got to go stay in the hotel with all my friends. It was amazing!"

Sarah Morgan, Field Commander and flutist, is the daughter of Harold Morgan of Leslie County and Lisa Morgan, also of Leslie County. She has been a Marching Rocket for the past 3 years. Her best moment of the season was "my last night at band camp. It was a big deal and I had tears in my eyes when I thought about never coming back again. I'll really miss it." Her favorite memory of her years in marching band was "last year when we went to the Great Wolf Lodge. Regina Rice and I roomed together and we got so scared of the dark that we ended up under the covers all night, too scared to get out of bed and turn the light on."

The season is now almost over. The regular competitions are done and the big quarterfinals are being held this weekend. The top 8 bands will then progress to the semifinals where they will compete against the top 8 AAA-West bands. This Saturday, the 2010 Marching Rockets will be performing at the AAA-East Quarterfinals at Madison Southern in Berea. This is the first time they are competing this close to home. I'm sure you don't want to miss it, everyone is welcome. The cost is $10.00, but you will be seeing the top bands in the East AAA Region. The Quarterfinals begin at 12:45pm and we perform at 3:15pm. Awards will be announced at 4:00pm. See you there! Go Marching Rockets!

Coming Events

Come on out and show your support of the 2010 Marching Rockets!
October 23rd - KMEA Quarterfinals at Madison Southern

Band Notes

Fundraising is a necessary part of any band program to help offset the high costs and provide opportunities for all students who wish to be involved in the music programs here in Rockcastle.

The Florida Fruit Sale is now underway! This is the biggest fundraiser of the year for the Marching Rockets! There are Hamlin and Navel Oranges, Red Grapefruit, Tangelos and Tangerines. 2/5 bushel is only $16 and 4/5 bushel is only $24 for the Hamlins, Red Grapefruit, and Tangelos, $26 for the Navels and the Tangerines. And they are the most delicious fruit ever! Orders will be taken for the next 2-3 weeks and delivery will be in early December, just in time for the holidays! You can order through any band student at the Middle School or the High School or you can call or email Sherry Harper at sherryharper@rockcastle.kyschools.org or 606-758-9963.

And don't forget, Trailer Ad Sales are still underway. Those businesses and individuals wanting to show their support for the band, and get some valuable advertising, may contact band parents to have ads placed on the band trailer which travels to all the band competitions and the local parades throughout the year. This trailer, driven by Fred Brewer, carries the instruments and other equipment all over the state following our faithful bus and driver Joe Masten as he transports the band to wherever we need to go. It has been seen by thousands of people. Please call Ann Craig at 308-3086 for more information if you would like to advertise on the band trailer.

Vote For
John
HOLBROOK
1st District Magistrate

As all of you know, it is less than two weeks before we cast our votes and I am asking you that vote in North Brodhead and North Mt. Vernon to support me for magistrate in the first district.

There are a lot of candidates to choose from in this election (county, state and nation), so you have a choice to make.

You have chosen me, John Holbrook, to serve as your magistrate for three terms which I appreciate very much.

In previous elections, I have visited nearly all households in district one, but that is not the case this time. I am still working on that.

I am for progress of Rockcastle County and, if elected, I will continue to do the best I can to that end.

We all want better jobs and better paying jobs in Rockcastle County so let's continue in that direction.

A vote for me is a vote for progress

pd. for by John Holbrook

Minds in the Middle

This Friday begins Red Ribbon Week at RCMS. Students and staff are asked to wear red on Friday for the annual Red Ribbon Week kickoff concert with Ron Cole. The Unite Club has designated themes for each day next week. Wear sweatshirts on Monday because "Being drug free is no sweat." "Being drug free makes cents" so bring all your spare change on Tuesday for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Pennies for Patients. On Wednesday, wear boots to "Give drugs the boot." On Thursday, "A drug free life rocks" so wear your Rocket red and blue.

There will be an after school dance this Friday from 3-5:00 sponsored by the Student YMCA. Students must have team and parent permission in order to attend and must be picked up by 5:15 p.m.

Students who are interested in participating in the 4-H Speech contest need to see their language arts teacher for more information. The deadline to register is November 23rd.

The 7thgrade would like to thank Ashley Bullock for visiting with them on Friday to share about her recent trip to India. The presentation was full of information and photos about all aspects of life in India.

Congratulations to the Voyagers and Challengers teams for having 100% attendance on Friday. The grade with the best attendance percentage at the end of October will receive a special incentive in which both teams will be together. Congratulations also to Mrs. Kim Wolfe's 7thgrade Shooting Stars on winning the attendance race last week. Mr. Phillips' 8th grade Challengers came in second place, followed by Mr. McNabb's 8th grade Comets in third place.

The RCMS Leadership Teams, with the generous support of RCMS, brought in 347 items and $227 for the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge in Lexington. The Hope Lodge provides a place to stay for patients who are receiving treatment in Lexington. Congratulations to the Leadership team members for all of their hard work. The 6th and 7th grade teams had donations of 149 items each plus large money donations. For their extra efforts, they were rewarded with lunch at the Mexican restaurant. Thanks to the Rockcastle Regional Hospital helping to sponsor the meal and thanks again to all the students and staff who helped with this project to help cancer patients.

Tristan Begley is the $25.00 winner of the PTSA photography contest. His photo is hanging in the lobby with other student displays. Congratulations Tristan and to all who entered as we had many nice photos showing off the history of our county. Also, congratulations to Ms. Debbie McClure and her daughter Shalanta on winning passes to the Big Blue Madness at UK. The PTSA

Thunder on the River

The Battle of Wildcat Mountain Reenactment

The Laurel County Home Guards, organizers of the 21st annual Civil War reenactment at Camp Wildcat, were pleased with the visitor and re-enactor turnout this past weekend, which brought several hundred people to the area. According to Laurel Home Guard President Juanita Westerfield, there were 462 reenactors and an estimated 2,000 spectators at both days' events.

Camp Wildcat (the first major engagement of regular troops in Kentucky) is held on the third full weekend in October each year. The event takes place on the site of the original Confederate Camp. The battle was fought on the mountain about two miles above the reenactment site. Some of the original earthworks are still visible at the battle site. A kiosk with information about the battle and several memorial stones are located at the mountain top were the Union Camp was located.

The Battle of Wildcat Mountain occurred October 21st, 1861 when Confederate forces under General Felix Zollicoffer, commanding District #2, East Tennessee Brigade of the Army of the Tennessee attacked the Federal, 1st Brigade of the Army of the Cumberland, commanded by General Albin Schoepf atop Wildcat Mountain. During the battle Zollicoffer had artillery fire placed on the entrenched Federals and assaulted the mountain three times but failed to break the Federal stronghold.

The Battle of Camp Wildcat occurred during the first year of the war and spelled, "A dark and bloody chapter of our states' storied history." Though the casualties were small as compared to later Kentucky Battles such as Mill Springs, Richmond, and Perryville, the conflict at Wildcat Mountain was a significant historic event in that it occurred early in the war and denied the Confederacy a foothold in Kentucky when shaping Kentucky's role in the war. Attention to details and a knack for historical accuracy make the reenactment one of the states' best. Unit commanders are asked to inspect their units and make sure uniforms and weapons are period correct and worn correctly. The event has become one of the fastest growing Living History events in the country. Henry Smith, Vice-President of the Laurel Home Guard, stated that polls received from reenactors the past few seasons have ranked the reenactment second only to the Sacramento event near Bowling Green, Kentucky. Smith went on to say, "This was the biggest and best reenactment we have ever had. We hope to top this next year because it will be the 150th year anniversary of the battle." Juanita Westerfield also stated she would like to have more area schools participate in the School Day Program that occurs on Friday. Several local Rockcastle Countians participated in the event such as the RCHS JROTC Cadets, Long time reenactors Bobby Wilson, Darrell Doan, David Owens, B.J. Thompson and rookies Jerry Hensley and Willie Martin. To learn more about the Battle of Wildcat Mountain contact the Laurel Home Guard or read the book, Baptism in Blood-The Camp Wildcat Affair, by former state military historian David Owens.

would like to thank Mrs. Jennifer McGuire for donating the tickets for the raffle. Last week, our Awesome Lunch Bunch enjoyed National School Lunch Week by receiving many cards and posters from the students. Mr. Coguer, Ms. Cromer, Mr. Hendrickson, and Mrs. Miller gave the cafeteria staff a break on Thursday as they worked for them during lunch. We love our lunch ladies!

Ginger Taylor of Mt Vernon, formally of Salisbury, NC, won the gold medal for the third year in a row on Oct. 1st in Raleigh NC. The Silver Arts, sometimes known as the Silver Follies, is part of the Senior Games sponsored in most of the states in the US. Senior Games are open to all seniors 55 years of age and older and is a wonderful opportunity for the young at heart.

1992 Rockcastle County History to be reprinted

Response to the reprint of the book Rockcastle County, Kentucky and its people - 1992 has been phenomenal. Calls have come from as far away as California, Texas. The mid-west, the East Coast and many other places. In thirty-two years, this reprint has generated more excitement than any other similar project. Truly this will be a great way to celebrate the County's Bicentennial. Rockcastle County folk will once again be able to buy this treasured book of local families and pictures. In making the announcement, Don Mills, President of County Heritage, Inc., Waynesville, NC (who originally coordinated the project with County Judge Advocate David Wendell Owens) says the reprint will exactly replicate the original book. Highlights of this volume include nearly 400 pages of family history, genealogy and photos. Topics such as Towns, Businesses, Clubs, Churches, Education and a Pictorial section are included. Profusely illustrated with hundreds of photos, this collector's edition, 9x12 hardbound book should be available just before Christmas, 2010. To be assured of obtaining a copy, you must order and pay for it during the pre-publication sale. See the order blank in this edition of the Mt. Vernon Signal (only checks and money orders will be accepted). The first 100 persons to order and pay for the book will get it for just $59.50. Meantime, you may call the publisher at (877)264-3748 or email at address: coheritbooks@yahoo.com.

Yards to Paradise

Plan for Fall Planting Now

As the days grow shorter and nights have a little chill in the air, it is not too early to make plans to plant this fall. Whether it be fall cabbage and kale, new shade trees or shrubbery, or even a new lawn, fall is an ideal time to accomplish these tasks. Begin planning now, as from first frost until the ground freezes is a great time to do landscape plantings.

As trees cease to grow new leaves as days get short and frosty nights nip any tender shoots before they get a chance to "harden off", fall planting works well for most trees and shrubs because the ground temperatures are still warm and the roots can still grow some. This gets a partial year's start for the new plantings versus waiting until spring to plant.

Usually a landscape professional is not quite as busy in the fall as in the spring and can get to your project sooner. This would be another good reason to plan on fall planting of major landscape items.

Often, folks will make impulse decisions when they see a pretty tree. They'll see a flowering cherry in the neighborhood that takes their breath away, maybe it's a Forest Pansy redbud, or even the ubiquitous Bradford pear. Then, they have to get the new tree they have a fancy for planted somewhere. This dilemma can lead to troubles on down the road. Maybe there should have been amendments added to the soil, maybe the new tree should have been planted farther away from the house or the street. Mistakes of various nature are made when decisions are made without a plan. I strongly encourage the homeowner to make a plan (or hire one prepared by a professional if you prefer), so that mistakes are avoided.

Forethought also avoids the wrong tree in the wrong spot—or, perhaps that's the right tree but the wrong spot?

Let me illustrate that point further. Suppose you've bought a hemlock tree, but your soil has a pH of 7.0 and you don't consider that. The new tree will not thrive, and may not even live. Or, suppose you dig the planting hole for your new maple tree and water begins to ooze in and fill the hole. If you've already bought a tree that does not like "wet feet", will you plant it in this soupy hole anyhow? Big mistake!

Having thought out in advance the trees you want, the shrubs and perennials you want, then take your list and your sketch and check it with things like soil conditions, exposures to sun and wind, the ultimate size your plant choices will grow to be, etc. If some don't seem to pass this type of test, you may want to think about substitutions rather than the trees you first thought you wanted. Alternatively, you may want to build a raised bed and plant in new and amended soil conditions.

As you can see, a little planning in advance can make a substantial difference in the ultimate success of your landscaping. Do your homework, and happy planting this fall.

Exercise-Induced Asthma

Presented by Dr. Callie Shaffer

As the weather becomes cooler, we enter the season when many athletes have a greater chance of developing exercise-induced asthma. This is a form of asthma that is commonly brought on by exercise. It is caused mainly by the drying out of secretions in the airways, which then causes more irritation and spasm in a person's lungs. Another factor is that the cooler air also appears to directly exacerbate asthma.

This form of asthma is not as obvious as people may think. Often an athlete thinks that everyone gets as winded as he does, or that it is normal to have coughing and chest tightness during and after exercise. The symptoms are often quite vague, such as fatigue or a stomach ache, especially in children. Exercise-induced asthma may also simply present as a decrease in an athlete's performance.

Exercise-induced asthma is diagnosed by lung function tests which show a decrease in air flow after exercise. Fortunately, treatment is very effective. For most people, all that is needed is an oral inhaler, such as albuterol, taken five minutes before exercise. If a couple puffs are not fully effective, it may be helpful to add a second drug.

If you think you become more short of breath than you should with exertion, you should see your doctor for an exam and lung function tests before and after exercise to answer the question.

With proper treatment, most asthmatic patients not only can participate in sports, they can excel--asthmatics have won medals in every Olympiad for the last forty years.

Students and parents at Rockcastle County High School last week got a first-hand look at health careers and the education it takes to go into a health career, and four students won laptop computers as an added bonus. The event, called Rocket to a Health Career, was spearheaded by the Southern Kentucky Area Health Education Center (AHEC) and Rockcastle Regional Hospital. On parent teacher night Oct. 12, students and their parents talked with universities, colleges, GEAR UP, AHEC, and representatives of Rockcastle Regional Hospital about health careers, then were eligible to win one of four computers, two donated by Rockcastle Regional Hospital, two donated by the Southern Kentucky AHEC in partnership with the University of Kentucky. Pictured from left are: Jennifer Mattingly, RCHS principal; computer winners, Jessica Bentley, Cody Durham, Megan Richards, and Robert Gray; and Dwain Harris, Director of the Southern KY AHEC.

Magistrate District 1

Friends, I am running for Magistrate. Because I am a small business here in our county, I know how hard times are. I would like to see our taxes stay low, more jobs and watch our county grow. I have listened to your concerns on the campaign trail. As a friend, son, father, grandparent, businessman - I would ask for your vote and support on November 2nd.

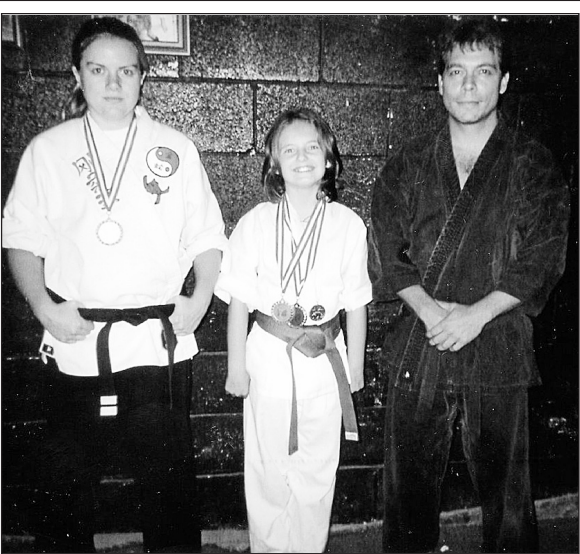

Thanks, Lee Earl Adams
Your vote and support greatly appreciated

Money Tips for College Students

Don't be taken in by something that sounds too good to be true

Parents of college-bound students may be hearing a lot of sales pitches from companies that promise to help find financial aid to pay for college.

There is no need to pay for this kind of information, according to the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA). It can be obtained free by working with your guidance counselor, checking out sources in the library, doing free online scholarship searches or contacting the financial aid office of the college you plan to attend.

If you decide to use a company to help find financial aid, make sure you're dealing with a reputable one. The Federal Trade Commission cautions students to be especially skeptical about scholarship search companies and websites that make false claims. Examples include:

• "We'll do all the work." It's highly unlikely that the company will fill out all the applications for all the financial aid sources it sends you.

• "I just need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship." Never give these numbers to a person or company you're not sure about. You could find your credit card maxed out and your bank account cleaned out.

• "This scholarship will cost some money." Some legitimate scholarships do have up-front fees, but they should not exceed $5 or $10.

• "You're guaranteed to get money for college or your money back." Read the fine print. If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

To learn how to plan and prepare for higher education, go to website address www.gotocollege.ky.gov. For more information about Kentucky scholarships and grants, visit www.kheaa.com; write KHEAA, P.O. Box 798, Frankfort, KY 40602-0798; or call (800) 928-8926, ext. 6-7372.

LEADERSHIP

"It is my honor and pleasure to support my friend Lee Murphy to be your next State Senator. Lee has spent most of his life in community service and has established himself as a true leader. His experience in both business and politics makes him the clear choice to represent the citizens of the 34th District. Lee's grasp of the issues, combined with his concern and compassion for making things right, will assure that this district receives the attention needed to continue moving forward. I ask you to join me in electing LEE MURPHY to the Kentucky State Senate." -
